NO DELAY IN BOARD ACTION SPEAKER SAYS

Classifies Talk to Contrary as 'Nonsense'—Replies to Criticism

TWELVE MILLIONS STILL AVAILABLE

Talks Also Made by R. N. Stanfield, Board Member, and Congressman Walter Pierce

In unequivocal words, Bert E. Haney, chairman of the advisory board of Oregon for the public works administration, last night placed responsibility for any delay in public works projects on the communities sponsoring them.

"The way to get money—to get unemployment relief," he said, "is by conforming to congressional-made requirements in presenting plans for projects. We cannot deviate from the specifications."

Numerous projects have been returned to communities because of incomplete engineering, he said, stressing the necessity of getting plans prepared to meet the requirements.

Touching upon criticism voiced in the Portland press and elsewhere that the board was delaying allocation of money for the coast bridges, Mr. Haney classed the reports as plain "nonsense."

He urged all communities to speed up their work, pointing out that any money unallocated by Dec. 31 will return to the U. S. treasury.

He said that approximately $12,000,000 of $20,000,000 believed available for Oregon, remained unallocated. He predicted a rush of projects.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Oct. 21.—Flew in here this morning with Vice President Garner and Mrs. Farley. There is something that you ought to come all the way to San Antonio to see. That's Randolph flying field, the finest flying field in the world and the prettiest layed out thing in America. Then there's Kelly field. Our salvation in the next war comes out of this unique little city.

Flying on down to Garner's home at Uvalde, where for 30-years he represented them in congress, and the prairie dogs all voted for him.

Where other vice presidents have done nothing but make speeches, Garner just fishes. If all politicians fished instead of spoke publicly, we would be at peace with the world. Tours.

EAST OREGON SCORES 26-0 WIN FRIDAY

Lewiston Unable to Stop Mountaineer Power—Two Players Injured

Too much Eastern Oregon power spelled defeat for the Lewiston Normal school football team at Lewiston yesterday, and the Mountaineers were back at home today with a 26 to 0 victory.

The victory was somewhat costly at that, as two of the regulars, Jiggs Burnett, quarterback, and Ray Berny, giant tackle, may not take part in the College of Idaho game here next Saturday because of injuries.

Straight football only was resorted to, and College of Idaho scouts on the sidelines saw little but power—plenty of that. Both teams showed much improvement over two weeks ago when E. O. N. won here.

'49 SHOW TO END THIS EVENING AT SACAJAWEA INN

The third evening of Elks Days of '49 show opened last night at 8 o'clock with a record breaking crowd, and the belief is general today that all previous records will be broken tonight, the closing night of the four-day show.

CLIFF M'GINNIS MAN WHO CAUGHT ROBBER SUSPECTS

ENTERPRISE, Ore., Oct. 21 (Special)—All except $20 of the money stolen by two robbers from the Stock-growers and Farmers National bank Monday has been recovered and two men charged with the robbery are in jail here, Sheriff A. B. Miller said today. Jesse M. Paul, 44, escaped lifer from the Oklahoma state penitentiary, and James Duchesne, 38, ex-convict who served a term in Leavenworth, Kan., for violation of the Dyer act, are the men held. Paul was identified as the "Slim" of the robbery, while Duchesne was known as "Shorty."

Paul was convicted twice for bank robbery, once for store robbery and finally for killing an officer, Sheriff Miller said. He escaped from the Oklahoma penitentiary about two months ago, the sheriff said.

Loot from the bank, which has been recovered, included $2500 cash, $1500 in securities and $15,000 in bonds. Their capture was effected by Cliff McGinnis, rancher, between Troy and Flora. He sighted the men crossing a clearing and knowing the robbers were in the vicinity seized

In spite of cold weather and wind, that caused both teams to fumble frequently and that materially affected the efficiency of the Tigers' passing game, La Grande High school's football team trounced Enterprise at Enterprise Friday afternoon 24 to 0.

The victory reduced the leading teams in the Northeastern Oregon title race to three—La Grande, Pendleton and Baker, and the Bucks and Bulldogs tangled at Baker this afternoon.

Trying a new backfield combination, due to loss of Ralph Fieberg, Coach Ira Woodie sent Jack Alvey, scrappy linesman, into a halfback position. Jack showed up fairly well, although

AUSTRIAN TROOPS PATROL BORDER

In the grip of a war scare because of Germany's withdrawal from the League of Nations and Disarmament conference, Austria, fearing a repetition of 1914, is hurriedly strengthening her frontier defenses by stringing barbed wire along the frontier and sending soldiers to exposed outlets. In this picture Austrian guards are shown questioning a traveler on the frontier.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS SELECTED BY EAST NORMAL

Three one-act plays, a fantastic romance, a drama and a comedy, have been chosen for production by Sock and Buskin, honorary dramatics organization at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Miss Florence Day is directing the productions for which the cast will be chosen early next week.

