

College of Idaho Plays Here Saturday

These College of Idaho Huskies Held the Vandals To One-Score Win

Over at Caldwell, they are hailing Coach Basler's 1933 Coyote team as probably the strongest developed there in the last six or seven years. The other day the College of Idaho held the University of Idaho, coast conference member, to a one touchdown win. Those who saw the game were astonished at the Coyote strength, the smooth-clicking backfield, the aggressive line and the all-around football brilliancy of the Basler machine. These lads invade La Grande Saturday to meet Coach Bob Quinn's Mountaineers and Quinn, after scouting the Coyotes, is convinced the Idaho eleven is the toughest team he will meet before Southern Oregon Normal. Over in Idaho the dope all favors College of Idaho to trim the Mountaineers here Saturday, but local fans expect the visitors to get a real run for their money. One thing seems sure, it will be the best college football game played in La Grande this year—possibly the best in many years.

NORMAL SCHOOL TACKLES TOUGH GRIDIRON TEAM

The Mountaineers of Eastern Oregon Normal school, who have breezed serenely through three football games this fall, will know just how good they are by Saturday night. This afternoon they will line up on the E. O. N. gridiron against Coach Basler's College of Idaho eleven, which held University of Idaho to a one touchdown victory recently, and which is one of the few remaining undefeated teams in the northwest conference race.

So far this season Coach Bob Quinn's team has found opponents who were tough in previous years. Just a good workout. First the Mountaineers trampled Whitworth college 35 to 0 and a week later defeated Lewiston Normal school 38 to 0. Last weekend, they played a return game at Lewiston, winning 26 to 0 on straight football—Coach Basler and members of his coaching staff were scouting the game.

During the last fortnight, Quinn has been giving out numerous trick plays to his squad, but not a one was used against Lewiston and the entire bag of tricks will not be touched until Saturday—which is the home-come game for E. O. N. Also, it is the last home game of the season.

The Mountaineers play Whitman, Albion Normal and Ashland Normal on their home fields.

Jiggs Burnett, fiery little quarterback now in his second season under Quinn, suffered a sprained ankle last week and may not be able to play against the Idaho college. There remains a possibility, however, that he will see some service.

Ray Berney, 225-pound tackle from Portland, suffered torn ligaments when his elbow was dislocated last Friday, and definitely will be out the game.

To counteract this Pete Miles, dashing halfback from The Dalles, is ready to play again after a three-week lay-off due to an injury.

If Burnett doesn't start, the backfield lineup will find Cy Crawford, Corvallis, at quarter; Tuck Hodgen, Adams, at fullback; Fred Peterson, Seattle, and either Miles or Chris Lassen, of Pendleton, at halfback positions. Lassen may relieve Hodgen at fullback if he doesn't start.

Several linemen are fighting for Berney's starting position this week, with Wallace Camman, 190-pounder from Ontario, appearing to have the edge. Others in the line will be Howard Wesley, La Grande, center; Pearson, Tillamook, and John Hayden, Pendleton, at guards; Henry Hayden, Bend, tackle; and Dan Hanks, Bonanza, and Ernie Bredow, Portland, at ends.

College of Idaho and Eastern Oregon Normal have met twice on the gridiron. In 1929, the Mountaineers won in La Grande 19 to 6, and in 1932 the Coyotes won at Caldwell 22 to 6. Locally, fans are expecting the outcome of the game to be a toss-up.

LOST PERSONALS

Among the people from here who attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wade were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammack, Mrs. Berkeley Caudle and Mrs. Mack Cook. The Community club met with Mrs. Joe Caudle Friday afternoon with 13 members present. Plans for a party on Halloween were made and refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Chapman, Friday, Oct. 27. All members are requested to be present as a review of the convention will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haun and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blockie are home from a six weeks' visit with friends in Berkeley, Cal. They also visited their daughter, Miss Fern Haun, who is nursing in one of the Berkeley hospitals.

J. A. Sturm had the misfortune to lose a valuable work horse Tuesday. Friday the 13th was an unlucky day for Chas. Page as one of his dairy herd got in the alfalfa field on the Hill farm and bloated. This is the second cow he has lost recently.

Chas. Scott and Mrs. Daisy Willett were married Saturday at the Presbyterian manse in Enterprise. Rev. Weston Shields officiating. Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson were witnesses. Three camps have been established for the convenience of hunters who will pierce the vast forest of the Wallawa mountains in quest of elk. One is on Crow creek and the hunters will explore the Billy meadow district in search for game; horses have been provided for carrying out the elk when killed.

NORTH POWDER PERSONALS

Billy Walker, eighth grade student, fell last week and broke both bones in his wrist. He was taken to Baker where he received medical attention. Clifford Gilkison is seriously ill of influenza. He was taken to the hospital Thursday.

The freshman initiation was held Friday night at the high school, various stunts were performed, after which pie and coffee were served by the sophomores.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman White left last week for Chicago where they will attend the Century of Progress.

