Luxurious But Dignified Is Style Rule

By Rita Ferris
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP) — A "Grande Dame" mode has returned for the evening hours.

Regal fabrics worthy of a queen, flattering features, luxurious fuss and sparkling jewels are molded into dignified gowns recalling the splendor of pre-war salons.

Although shimmer and sparkle are often seen, simplicity is by no means forgotten. Dignity is the rule, and a plain velvet gown cut on the simplest lines is as chic as gleaming lame.

This winter's frocks give an effect of sinuous length. The smartest are built on long slender lines, designed to enhance the figure's curves, many of them sweeping into trains.

The evening wrap is "as you like it." It may be almost any length, from the waist to the floor, loose or fitted, heavily furled or untrimmed.

Capes Are Popular

Capes and cloaks are among the outstanding designs. Richly hued velvet evening frocks are accompanied by little matching elbow-length capes sometimes trimmed with flowers.

Waistlength capes made of a half dozen fox skins are among the most luxurious evening wraps shown.

CLOUDY SKIES ARE PREDICTED

A change in the weather appeared likely tonight and tomorrow, with the prediction today that the skies over Oregon would be generally cloudy, with probably rains in the northwest portion. Cooler weather was forecast for Eastern Oregon tomorrow.

The maximum Wednesday was 75 and the minimum this morning 37 above. The sky remained clear this morning.

Will Helman, farmer near Iola, Kan., exhibited some "tall blue stem" grass from his land which grew to a height of eight feet.

ZOG MODIFIES DECREE AGAINST ITALIAN SCHOOLS

TIRANIA, Albania (AP) — After closing all Italian schools in Albania, then finding that Italy had cut into his finances, King Zog has held out an olive branch.

He has made the study of Italian obligatory in Albanian schools and stipulated that 80 per cent of Albanian students going abroad must study in Italy.

Whether this is satisfactory to Rome probably will come out before an Italo-Albanian commission now seeking a settlement of the difficulties.

Following the closing of the schools Mussolini stopped payments on a 10-year 100,000,000 gold franc loan extended to Albania in 1931.

Tackle Sports Mustache
RALEIGH, N. C. (AP) — Byron Fox, big and promising sophomore tackle, has the distinction of being the only member of the 1933 Wolfpack at North Carolina State college with a mustache. Fox is a candidate for the tackle berth held last year by Rudy Seitz, who also wore a lip decoration.

THREE BROTHERS CORNER
OKLAHOMA TENNIS TITLES
MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP) — A family of tennis champions are the McSpadden brothers of Tahlequah, Okla., who recently cornered honors at the Eastern Oklahoma tournament.

Ray, oldest of the three, retained his men's singles crown. Vance, the youngest, won the junior doubles title with Ed Lindsey of Oklahoma City. Tom, the "in-between" brother, won the junior singles title by defeating Vance in the finals.

Ray, 21, also won the Tri-State crown at Miami, Okla., last year. Tom, 18, was runnerup in the Oklahoma collegiate meet this year, and Vance, 16, was runnerup in the state high school championships.

Ocean Oil Springs Found
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The United States Geodetic Survey has located two oil springs in the ocean bed near Redondo Beach and Hermosa Beach. The springs in deep water cover the ocean with an oil film with a diameter of more than a quarter of a mile, and gas fumes above the springs are pronounced.

Scotch Castle Now Holiday Camp
GLASGOW (AP) — Kinfair's Castle, until recently Perthshire seat of the Earl of Moray, whose countess is Barbara, daughter of J. Archibald Murray of New York, has been converted into a holiday retreat of the Cooperative Holiday Association, which has 40 branches in Great Britain.
