FLOBERG OUT OF TIGER SQUAD FOR REST OF SEASON

With the Enterprise game at Enterprise only two days away, Coach Ira Woodie is combing his squad to find men to fill places in a revamped lineup, made necessary by injuries to Ralph Floberg, hard-driving half-back. Floberg was injured so seriously in the game at The Dalles that he will not be able to play again this year.

MOUNTAINEERS IN LONG WORKOUTS FOR IDAHO GAME

With one week of practice gone by in which several new formations were added to their bag of tricks, the Mountaineers at E. O. N. are being sent through long, grueling practice sessions this week by Coach Bob Quinn, in preparation for the return game at Lewiston Friday with Lewiston Normal school.

COUGARS TO TRY TO DEFEAT BEAR TEAM SATURDAY

Pullman (Special)—Three times in 12 games have the Washington State Cougars beaten the University of California Bears since the north-south rivals opened gridiron relations in 1919. That 1919 game was one of the wins for Washington State and it was the last time California was defeated before the famous "wonder teams" went on their five-year winning spree.