A birthday party was held at the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Pete McGovern for their daughter, Donna Claire, honoring her third birthday. The children spent the afternoon playing under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. McGovern. Refreshments were served, a large birthday cake with candles being the center of attraction. Those present were: Joyce Harrison, Wilma Pharis and Carol Timm; Verna, Delpha, Merilyn and Jeanne Smith; Opal and Myrtle Jeanne Simons; Leona and Beatrice Nice and the honor guest.

OREGON STATERS TO MEET W. S. C. IN NEXT CONTEST

By Russell J. Newland

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (AP)—In a wide open scramble for Pacific Coast conference standings, the ten members of the big far western circuit will square off Saturday with some of the most important games of the season scheduled on the football front.

Five conference clashes on that same day will pit Southern California's Trojans against California's Bears at Berkeley; Stanford against Washington at Seattle; Oregon against the University of California at Los Angeles; Washington State against Oregon State at Corvallis and Montana against Idaho at Moscow.

Positions at both the top and bottom of the ladder as well as the intermediate stations will be at stake. Oregon and Stanford have clean slates. Southern California and California each have a tie but no defeats. Idaho and Montana, each defeated twice and with no wins, will try to jockey the other into bottom place.

With the myth of a super-powerful eleven fabled Southern California, journeys to the stronghold of the Bears for the annual classic that is expected to attract a capacity crowd of 80,000 fans to the Berkeley bowl.

When the Trojans were held to a scoreless tie by Oregon State's Beavers last week at Portland, the biggest upset of the current season was written into far western records. Previous games had shattered penalties merely to try to calculate by how many points Southern California would win. The Trojans made the yardage and first downs as expected but in the pinches were unable to penetrate the defense of an Oregon State team of eleven players who started and finished the game without a substitution.

The tie game closed the Trojan consecutive victory record at 25 games since early in 1931.

California opened its conference schedule last Saturday with a 6-6 tie with Washington State. The Bears went into the game as favorites.

Oregon, with victories over Washington and Idaho, faces a stern assignment in trying to overcome the U. C. L. A. Bruins whose one conference loss was a 3-0 defeat by Stanford. The Bruins beat Loyola, 20-7 last week.

Stanford, likewise, is expected to have a real battle with Washington's Huskies. Stanford was hard pressed to beat San Francisco, 20-13 while Washington's varsity strength was necessary to subdue Puget Sound, 14-6.

Oregon State's fine performance against Southern California and Washington State's inspired play play against California forecast a red hot battle when the two northern rivals pair off.

For the first time in many seasons, Montana may line up as the favorite over Idaho. The Montana squad clinched nicely in defeating Montana State 32-0 and also three several scares into Washington State a week earlier before losing by a touchdown margin. Idaho was swamped under a 10-0 score by Oregon last Friday.

Coast conference standings:

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Op.	Pts.
Oregon	2	0	0	35	0	0
Stanford	1	0	0	3	0	0
So. Calif.	1	0	1	33	0	0
Oregon State	1	0	1	20	0	0
California	0	0	1	6	6	6
Wash. State	1	1	1	19	46	46
Washington	1	1	0	32	12	12
U. C. L. A.	0	1	0	0	3	3
Montana	0	3	0	7	33	33
Idaho	0	2	0	6	31	31

Bruins Prepare For Battle With Oregon Saturday

By Russell J. Newland

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24 (AP)—University of California at Los Angeles football squad set about the task of stopping Mike Mikulak today.

To the uninitiated, Mikulak is the plunging fullback whose touchdown deflected Washington 6 to 0 a week ago. And it was this same Mikulak who defeated the Bruins here two years ago.

So it was that Coach Bill Spaulding called his Uclans together and started devising ways and means of sidetracking the Webfoots' line plunging ace.

But Capt. Leo Coats, star center whose play has branded him as one of the best pivot men on the coast, was not there to help, and there was some question as to whether his foot injury suffered in the Loyola game, would permit him to play against Oregon. Sam Storey, guard, who was absent yesterday, was expected back in the lineup today.

Coach Spaulding indicated he was well satisfied with the performance of his line against Loyola, especially the ends, but he has a lot of work outlined for the forwards because they will be outweighed by the Webfoots.

Salem Wrestler Wins in Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24 (AP)—Taking two falls out of three, Wildrat McCann of Salem, won the main event on last night's wrestling card, here from Rob Roy of Jackson, Mich. McCann weighed 157 and Roy, 160.

APPLE CROP GARNERED AT THE COVE NOW

COVE (Special)—Apple picking is at its height here now. The orchardists are all busy picking one of the finest crops Cove has grown in years. At present there is no price offered but the crop has to be garnered and cared for in hopes of future offerings.

COVE PERSONALS

Miss Imogen White was given a birthday party by her mother, Mrs. Fred White, Thursday afternoon, the occasion being her tenth anniversary. The children played Halloween games and passed a happy hour when the hostess served a dainty lunch. Those present were Rita and Averil Harris, Margery Bond, Virginia Davis, Betty and Louis Presto, Lois Baker, Donna Lindsay, Jean Williams, Freddy and Imogen White.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth LaViolette and small daughter spent the weekend with friends in Pendleton.

Mrs. Minnie McDaniel, who went to Wallawa a month ago to visit relatives, returned Tuesday. She had spent the time in Wallawa, Joseph and Enterprise.

