Her letter reads: "I am 53 years old and my height is 5 ft. Last year I weighed 154 lbs. I have been taking a half-teaspoonful of Kruschen salts, making no change in my diet. Now I am less round the hips, and only weigh 147 lbs. dressed. But I feel lighter and can now run upstairs, which before used to make me gasp for breath. Wheat Growers Look Forward to Meeting committee on wheat handling, warehousing, discounts and production; John Woodell, of La Grande; L. E. Sterns, of Enterprise; H. H. Huron, of La Grande, are members of the marketing and finance committee. Congressman Walter Pierce, of La Grande, is county committeeman for Union county, and A. G. Bornstedt, of Enterprise, is county committeeman for Walla Walla county. Discussion in many instances will be a continuation of enlargement upon recommendations made at last year's meeting, many of which recommendations have already been fulfilled. Listed among these recommendations are the amended state warehouse code, lower interest rates and more liberal credit through the Federal Land Bank, the working of the domestic allotment plan for wheat, reduction of property taxes and auto license fees, changing of the federal agricultural marketing act more in line with recommendations of national co-operative and farm organizations, branding of grade on pumps through which motor fuel is vended, and the world economic conference. In the field of taxation and legislation, discussion will turn to reverting to the counties some of the tax monies which are, or may be, collected indirectly by the state, and other tax matters of moment. Co-operative marketing, exporting of grain from Pacific northwest markets, and any subjects relative to the working of the domestic allotment plan will hold the attention of the committee on marketing and finance. Production loans with special emphasis on the organization of local production credit associations also will be discussed. Holding of present discount rates for smut and dockage and attention to control of smut that yearly makes inroads into the wheat farmer's income, will be stressed by the wheat handling, warehousing, discounts and production committee. Open river transportation, freight rates and port districts will be before the transportation committee, which is also expected to evolve recommendations on the truck and bus bill now under fire. More is preparing to be a royal host to all who attend, and the Moro commercial club in charge of arrangements, would like to hear from all who expect to "bach" in order to supply quarters.

Cookies

ANYONE who has never made cookies has missed a lot of fun—rolling, cutting, sprinkling with sugar and seeing them come out of the oven golden and glistening. Anyone who has never eaten cookies—but everyone eats cookies. No one seems to know just where cookies came from, and no one knows where they go so fast, when the cookie jar is full on Saturday and empty by Monday.

Time to Bake

If you were in Germany Saturday morning, you might be baking lebkuchen or kranze; in Denmark barked cakes, and in Sweden, some sort of spritz cookies. Here at home, at this season, mince cookies are a favorite. Here is a recipe that is simple to make, and most savory and spicy to eat: Mince Cookies: Cream one cup shortening and two cups brown sugar; Add two well-beaten eggs. Add one-half cup sour milk alternately with the following sifted dry ingredients: four cups pastry flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon soda. Chill. Roll thin and cut in small rounds. On half of them put a spoonful of canned mince and cover with the other halves. Press edges together and bake in a hot oven—400 degrees—about ten minutes.

Observes Mother's Anniversary

With all of her ten children present for the event, Mrs. S. V. McNeill, a resident of Eastern Oregon for almost a third of a century, was honored at a birthday party at the Clayton May home in Baker Sunday. Mrs. McNeill was 77 years of age on Monday, Nov. 6, but in order to have all of her children present, Sunday was observed. Thirty-two relatives were present, coming from various centers in Oregon and Western Idaho.

The guests were all present in time for the banquet, or dinner, and all were seated at one long table which was decorated with lighted tapers and lovely chrysanthemums. This was an exceptionally happy part of the day, with Clayton May serving in the capacity of toastmaster. The birthday cake included two inscriptions, one "77" for Mrs. McNeill and one "12" for her granddaughter, Alma May, whose birthday anniversary was Tuesday, the 7th.

In the afternoon there was visiting and music. The grandchildren furnished vocal and instrumental numbers on piano and cello. The ten children sang two songs, "Mother O' Mine" and "Perfect Day." Then it was time for the guest of honor to present a feature which she had arranged and what a feature it was! She presented each of her children with an empty spoon, which contained a number for a drawing, and the drawing was according to age. The number on this spoon corresponded to a number on a quilt—for the mother had made ten quilts, lovely things and of different patterns, beautifully quilted, one for each of them. Doubtless the spoons had originally carried the hundreds of yards of thread necessary for the careful, neat, multitudinous stitches.

Present Sunday were Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. W. A. Ogden (Winnie), with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Speakman, of Weiler, Ida.; W. A. McNeill and family, of Cove; Mrs. T. J. Ryan (Annie), of Nampa; Mrs. Charles Thompson (Rosa) and family, of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. McNeill, of Willemina, Ore.; Marvin McNeill, of Cove; Mrs. John Rutter (Lula) and three children, of Rock Creek; Mrs. Ray Constock (Suda) and family, of Baker; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton May (Louise) and family, of Baker, and Louis McNeill and children of Baker. Mrs. Edge, of Baker, an old friend and mother of Clayton May, was also a guest.

Get-Together Club

There were 17 in attendance when Mrs. Frank Council entertained the women of Ladd Canyon,—members of the Get-Together club,—Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Wright, of Allcel, Mrs. Council's mother, was a special guest. Each member brought a tea towel and Mrs. Lawrence Drummond's name was drawn from the membership to receive the shower of them. There were many beautifully embroidered ones in the lot. The club will continue with the plan until each member has received a shower. Mrs. William Banton and Mrs. C. Y. Beale furnished entertainment in the nature of contests and Mrs. Charlie Grandy and Mrs. Beale received the prizes. Following this, Mrs. Council served a two-course lunch. Mrs. William Banton will entertain the club in two weeks.

Hallowe'en Party

Miss Elvora Hansen, who teaches one of the High Valley schools, gave a Hallowe'en party and dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bates Saturday evening. It was a costume affair and Miss Luella Burford, dressed as a bum, won first prize for the adults. The children's prize was awarded to Miss Imogene Bates, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bates, who chose to attend the party as a witch. The Old Witch came during the evening and told the children all some candy and gave the fortunes of the guests. Supper was served about midnight. The party-dance was for both North and South High Valley people with a few invited guests from outside. Decorations were in keeping with the season. There were some games arranged and the remainder of the evening was spent dancing.
