Starr will speak on the Children's Farm home near Corvallis, which the state union maintains as one of its major activities.

Mrs. Ada Jolley, the state president, will act as toastmistress, and Rev. Claude Neely will lead singing.

Reports of officers and branch secretaries will occupy the Wednesday morning session and the president's address will be given that afternoon.

Charles Hatko, of the anti-liquor league also will speak Wednesday afternoon. A demonstration program, showing the union's activities, is planned for Wednesday night with a torch-light procession, pageantry and pantomime arranged. Election of officers is slated for Thursday.

Mrs. Saida Orr Dunbar, representing the General Federation of Women's clubs, will speak that afternoon, and Thursday night speakers will be Mrs. Maude M. Aldrich and Mrs. Maude Slerch.

Mrs. G. L. Boland, talking on the past summer's international congress of women in Chicago, and L. M. Gilbert on the children's farm home will be the featured speakers on Friday, closing day of the convention.

The Oregon union, members are recalling this week, was organized 50 years ago in the old Taylor street Methodist church in Portland. Miss Frances E. Willard, whose name is one of the most luminous in union history, was the organizer.

THE BUNGLER FAMILY

By J. R. Williams

...AND IF I LIVE A THOUSAND YEARS, I'LL NEVER FORGET HOW SIMPLY STUNNED I WAS TO WALK INTO THAT MOVIE AND FIND OURSELVES SITTING NEXT TO THAT SIBYL DARDANELLA AND... GEORGE ARE YOU ASLEEP?

WHAT'S THAT? WHO ME? NO, GO ON.

HOW BRAZENLY SHE LEANED AGAINST HIS SHOULDER AND LAID HER BIG HAND ON MR. EL DOKADO'S ARM, AND SHE MUST HAVE JUST DUNKED HERSELF IN EXPENSIVE PERFUME. I WAS ALMOST SUFFOCATED AND... GEORGE!

OH YES, SURE, I'M LISTENING JO.

George, Listen!

By J. R. Williams

AND HOW SHE GRIFFLED AND THREW HERSELF AROUND IN THE SEAT WHEN THOSE IMITATION ESKIMOS IN THE PICTURE WERE TRYING TO THROW SOMEBODY OR OTHER OFF OF A PAPER-MACHE ICEBERG. UGH!

YES I HEAR YOU JO, GO ON.

DID YOU NOTICE HER CLOTHES? THE COAT AND HAT WERE SIMPLY GORGEOUS. WOMEN JUST GASPED WHEN SHE GRABBED MONTGOMERY EL DORADO'S ARM WITH BOTH HANDS AND SLOUCHED OUT OF THAT MOVIE.

OH I FEEL SO SORRY FOR THAT MAN. I BLAME HER FOR GEORGE! OH GEORGE! GEORGE BUNGLER!
