"The Rag Carpet Bee" Staged Last Night At Presbyterian Church Before Large Audience

A homey story giving rise to thoughtful situations furnished a vehicle for a group of women who carried their roles convincingly in "The Rag Carpet Bee," a play in one act by Elizabeth Gale, presented last night at the Presbyterian church. A musical program was presented in conjunction with the play before a large audience.

Gabriel Cup On Display at Meeting

The Gabriel cup, won by the schools of La Grande for the largest per cent increase in membership enrollment at the state meeting of the parent teacher associations recently in Salem, was displayed yesterday when the La Grande City Council of P. T. A. met at the Sacajawea Inn at 3:45 o'clock.

meet on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. E. E. Hughes and Mrs. A. W. Leffel as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Leffel will conduct the devotions and Mrs. W. H. Hertzog will be in charge of the lesson. The annual paying of dues will also be observed.

Any who have towels, wash clothes and other articles which are to be sent in the box to the Philippine Islands are asked to bring them to this meeting as the box must be sent by Nov. 10 in order to arrive in time for Christmas.

Mrs. N. W. Frees, president of the city council, spoke on the importance of the state booklet and also discussed resolutions. The city council decided to endorse the NBA code for motion pictures.

Miss Kate Houx was appointed on a committee to consider the emergency that exists in the educational system, threatening the life of the public schools and to encourage legislation that will give emergency relief to the schools that might otherwise be forced to close and also look forward to partial state assistance of elementary and secondary schools as an offset to local property tax.

Each association is divided into four groups and each will meet for four weeks. The fifth meeting will be a combined one of all the groups.

November is child welfare month and was discussed by Mrs. O. B. Maxam. She also stated that a standard association of over 100 members must take 10 of the magazines and with less than 100, only five.

Mrs. Isaac Shaffer, president of the county council, displayed the poster that won second place at the state convention.

A meeting was called at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Sacajawea Inn of the groups that will canvass the district in the Red Cross drive, led by Mrs. L. A. Kennedy. Miss Alida Bigelow, field worker for the Red Cross, will be present tonight.

Dec. 4 is the date of the next meeting.

Special work will be put on at the meeting of the Eastern Star tomorrow evening at the Masonic hall. A social hour will follow the ritualistic work.

Miss Houx Will Talk at Meeting

Miss Kate Houx, director of training at the Eastern Oregon Normal school, will speak to the primary education council in Baker on the subject, "Current Reading For Adults." Miss Houx will give reviews of books and plays. The informal talk will be given tonight in Baker.

EDDIE NUGENT and MADGE EVANS in "BEAUTY FOR SALE"

"Beauty for Sale," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature which opens today at the Liberty theatre, is a daring picturization of the sensational Faith Baldwin novel, "Beauty."

It is a drama of modern city life, with a particularly intimate locale behind the scenes in a fashionable beauty salon. The story, which ran serially in Cosmopolitan magazine, was one of the most popular of the past season.
