Lee Reynolds Heads P. T. A. Of High School

Association Formed by Popular Demand at Meet Thursday Eve

Thursday night of last week, a high school P. T. A. was formed. Mr. Nelson, of the H-ded organization, took charge until a president was elected, along with the other officers for the year. Lee Reynolds was chosen by popular vote of those assembled, after being nominated by the nominating committee. Others were Mr. Blunt, first vice president; Mrs. Fred Gehring, second vice president; Mrs. Nell Thacker, recording secretary; Miss Hanks, corresponding secretary; H. C. McClay, treasurer, and Miss Klippel, historian.

OUR NEW HOME

Our dreams of a beautiful school, which we had so fondly anticipated, have finally materialized. For the past four weeks we have been enjoying our lovely new school. We appreciate it! I shall attempt to give you the answer.

We are a group of ambitious students who are very hard pressed for time. The extensive traveling required in going from one building to another, most uncomfortably burdened with books, did not prove to be a time-saving device. These daily excursions through the deep snow, with the biting wind against our faces taught us to really appreciate our high school building.

Now that our school is furnished with new equipment it is our duty to keep it looking its best. We, the Student Body, will do our part toward this as we have done in other like situations.

LARGE GLASS USED BY CLASS

It was in the event of the coming of Halley's comet in July, 1910, that a telescope was purchased by a group of local men greatly interested in science. These men were T. J. Scroggins, H. R. Cooldick, H. P. Oliver, I. R. Snook, and C. M. Humphreys. One early morning in July, 23 years ago, found this group of men eagerly searching skies and the reward came soon when they were the first in the northwest to sight this spectacle which comes only every 76 years. They spent many hours in close observation.

When the United States entered the World War a call was issued appealing to the people to offer their telescopes and binoculars, etc. to the government for service. This group, willing that their telescope should be of good use, sent it to headquarters and it saw service for about two years, part of this time having been on the high seas.

At another time while the group was observing for its own pleasure, it saw a strange spectacle in the western sky and found later it had been an eclipse of one of Jupiter's moons.

A last and very important service the scope has rendered is its use by the Science department of the La Grande High School. It has been used by science classes to observe constellations for several years. Early last week about 160 students from the General Science classes had the opportunity of seeing the moon, Saturn, Vega, Capella and the double star in the handle of the dipper. The observation was supervised by Mr. Wagh, Miss Osborne and Mr. Taylor, instructors in the Science department.

The students of L. H. S. wish to express their sincere appreciation to the owners for the opportunity of having access to this instrument.

Senior Play Rehearsals Are Now Under Way

The senior stunt committee has been selected and are at work on the coming event. Those at work on the coming event are Melba Shepherd, Opal Conner, Marianne Boyles, Myrtle Wheeler and Laurence Filmore. The stunt superintendent is under the personal direction of Mr. Blunt, one of the advisors of the senior class. The presentation is scheduled for Friday, October 27th, which is just before the Pendleton game.

"The Intimate Stranger," a comedy in three acts, by Booth Tarkington, has been chosen as the senior play this year. Miss Sartain and Miss Pettigrew are directing the production.

The cast, just recently selected, is as follows: William Ames, Ray Wilson, Isabel Stuart, Opal Conner, Florence, the flapper, Elizabeth Milne, Aunt Ellen, Leola Wilcock, The Station Master, Glenn Victor, Mattie, the maid, Mildred Keagle, Henry, the servant, John Williams, Johnny White, Hugh Buntan. The presentation dates for the play have not been selected as yet.

The senior English classes are learning all about the "Little Theatre Movement" and its objectives.

JUNIORS TAKE ROOK TEAM

Both teams were playing on the par the first quarter with neither team able to score a touchdown. In the second quarter the passing combination of Don Stitt to Mike Thomas began clicking. Don heaved a 35-yard pass to Mike for their first touchdown. Stitt failed to convert. Two minutes preceding the half, Jack McClay fumbled the ball and Don Stitt recovered and ran 60 yards through the entire Rook team for a touchdown, but clipping of a Junior ended caused them a penalty and the touchdown. The half ended 6 to 0.

In the third quarter Stitt threw a 40 yard pass to L. Price for the other Junior touchdown. Stitt smashed center for the extra point. Hogenesen, Rook end, intercepted a lateral pass for the only touchdown. Pat Marder skinned end for the extra point. Ed Hall played a brilliant game for the Rooks reeling off some good gains through the junior line. The score ended 13 to 7 in favor of the Juniors.

