That they should seek the Lord... For in him we live, and move, and have our being. — Acts 17: 27, 28.

THE BLUE EAGLE'S HISTORY

How does it happen that the eagle was ever selected to be the emblem of the American nation, and that now the blue eagles in our store windows have become the symbol for the mightiest industrial effort that the American people ever made?

The eagle has figured in the poetry and patriotic feeling of many nations. The Roman armies 2000 years ago marched under this symbol to the conquests that created the greatest empire of ancient days. The eagle seems to have been adopted as an American symbol, as the result of its amazing powers of vision, and the height to which it can soar in the sky. The eagle sees everything and rises above everything. So may the marching army of industry under the blue eagle rise far above all our encumbering difficulties, and spy out the sure and safe path to a better economic life.

NEW DEAL'S DECALOGUE

One of the new Assistant Secretaries of State is Harry F. Payer, of Cleveland, who, in a recent speech, laid down the Ten Commandments of the New Deal, partly as follows:

- "First—Thou shalt not live, my dear country, beyond thy means.
- "Second—Thou shalt not lose confidence in thyself or thy great strength.
- "Third—Thou shalt not make Mammon thy god but thy servant.
- "Sixth—Thou shalt not permit the unemployment of thy people, well beloved; this is the first and greatest commandment.
- "Seventh—Thou shalt not fail to manage well and rationalize thy industry.
- "Eighth—Thou shalt not suffer the paradox of poverty amidst plenty else thou sinnest grievously."

Labor Calls For Saving of Schools equitable wage for all instructors with security of tenure and "decent" working conditions, the establishment of educational standards, maintenance of educational standards, old age pensions and opportunity for teachers to help formulate educational policy.

The report approved by the convention said that "no greater menace to industrial recovery could develop" than that brought by the closing of schools for economy's sake. It held that the tendency was "destructive" and that "only misfortune can come if this policy is continued."

Reduction of teachers' salaries, "always inadequate," if continued for any length of time, the committee held, will bring the "passing of the public free schools."

SILENCE SHIELDS DANTE BY ORDER OF DUCE

RAVENNA, Italy (AP) — Mussolini's project to surround Dante's tomb with a "zone of silence" has been put into effect here.

The premier ordered that all traffic around the great poet's resting place and that unsightly buildings marring its monumental effect should be removed. The program involves tearing out a number of old dwellings.

The idea of the zone of silence originated in a popular fascist slogan that only Duce himself could speak of the poet in big enough terms.

NAZI LEADER WOULD TAX ALL CHILDLESS WOMEN

HANOVER (AP)—Women who cannot or will not bear children will be punished by taxes, if the predictions of the Nazi labor front district leader for Hanover, Carus, comes true.

"A law will be passed one of these days," he said, "by which the German woman who is without child—whether through her fault or not is immaterial—will have to pay taxes for women who present the state with children."

"The German labor front will publish an honor roll for those who bear children."
