RICARDO CORTAZ and LORETTA YOUNG in "MIDNIGHT MARY"

The melodramatic career of a New York tenement girl who comes perilously close to the electric chair is depicted in "Midnight Mary," a new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture opening Friday at the Liberty theatre. The picture was filmed from an original story by Anita Loos and features Loretta Young, Ricardo Cortez, Francisco Tane, Andy Devine and Una Merkel.

The story centers on Mary Martin, a young girl who grows up in adverse circumstances and is finally induced to join a group of crooks who progress rapidly from petty larceny to robberies on the grand scale. She falls in love with a wealthy young attorney and tries desperately to start a new life on an honest footing. The gangster who has dominated her youth threatens to kill the man she loves, and against her will Mary Martin is forced back into the underworld.

The Floyd Rifles, Company C of the 121st Infantry of the Georgia national guard, at Macon, is 92 years old as an organization.