Mrs. M. H. Whisler, who has been at Hot Lake for medical attention for several weeks, was brought home last Wednesday when the institution was closed. She is making a marked improvement since her return home.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held an all-day meeting at the church parlors, Wednesday.

Mrs. W. B. Kelley was hostess to her bridge club on Saturday afternoon at her home east of town. Three tables were in play with Mrs. John Miller making high score. A dainty lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. T. C. Hefty and her sister, Mrs. Harold Chaffee, Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mrs. F. R. Conklin, Mrs. Berneice Miller, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Miss Bosse Kelley, Miss Vina Conley, Mrs. Lon Byers, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Stuart French and the hostess.

Archer Antles and Clarence Bertsch, who have been in Idaho working in the apple harvest came home Sunday. The apples are not being picked in many places because of the market; prices are so low that there is not enough money offered to pay for picking and packing and apples are left hanging on the trees.

Miss Faye Van Vlack, of Portland, is visiting her two grandmothers, Mrs. A. Sills and Mrs. Van Vlack.

PUGET SOUND AT TOP OF STANDINGS

SEATTLE, Oct. 24 (AP)—College of Puget Sound's two wins and no losses in the Northwest conference grid race kept the Loggers at the top of the heap after last week's games, but three outfits, tied for second place, were in a position to take command if and when the Tacoma school slips.

Whitman, Pacific and Linfield were the teams with an eye on the lead, each with one victory and one defeat.

Puget Sound tossed a scare into the Husky camp Saturday when the University of Washington had to call on its regulars to come out on the long end of a 14-6 score. It was one of three non-conference engagements for the week-end, Willamette bowing to Columbia college 13-0 Friday night, while Albany took one on the chin from Pacific Lutheran 6-0 the same evening.

Pacific lifted itself into the upper division with a 14-12 victory over Whitman at Walla Walla Saturday, ability to convert after its touchdowns giving the visitors the edge.

All but Whitman will see action this week. Albany will entertain Pacific Saturday, and Willamette will meet Linfield at McMinnville Friday night in a pair of contests with conference rating. College of Puget Sound is scheduled to meet Bellingham Normal at Bellingham Saturday, with College of Idaho tangling with La Grande in the Oregon city the same day. The latter two games will be non-conference affairs.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Dale and son, Richman, of Portland, arrived in Wallawa, by car, Friday on a vacation of a week. Dr. Wm. Dale and his brother, Dr. George Dale, left Saturday for the high mountains and will spend the week hunting deer while Mrs. Dale and son will be guests at the Geo. Dale home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Shell left Wednesday for Silverton where they will spend the winter.

L. Couch and James Dement were business visitors in Western Oregon several days the past week. They met and conferred with business men in Portland, Salem, Albany, Corvallis, St. Helens and Rainier. They found a number of former Wallowa people on the trip and report a most enjoyable visit with them.

Word was received here of the death of Jesse L. Peterson at Portland Tuesday. Mr. Peterson was in the forest service for years and while located here he married Miss Lucille Burt. Both Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are well known in Wallawa and visited here in September. Mrs. Peterson accompanied her husband's body to Salt Lake, his boyhood home, for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kimm, of Vancouver, Wash., were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Vaughn.

Rev. L. B. Williams, of Wallawa, and Rev. Weston P. Shields, of Enterprise, left Monday by car for Baker to attend the meeting of Presbytery. Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Bull have moved into Dr. Jones' residence for the winter. Mrs. Jones and small son, William Spence, to make her home with him there.

Miss La Couch left on Friday for Portland to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Alberta Flye.

BOBCATS WIN FROM RICHLAND ELEVEN 18 - 12

UNION (Special)—The Union Bobcats have been playing some excellent football and so far have not been defeated. Friday in a fast and interesting game they won over Richland 18 to 12. The teams were well matched for size and the local boys were good on the offensive but couldn't hold their opponents when they had the ball. Hensley, of Richland, was the outstanding player and to his fast runs were credited the points won by the team.

WALLOWA CO. BEEF BRINGS LOW PRICES

WALLOWA (Special)—Cattle shippers are discouraged with prices received for fat stock sent to market the past few weeks. In some instances carloads of beef sent to Portland have been held in the yards several days before they could be sold and then at a very low price. Some shipping two and three year-old steers have received about $30 per head for the best class of steers. The fall lamb markets have been discouraging to many who have sold lambs recently. It is understood that prices for fat ewes range from 50c to $1.25 per hundred Portland. With the present high range of hay prices farmers will not attempt to carry through much in the way of old stock. Considerable part of the second cutting of alfalfa is being held at $10 per ton and the first cuttings and other classes of hay range around $8 per ton. Some oats and barley are selling locally at around $20 per ton.

LAST-HOUR RALLY IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP)—Led by the buoyant mining and metal issues, stocks staged a last-hour rally today and transformed many early general losses of 1 to around 2 points into gains of 1 1/4 or more. While wheat turned heavy, foreign currencies soared in terms of the dollar. Trading in equities gained momentum near the end of the session and the close was strong. Transfers approximated 2,000,000 shares.