"The Princess Marries the Page," by Edna St. Vincent Millay, combines sheer beauty, wit and romance in a symphonious melody of words which Miss Millay handles so well. The play has the quality of an old fairy tale, a prince disguises as a page and after captivating the heart of the pretty little princess is found to be a prince after all.

"Trifles," by Susan Glaspell, is intensely dramatic and although necessarily restricted by the limitations of a one-act play, the implications are so subtly voiced that the play assumes the quality of the Greek tragedy. "Trifles" is an incident from a crime, when two farm women, through their sympathetic consideration for detail find, tucked away in a silk cloth in a sewing box, a tiny canary whose neck has been brutally broken, and also the motive for a

WORLD GIVES VIEWS ON U. S. RUSSIAN MOVE

Men and nations took a varying view today of developments forecasting American recognition of Russia.

Comment flashed swiftly from the capitals of the world—and from remote corners as well—as the word went out that President Mikhail Kalinin had accepted President Roosevelt's invitation to enter into negotiations looking to possible recognition.

Geneva—International circles saw U. S. move as step toward bringing Russia out of isolation. League members thought if Russia should join the loss of Japan and Germany would be powerfully offset.

London—Political quarters felt American view finally ends Russia's "political outlaws." British business foresaw the rise of a new and potent competitor for soviet trade.

Paris—Government circles regarded the exchange of messages as solidifying international relations and opening broader trade possibilities for the United States.

Tokyo—Newspapers pointed out that President Roosevelt's note was dated October 10—when Russo-Jap tenation was high—but officials professed doubt there was any connection.

Rome—Official quarters withheld comment, but newspapers asserted new correspondence with Mussolini's policy to accord Russia "realistic dues as a great European nation."

Shanghai—Literary public hailed prospect of recognition as promising to result in tempering of Japan's strong policy toward Russia.

MINIMUM PRICE MARGIN PLAN IS FACING DEFEAT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—Proposals for government sanction of a minimum price margin to retail stores face almost certain rejection by the administration.

Authoritative officials say President Roosevelt definitely has shelved the plan to prohibit, in a master code retail sales at prices below invoice cost plus 10 per cent. To what extent the NRA may go in banning price slashes as unfair competition is up to Mr. Roosevelt.

The price mark-up issue provided one of the few open differences between the farm and NRA administrations. Secretary Wallace assailed this recommendation of the retail industry and his views are said to have prevailed.

In North Dakota Grain Continues to Move Despite Governor Langer's Wheat Embargo

By the Associated Press
Farm strike leaders worked at top speed today to line up their forces for the opening of their anti-selling campaign, designed to raise agricultural prices and compel the government to supply an NRA for the farmers.

Milo Reno, the "general behind the movement," gave out last minute orders to his farm lieutenants from his headquarters in Des Moines, and predicted a "long drawn out battle" by the farmers national holiday association, of which he is president.

Other developments during the past twenty-four hours in the "farm war" were:

The White House at Washington took cognizance of the situation, and the farm administration hurried plans that may embrace wheat and corn loans.

H. C. Parmenter, Nebraska farm holiday president, appealed to Washington for an embargo on importations of all farm and manufactured food products.

Opposition continued in some quarters to the "strike." Governor Tom Beary of South Dakota said "we should follow the leader" and urged support of President Roosevelt.

In North Dakota Governor William Langer ordered sheriffs to enforce the embargo he recently declared on shipments of wheat out of the state. Despite this, the grain continued to move.

Keith Neville, former governor of Missouri, declined to resign his resignation as chairman of the state NRA board, despite a request by General Hugh Johnson, nation administrator, for him to reconsider.

Illinois farmers sympathized with the proposed strikers, but had taken no steps to join the movement.

THIRD BANK ROBBERY IN WALLOWA COUNTY

The robbery of the Wallowa Stock-growers and Farmers National bank last Monday noon was the third bank robbery in the history of Wallowa county, according to information received here from Enterprise.

On October 8, 1891, a stranger appeared at the cashier's window in the Wallowa National bank at Enterprise and asked W. R. Holmes, cashier and manager, if a man named Smith had sent in a deposit from Portland. Mr. Holmes gave a negative reply, and found himself confronted by a pistol, and a command to put up his hands. Mr. Holmes obeyed, and two robbers rifled the vault. They carried off $3400 in cash
