

BAKER WOMAN HIT BY LOCAL CAR TUESDAY

Mrs. Ed Brown, of Baker, was knocked down and severely injured yesterday morning in Baker at Tenth and B by an automobile driven by J. R. Kuchensperger, of La Grande, according to reports from Baker. Her injuries included a badly smashed leg below the knee and a cut on her forehead. Mr. Kuchensperger told state police he was travelling about 15 miles an hour. He came in from a side street, he said, and was enclosed when the woman stepped and then started. There was no stop sign at that point, state police said.

LOCAL BRIEFS

SOCIETY NOTES

Northeastern Oregon Women In Attendance at W. B. A. Rally Held Here Tuesday Night

About 100 women gathered from Northeastern Oregon last night to attend the rally of the Women's Benefit Association at which Mrs. Julia Ward, state field director, was the distinguished guest, at the Eagle ball. Women attended from Enterprise, Baker, Echo, Pendleton and La Grande, and candidates included at the public ceremony were Mrs. Helen Baker, of Enterprise; Mrs. Valia Kinise, of Baker; Mrs. Esther Hamzack and Mrs. Mabel Hill, of La Grande. Mrs. Ward gave the principal address of the evening on the work of the association. A program followed in which the following numbers were given: vocal solo by Miss Ellen Cochran, accompanied by Miss Lily Belle Angel; a case by Miss Bonnie Ruth Thomson and Miss Donna Cook, accompanied by Miss Clara Norris; violin solo by Miss Maudie Elizabeth Cooper, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Hicks, all of whom are students at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Myrtle Russell furnished a vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Bailey; the Baker Wagon Club furnished a skit; a special program was given by the drill team of the Enterprise lodge; and a special negro comedy drill was presented by the Baker women.

The rally opened with a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Foy Wetzel, president of the W. B. A. here, presided during the session. Visiting presidents from other parts were Mrs. Sally Meyers, Pendleton; Mrs. Adella Bartholomew, Echo; Mrs. Alice Dennis, Baker; Mrs. Thelma Ward, Enterprise.

The song of Roland, "Beowulf" and "Aucassin and Nicolette," three medieval stories, were discussed at length when the Delphian society met Tuesday evening at the Backstage Inn. Mrs. Lowell Williamson stated that these stories belonged to the literature of escape. They are tales designed to lead the reader away from the world he actually lives in into a world of imagination and fulfilled desire.

At the next meeting Mrs. L. B. Pierce will lead the discussion on more famous romances. The day has not been set for the meeting.

PRICE OF BUTTER IS HIGHER TODAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 25 (AP)—Further advance in the price of butter during a special session of the produce exchange, suggested the general feeling among operators that the government was going to give them a profit, instead of a loss on their goods, which they were piling up when demand was good and they could have sold.

STOCKS FINISH AT HIGHER MARK

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Inflationary enthusiasm again entered the stock market today as the government set a new price for gold at $31.36 an ounce in its move to raise commodity prices. All groups of equities advanced 1-1/2 or more points and trading volume expanded substantially. The close was firm. Transfers approximated 1,850,000 shares.