Science Class Sees Many Curious Things; Micro-Projector Used

In order that the students in science classes may see more practical illustrations of what they are studying, several projectors are available for use.

Last Tuesday the German class, instructed by Mr. King, met to see snapshots which he took this summer when he toured Germany. These were shown on the opaque projector. With this machine it is possible to flash on the screen pictures thought to be of interest by students, and illustrations from books and magazines which they bring to class.

Films obtained from the University of Oregon are run off on the film strip projector for the use of the biology, chemistry, physics and general science classes. Last week the Fire Prevention Week is being observed in all the schools from October 7 to October 14. Special assemblies are being called for the purpose of hearing Mr. Lindsay, chief of the La Grande fire department, who gives first hand information pertaining to fire prevention and the tremendous loss in life and property suffered each year through carelessness.

Principals and teachers are taking advantage of the opportunity to teach safety in fire drills, which tend to prevent accidents in case of fire. Fire drills, unless properly organized and executed, in many cases are more dangerous than fires. This is a case where the schools are endeavoring to teach safety first in safety first.

The Grade School football season was officially opened Wednesday, October 4, when an unusually large number of spectators and rooters witnessed the first game, played between Central and Greenwood. Each team made its promised touchdown but one team failed to gain the extra point. Greenwood winning by one point—7 to 6.

The next game is scheduled for Wednesday, October 11, when Riveria and Greenwood will match eleven. On October 18, Central will play Riveria in the final game of the season. All games are played on the Greenwood field, and will begin not later than 4 p. m.—Herbert Evans.

MUSIC AWARDS MADE PUBLIC

The solo awards that were won at the band contest held at Eugene last April have been received. They will be presented to the winners at an assembly in the near future.

The winners are Jack McClay, who won second place in the trombone solo, senior division, and Everett Reynolds, who won third place in the flute solo, senior division. The people of La Grande were fortunate to hear them play at an assembly, and at the theatre last April.

Sophs Handle Assembly Hour Friday Morning

Nervous and expectant were the students of L. H. S. at 9 o'clock on Friday morning as the band finished their opening march "Football Squad." Nervous and expectant because it was a few minutes until the sophomore stunt and a day until the big Mac-Hi game. President Floberg introduced Dell Kennedy, president of the sophomore class, who told us the setting of the clever stunt written by Mary Pree, who was assisted by Viola Rogers, Shirley Zion, Dell Kennedy, Edgar Draper, Vera Wetzel, Jack Eakin, and Albert Hughes. The time was bedtime, Friday night preceding the Mac-Hi game, the place, Coach Woodie's bedroom. Knox Parker, who ably portrayed the part of Coach Woodie, was aided by Mary Jane Johnson, as Victory, Bobby Brack was the ghost of Mac-Hi, Pat Fitzgerald as the Devil, and Jack Eakin as the football hero. Ralph Floberg then presented Mr. Warren Gilbert, Hi-Dad, who gave us a short lecture on good sportsmanship and illustrated the art of school cheering and singing. President Floberg then introduced Jack Alvey, guard, Hughie Irwin, left end, and Bud Reynolds, quarterback of our football squad. This was followed by a session of singing led by Janet Binger and yelling led by Johnny Groupe; Walter Dahl, senior yell leader; Wayne Gooderham, junior yell leader; Albert Hughes, sophomore yell leader; Johnny Groupe, substitute for freshman yell leader; and Coach Woodie, led the faculty yell. An announcement by Dave Stoddard was given on the class ratings of the pep contest.

The next game is scheduled for Wednesday, October 11, when Riveria and Greenwood will match eleven. On October 18, Central will play Riveria in the final game of the season. All games are played on the Greenwood field, and will begin not later than 4 p. m.—Herbert Evans.

Handsaker Talks To All Social Science Students

Stresses the Prevention of War; Urges Help in Peace Promotion

A social science assembly was held after the general assembly Friday morning. Mr. Handsaker, who is with the National Council for the Prevention of War, spoke before all the social science classes.

Mr. Handsaker talked on world peace. He stated that the world Disarmament Conference is to open a week from Monday at Geneva, Switzerland. Mr. Handsaker says that a lot depends upon what happens at Geneva. He says there is a splendid chance that the dreams of the youth of today may never be realized. The Geneva conference will determine whether or not the world is to have lasting peace or another world war.

The next war if there is one will be a different story from the last Great War. The countries will know how to fight, and they will have the most scientifically improved implements of war such as deadly gas, distance guns, and numerous others. Mr. Barlow, an important figure in the World War, guarantees that he can destroy a large city: at 1000 miles with only an army of 5000 men.

