Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.

"SERVICE ABOVE SELF" AND THE NRA

When H. E. Walter, of the Home Owners Loan Corporation headquarters in Portland, spoke to the Rotary club recently, he voiced the belief that the Rotarian motto of "Service Above Self" applied equally well to the national recovery act.

We believe no truer words ever were spoken. It is unquestionable that if the nation were to practice this simple gospel, the NRA plan would succeed in every conceivable way; our former prosperity would return, there would be no more wolves at the doors of millions of Americans.

The NRA plan is theoretically perfect; practically, its workability depends upon the unknown future actions of humanity, as represented by the American people. If every one under the Blue Eagle, consumer or employer or employee, were to practice faithfully the Rotary motto, President Roosevelt could sit back with a smile of satisfaction; we all would be near Utopia.

But will the people rise above petty things that may clog the machine? That is the question. If they do, all is well; if they don't, well, our future can again be shadowed with clouds.

MUCH ABOUT NOTHING

Much about nothing—that's the way Sally Rand, notorious fan dancer, probably sizes it up. That's the right phraseology, at least. It's the nothing she wears about the much of her when she does her Terpsichorean take-off, that keeps getting her into the courts. First in Chicago and then in New York, John Law has frowned on her "artistic" endeavors. The crowds didn't object, 'tis true, but officials and those who have the grave and weighty responsibility of protecting the people's morals were much taken aback. We would even hazard to guess that some of the officials may have studied the situation thoroughly before taking action.

We've heard much about her fan dance, and about the other shapely dancers who have followed her lead and shed their scant raiment for quivery fans, but we've never been fortunate enough to see her trip the light fantastic. So we can't qualify as first line critics.

But we have a suggestion—and we believe it would satisfy all concerned.

Briefly, let Mr. Magistrate sentence Sally to ten days in a nudist colony. Then let the officials who caused her arrest buy themselves some smoked glasses and, when out walking, carefully remain on the shady side of the street.

Sally could bare herself to her heart's content, and the ones she has been shocking would have some peace.

And the rest of us could read something else on the front pages.

MRS. FLINT DIES THURSDAY AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Mrs. W. O. Flint, 39, passed away Thursday afternoon after a short illness.

She is survived by her husband, W. O. Flint, and four children, Jack, Billy, Bobby and Evelyn, by five brothers, L. C. Parsons, of McMinnville, Ore.; B. A. Parsons, of Milwaukie, Wis.; Noble Parsons, of Payette, Ida.; P. H. Parsons, of Halley, Ida.; and Arthur Parsons, of Union, Ore.; and three sisters, Mrs. Carl Beeson, of Boise, Ida.; Mrs. Fred Allen, of Halley, Ida.; and Mrs. A. V. Crawford, of Long Beach, Cal.

She has been a resident of La Grande for the past 11 years and was a member of the Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held from the Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. B. Marcus Godwin in charge and burial will be in Summerville cemetery. Friends may view the body at the chapel of Walkers Funeral Home.

Local operators to attend an arbitration hearing yesterday.

Hugh B. Johnson ruled that no employer may voluntarily surrender a Blue Eagle.

Chairman Wagner determined to submit to the labor board for an immediate decision the Weirton Steel company's (West Virginia) refusal to arbitrate its strike before workers returned to their jobs.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 13 (AP)—The Simplex Shoe Manufacturing company was enjoined today from interfering with unionization of its workers and labor leaders hailed the court order a preliminary victory of nationwide significance in the interpretation of labor's rights under the NRA.

TRUCK MEN TO MEET OCT. 14

S. H. Walmer, chairman of the local truck men's organization, has just returned from Salem where he conferred with officials of the state organization. He is calling a meeting to be held Saturday evening at the Salsburg Inn of all those interested in the trucking business.

A. C. Anderson, state chairman of the Truck Owners and Farmers Protective association, will attend and will have some valuable information for those present.

It will not be the purpose of this meeting to criticize what has been done but rather to do some constructive planning to meet the present situation and help to correct any wrongs that the new legislation might impose, officials of the organization report.

MRS. PIERCE IS SPEAKER

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. Walter M. Pierce, recently returned from the nation's capital, spoke to the Women's club of Cove and its guests Thursday afternoon. Her subject was her experiences in Washington and the interesting women she met.

COVE WOMAN HURT THURSDAY

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. H. W. Green, of Cove, suffered cuts and bruises about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in an accident on the Mill Canyon road. She stepped from a wagon just as Fred Hagey drove by, and was hit by the car. He summoned medical aid as quickly as possible. Her injuries are not regarded as serious.

money. It probably would go a long way to raise the morale of wheat growers and their families.

Parrell said telegrams from the country's bread basket indicated a flood of county acreage reduction contracts would arrive here, perhaps before the end of the week. After they are examined, checks will be issued to county associations whose papers are found in order.

The county contract will be reviewed by the county acceptance unit, then by the contract records unit, and if in order, will then be sent to the comptroller for final audit and payment.

The county acceptance unit recently organized includes A. H. Shumway, Milton, Ore.; Cal Ward, Salina, Kas.; R. M. Miller, Pullman, Wash.; Paul H. Stewart, Lincoln, Neb.; Samuel J. Gilbert, Madison, Wis.; Paul O. Newman, Portland, Ore.; and Harold E. Schwartz, Brookings, S. D.

FAIR WEATHER IS CONTINUING

Despite predictions of cloudy weather from the government office in Portland yesterday, the skies remained clear in Eastern Oregon today and this morning's minimum of 41 was the warmest for several days. Yesterday's maximum was 73 above. The forecast for today was for partly cloudy weather tonight and Saturday, with moderate temperatures.

Imports of nitrogenous materials into the United States during the first six months of this year amounted to 386,500 tons compared with 294,842 tons in the first half of 1932.

The Weather

WEATHER FORECAST Oregon: Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; probably rains in the northwest and west central portions; moderate temperature; moderate westerly winds offshore. LOCAL WEATHER Thursday: maximum 73, minimum 37 above. Clear. Today: minimum 41, 7 a. m.—11 above. Clear.

Figures compiled by the United States department of agriculture indicate that the net cost per bushel for raising wheat in North Dakota and other states in the great plains area averaged 72 cents.
