EAGLES HOLD WEEKLY MEET

The Eagles met last night at the hall and transacted regular routine business. A broadcast program for next Monday evening is being planned by Arthur Bremer, chairman of the program.

Visiting Here—
Mrs. W. P. Ballard has as her guest her aunt, Mrs. Alice Daniel, of Huntington, W. Va. Mrs. Daniel also will visit her sisters, Mrs. A. E. McGinnis, whom she has not seen for 35 years, and Mrs. L. M. McGraw, both of Wallowa. They are expected here from Wallowa in the near future and Mrs. Daniel will return home with them for a visit.

CCC INGENUITY AND WORK PROVIDES CITIFIED CAMP

ESCANABA, Mich. (AP)—Civilian conservation corps members at camp No. 1087, near here, accustomed to city ways, have provided a model camp largely through their own ingenuity and labor.

Confronted with the task of hauling water, they dug their own well to a depth of 236 feet. With two camp members who formerly had been plumbers contributing the skilled labor, a discarded tank was fitted up for storage.

Now gravity feeds the water to hot and cold showers, to the kitchen and to the washroom. A refrigerator is being constructed under the water tank, with water flowing to and from the tank supplying the cooling medium.

M. K. Stratton of Mt. Vernon, O., recalls when wagon loads of barrels filled with the bodies of wild passenger pigeons were shipped to eastern markets. The bird has been extinct since about 1874.

Order Police To Shoot Any Nazi Demonstrators

VIENNA, Oct. 20 (AP)—Orders to shoot to kill Nazi demonstrators were issued today to the police of Dornbirn in the Vorarlberg district to impress the populace with the seriousness of the situation.

added her voice to those raised in protest against Nazi racial discrimination. The government and the people of Japan, said a foreign office spokesman in discussing the protest, are "highly indignant at Germany's branding us inferior."

More P. W. A. Funds Allotted Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—The public works administration today allotted $5,243,378 for 44 non-federal construction projects in 21 states which officials said would provide 33,807 man-months of quick, direct employment.

TOKYO, Oct. 20 (AP)—Japan has

SPECIAL OCTOBER CLEARANCE TRADE-IN SALE on Firestone NON-SKID TIRES

The Firestone tread is designed with angles and projections to give the maximum traction and non-skid. The brakes can stop the wheels but the tires must stop the car.

October and November are the dangerous months of the year for driving. Trade in your thin worn tires for Firestone non-skid tires, used by race drivers because they are the safest tires in the world.

They cost you no more — besides, in this October Clearance Sale we will give you a liberal allowance for your old tires in exchange for these safe non-skid Firestone tires.