Mr. Handsaker advocates a "pep assembly" for the citizens of all towns, for the purpose of explaining the League of Nations.—Hugh Buntan.

The Seniors, with an impressive victory of 18 to 0 over the Sophs kept their slate clean for the week. The first quarter ended without either team scoring. When the Seniors' aerial attack failed, they began plunging through the line. Gerald Butcher ran off tackle 35 yards for the first touchdown one minute before the half ended. Walker failed to convert. In the third quarter Walker ran 40 yards through the Sophs to their 2-yard line. In the next play around end he scored the touchdown and again failed to convert. In the last quarter a lateral from Butcher to Williams netted the other touchdown. Try for extra point was blocked. The game ended, Seniors 18, Sophs 0.

BAND ADDS SEVERAL NEW INSTRUMENTS

The president of the band this year is Jack McClay. He is assisted by Donald Higgins, vice president, and Bob McMillan, secretary-treasurer. There are about forty members in the band.

The members are as follows: Clarinet: Roswell Weeks, Thomas Cook, Wilma French, Emily Beery, Adelaide Zweifel, Muriel Lund, Robert Dow. Oboe: Charles Skinner. Bassoon: Howard Webb. Piccolo: Everett Reynolds. Flute: Hart Rechin. Saxophone: John Blanchard, Harold Weeks, Eugene Cummings. Cornet: Robert McMillan, George Denny, Gale Curtis, Ralph Floberg, Billy Gunn, Bill Wiese, Avery Miller, Dick Larkin. Alto: Deloris Powell, Neva Stein, Dorothy Lee Reynolds, Edgar Draper, Nadine Zweifel. Baritone: Donald Higgins, Floyd Bryant. Trombone: Jack McClay, Jim Bruce, Donald Jasper, George Hill. Bass: Myron Wheeler, George Wilcox, Eugene Shulte, Gordon Clark. Drums: Laurence Filmore, Walter Dahl, Bob Reuter.

The oboe and bassoon are instruments new to the band this year. The bassoon was purchased by the band. Both instruments are unusual in bands in high schools of this size, and are both very difficult to play.

Last Friday the band played at the pep assembly for the Mac-Hi vs. La Grande game, playing for the singing, and while the students entered and left the assembly room. They also played at intersections in the business section during the noon hour Saturday and during the half and at other times during the game with Mac-Hi.

Miss White's classes are subscribing to the Scholastic Magazine which comes out once a week. They also have a library in their rooms and can take books from it to read.

Miss Kirby's Spanish III class has a new textbook this year which they think is a great improvement over the one used last year.

Tiger Team To Be Featured In Series of Articles

The La Grande Evening Observer covers the outcome of the games very thoroughly, therefore our column will be devoted to the history of the players, and will continue for the next few weeks.

Maurice Alexander, a senior, is playing at end position on Coach Woodie's squad. Maurice was born in Birmingham, Washington, January 14, 1916. The larger part of his grade school education was received at Greenwood, from which he graduated into high school in 1932. This is Maurice's first year on the squad, and L. H. S. will be unfortunate in losing him for next year.

Jack Alvey is one of Mr. Woodie's veterans and has been with the team for three years. He was born at Iola, Kansas, January 22, 1914 and received much of his early schooling at Greenwood, although his seventh and eighth grades were taken at Central, where he gained much of his early football experience. Jack is quite heavy and equally as husky, which makes him an excellent guard. He has a hobby for kicking goal for the extra point, which is not a bad failing. Jack also graduates this year.

Max Bean has a wonderful opportunity in making football history at playing end, as he has two more years ahead of him, not counting the rest of this year. Max was born in La Grande, July 24, 1917, entered Central grade school at the age of six, and continued through all the eighth grade when he graduated into high school in 1932.

FRESHMEN ENJOY FIRST PARTY

An annual occurrence for these little Rook girls! They are honored each year at an A. G. S. party by their big sisters.

The high points of the party are interesting to relate: Music, a duet by Misses Mildred Keagle and Florence Johnson, then a journey over the Century of Progress by Mary Ellen Stoddard, more music, a piano solo by La Veda Millering, and a reading by Ellen Torrance.

Last but not least the "ests"—refreshments that go—as you travel through life, whatever be your goal—keep your eyes upon the doughnuts and not upon the hole.

Dancing followed the program and was the last feature of the evening.
