Grande Ronde Chapter of D. A. R. Meets At Home Of Mrs. William Miller

The Grande Ronde chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Miller with Mrs. H. G. Avery and Mrs. F. J. Lotte assisting as hostesses. At the time of her official visit here, Sept. 28, Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state regent, presented the chapter with a copy of the book, "Men of Cham-paign," written by Carolyn C. Dobbs. Mrs. Debra is the wife of the president of Pacific university at Forest Grove and she has combined long and energetic research with a competency in writing that makes this book a worthwhile contribution to Oregon history. The volume will be provided with a book-plate and will be placed in the La Grande public library for circulation.

A nice delegation is expected to attend the annual district meeting of the D. A. R. in Baker on Oct. 21, when the Matthew Starbuck chapter will be hostess to the members from La Grande and Pendleton.

Mrs. E. L. Woods Complimented

Mrs. E. L. Woods, 81 years old, who visited last summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Masten, in La Grande, was honored recently at her home at Richland to which she returned early in September.

The following account of the event was printed in the Baker Democrat-Herald: One of the most enjoyable events of the fall season was a surprise birthday dinner given Wednesday noon in honor of Mrs. E. L. Woods. There were 58 friends assembled and the long table forming a "T" was beautifully decorated with pink and white asters on which a splendid pot-luck dinner was spread. Only one son, L. W. Woods, was able to be present. A splendid program was given during the dinner hour as follows: Invocation, Rev. Brown; talk commending the Christian work done on the valley by Mrs. Woods, the past 30 years here, Rev. J. T. Croft; reading, Mrs. Sam Brown; Elizabeth Grover sang "That Little Mother of Mine," accompanied by Mrs. M. B. Taylor; reading, L. W. Woods; Mrs. Thomas Seigel, Mrs. B. Kirby and Mrs. Ella May McCormick gave short talks on the upbuilding Christian work the guest of honor had done in Baker county. Mrs. Woods has been a white ribboner since young womanhood. Mrs. Gray, of Halfway, an old friend was a guest.

County Council Of P. T. A. Meets

The Union County Council of Parent Teacher Associations met at La Grande City recently with Mrs. Isaac Shafer, of Island City, president, and Miss Emelia Michaelson, secretary, in charge. The women of the Island City P. T. A. were hostesses for a potluck lunch. Mrs. S. T. Simons, Mrs. J. Beeson and Mrs. O. E. Cade, all of Island City, assisted with the serving.

Mrs. N. W. Frees, president of the La Grande City council, was chairman of an interesting discussion on the penal system. Mrs. Paul Cook, of Ackerman P. T. A., spoke on public utility; Mrs. Beeson, on hospitality; Mrs. Roscoe Neal, Central P. T. A., on publicity; Mrs. David Melrum, Riveria, programs; Mrs. Lowell Williamson, Ackerman, finance; Mrs. H. J. Leonard, Central, membership. Mrs. Shafer called on the local groups for their aims for the coming year. Arrangements were made for La Grande to entertain the county in May, after which Miss Dorothy Smutz pronounced the benediction.

entertain at her country home on Oct. 24.

Fire Chief To Speak at P. T. Meet

Fire Chief C. T. Lindsey will speak on fire prevention as a feature of national safety week at the meeting of the Willow Parent Teacher association Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school.

Will Entertain Westway Club

Mrs. Abbie Thomas will entertain the Westway club Friday evening at her country home near Island City at 8 o'clock. The Westway club is an auxiliary of the Women's Benefit association. The W. B. A. is planning a rally here on Oct. 24, and plans for the event probably will be discussed.

Mrs. Read Hostess To P. T. A. Group

Mrs. Fred Read, president of the Riveria Parent Teacher association, entertained committee chairmen and room representatives of the association Wednesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. John Bennett, chairman of the study group, submitted plans for the year's work. A rummage sale will be sponsored by the group, the time and place to be announced later. It was decided. Tea and wafers were served by the hostess during a social hour. The Riveria association will hold its next regular meeting Friday afternoon, Oct. 20, at 2:30 o'clock at the school.

Mrs. Alstott Heads Club

Mrs. Lillie Alstott was elected president of the Past Guardian Neighbors club Tuesday afternoon at a meeting at her home with Mrs. Mary Yeske as co-hostess. Mrs. Mary England was chosen vice president and Mrs. Belle Devine, secretary-treasurer.

The early part of the afternoon was spent quilting after which the business session was held and refreshments served. Mrs. Devine will

Willow P. T. A. To Meet Tomorrow

The Willow Parent Teacher association will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. The program will be on "Safety" and Fire Chief Lindsey will talk on "Fire Prevention."

Pythian Sister Club to Meet

The Pythian Sister Social club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harley Stoneking, 1904 Washington avenue, at 2 o'clock.

Rebekahs In Interesting Meet

Mrs. Myrtle Strong gave the secret work of the Rebekah lodge and won 25 points for the greens in the contest which is being waged in the local lodge, at a meeting Wednesday night at the hall. However, the pins are still in the lead, it is announced.

Music was an added feature of the meeting, piano numbers being furnished by the Borine sisters and Lois Robertson.

M. I. A. Plans Dancing Party

Dancing will be enjoyed Friday evening at 9 o'clock, when the M. I. A. of the First Ward L. D. S. church entertains at the Recreational hall. Officers, headed by Mrs. Stanley Jenkins, Y. L. M. I. A. president, and Elmo Clegg, Y. M. M. I. A. president, will be in charge of the affair. Music will be furnished by the Imbler orchestra.

Club Meeting Is Postponed

This week's meeting of the Countywomen's club has been postponed on account of the death of Mrs. McCarthy. The next meeting will be on the next regular meeting day, Oct. 2, at the home of Mrs. Mary Keltz on Cove avenue.

Mrs. Wight Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. C. M. Wight entertained members of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at her home. Miss Eva Riggs was a guest. Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. W. C. Williams first, and Mrs. George Brace, consolation. Refreshments were served. Mrs. H. M. Howard was named as the next hostess, entertaining on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 24.
