WHITMAN TURNS BACK E. O. TEAM IN WALLA WALLA

With the Mountaineers unable to hit their stride at the critical moments, the Whitman college eleven defeated E. O. N. Friday afternoon at Walla Walla 7-0. For the first setback of the season for the blue and gold team.

The E. O. N. team had chances to score, reaching the two-yard line on one occasion, but was unable to put the ball across the goal line.

On the other hand, the only score came when the Missionaries blocked one of Peterson's punts in the second quarter, and running plays gained a first down on the four-yard line. Alex Dietz, freshman, scored the touchdown and Edwards kicked goal.

All other Whitman scoring threats were thrust back by the Mountaineers, but that one touchdown was somewhat difficult by chilly weather coupled with a dense fog.

Peterson and Crawford looked best for the Mountaineers in the ball-carrying department, and the Hayden brothers, Pearson and Brewster all played good ball in the line. Both Coach Nig Borische, of Whitman, and Coach Bob Quinn, of E. O. N. used numerous reserves during the game.

In the last half neither team was able to unleash a consistent drive, with fumbles and intercepted passes causing the ball to change hands frequently.

Peterson and Crawford looked best for the Mountaineers in the ball-carrying department, and the Hayden brothers, Pearson and Brewster all played good ball in the line. Both Coach Nig Borische, of Whitman, and Coach Bob Quinn, of E. O. N. used numerous reserves during the game.

Saturday E. O. N. goes to Ashland to play Southern Oregon Normal.

He is survived by his widow, four daughters, Mrs. J. E. McCoy of Irri- gion; Mrs. B. M. McCoy of Imbler; Mrs. C. W. McCall of Imbler; and Mrs. D. C. Brownell of Portland; five sons, D. C. Graybeal of Santa Cruz, Cal.; Lee Graybeal of Imbler; F. M. Graybeal of Pendleton; and W. E. Graybeal of Pendleton; and Mr. Graybeal of Irri- gion.

In California—
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eckley are reporting a characteristically fine time so- journing this winter in Southern Cal- ifornia. It is almost coming to be a habit for these splendid Grande Ronde pioneers to go south. The trips are found to be necessary on account of Mr. Eckley's health.

Give Luncheon—
Various methods of raising funds for church purposes have been sup- planted by series of noonday lun- chons in the year's program of the aid society of the Island City Com- munity church. The first of the series was held Thursday noon at the home of Mrs. Sam Williamson on Cove avenue when about 50 people were served. The committee in- charge consisted of Mrs. Betty Pen- nant, chairman, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Dee Davis, Mrs. Benwick Clark, Mrs. Emma Kittle and Miss Mabel Mor- ton.

Honored on Birthday—
Mrs. A. H. Parsons of Cricket Flat, was honored Sunday at a birthday dinner given at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Hug. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roulet and children, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Parsons and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aldon Par- sons and daughter of La Grande, Mrs. Harold Hug and daughter, Loue Gene Hardy. There were sixteen for din- ner and nine for supper.

In Valley—
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williamson, whose home is at the head of Wal- lowa Lake, were in the valley for a few days last week, visiting some relatives and attending to business. When they returned to their home they carried their winter's supply of apples from Imbler orchards.

Gives Review—
At the regular meeting of the Cove Women's club, held Thursday after- noon in the Cove library, Miss Am- anda L. Zabel, head of the English department of the Eastern Oregon Normal paid, what seems to be, her annual visit to this organization. For her study of the afternoon she reviewed Agan Ekstein's biography of Noguchi and the discussion was greatly appreciated by the Cove group. The president, Mrs. Charles Fisher, presided during the afternoon and at the close of the program tea was served by Mrs. Ted Johnson and Mrs. Christ Bertsch.

Former Resident Passes—
John A. Graybeal of Irri- gion, one time resident of the Grande Ronde valley at Imbler, died at the Hermis- ton hospital Tuesday evening at the age of 75 years. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at Irri- gion with the Rev. O. W. Payne of Hermiston officiating. Interment was at Irri- gion.

Mr. Graybeal came to Oregon in 1858 and made his home at Imbler until he moved to Irri- gion twelve years ago where he has made his home since. He was born in Asher,

OREGON ALONE AT TOP OF WESTERN FOOTBALL TEAMS

By Russell J. Newland
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13 (AP)—
Down on the palm-studded, green- scribed campus of Stanford they continued to celebrate today the 13-7 Cardinal triumph Saturday over Southern California that furnished far western football with its most spectacular upset of this season.

Up in the north Oregon rosters made such a claim that they re- fought the 13-7 victory over Oregon State that nullified the Webster ban- ner a bit more firmly to the mast- head of the Pacific coast conference. It assured the Cougars of at least a tie for conference honors.

Over in Berkeley the Campanile chimed seemed to deal out the glad tidings of the amazing 35-0 win over Washington that brought California's Bears their first conference victory of the season after two ties and one defeat.

University of California at Los An- geles' Bruins followers congratulated themselves on a narrow 14-13 win over the San Diego Marines, which while not of conference bearing caused the Bruins to take a battering that will not help in forthcoming conference tests.

Montana boosters were jubilant: over the 13-7 win over Gonzaga, a non-conference team that earlier in the season held Oregon State to a scoreless tie.

To the actors next Saturday's pro- gram was more interesting than the one that has been written into the records.

Oregon, league leader with four victories and no defeats, had only three points scored against it, travel to Southern California in the hopes of duplicating the performance by Stanford that saw the Trojans de- feated for the first time in 28 games, since early in 1931.

Although Oregon beat Oregon State 13-3 and Oregon State previously held Southern California to a scoreless tie, no Oregon booster is so rash as to predict a walkway over the Trojan forces. The consensus is Southern California will be twice as full of fight as the result of the stinging defeat by Stanford. The Trojans also will have the advantage of playing on their home field and in warm weather to which Oregon's Webfooters are not accustomed. The cham- pionship goes to Oregon if it wins.

Oregon State will play Fordham in New York next Saturday.

Cost conference standings:

FINAL WEEK OF TRAINING BEGINS FOR FIGHT EVENT

With "The outsiders shall not pass" as their cry, the stout-hearted amateur fighters of La Grande at 7:30 tonight will go into the final week of training in preparation for their bitter ring conflicts with the out-of-town body-breakers in the grand opening of the Eagles great relief fund benefit championship amateur boxing tournament on the Sacajawea hotel battle front Tuesday night of next week. The mighty ring classic is to continue for three nights, ending Thursday.

The game huskies in the "enemy" camps are to launch their final week of training in their respective home towns tonight, too.

Some 15 to 20 wild-eyed fights in all weight classes will be offered on each night of the huge fistie revival. The first furious fight is to start at promptly 8:15 each night of the big tourney and the last fierce struggle must end not later than 10:30 in order to comply with N. B. A. rules.

TOURNEY BOUTS TO BE AT SACAJAWEA ARENA
In order to enable more specta- tors an opportunity to bear wit- ness as the La Grande amateurs make a valiant attempt to repel the attack of the visiting man- maulers, the tourney fights are to be held in the Sacajawea arena instead of Eagles hall. Frank Seward and Charles Hildebrand, Eagles officials, announced today.

Here are names of the out-standing amateurs who are to carry the banner of La Grande into the baptism of fistie fire and who will train to- night in the huge event:
Big Jess Phillips, Billy Budyay, Boyd Standley, Bill Zivkovich, Adam Leighton, Doug Burnett, Lowell Hut- chinson, Chester Graham, Joe War- den, Weldon Marshall, Floyd Sulli- van, Vernon Peterman, Bud Butter- field, Elmer Seward, David Larson, Gene Sletiz, Dean Stevens, Bobby Kitter, Leslie Sullivan, Charley Con- stock, Don McHugh, Alfred Walker, Gerald Butcher, Ernie Bush, Harry Stewart, Don Jennings, Dick Burgess, Leonard Rahn, Leo Davis, Johnny Rahn, Eddie Macklin, Lewis Smith, Alvin Dodge, Charley Zieger, Johnny Zieger, Grant Crawford, Chester Hoak, Gordon Morris, Johnny Parris, Harry Thornbrow, Gerald Vermillion, Jesse Vermillion, Jimmy Chandler, Jimmy Blanchard, Eddie Hall, Harold Lock- wood, Walter Dahl, Verlin Kefford, Dwight Smith, Stanley Spencer, Lloyd Lahrville, Urgel Osborn, Alfred Shirley, Orval Bowers, Jimmy Jennings, Wayne Sullivan, George Chadwick, Frankie Johnson, Clayton Kline, Ralph Looker, Glen Pope, Al Runbey, Billy Clegg, Billy Johnson, Junior Sams and others. A few more La Grande amateurs are to be accepted at tonight's free public workout.

CONFUSION ENDED ON BRAN

New Ruling Corrects All Labels
To protect the buying public, the United States Food and Drug Ad- ministration has advised that every package of cereal labeled "Bran" state on the label exactly what it contains.

Before this ruling, even par- bran products were sometimes mis- takenly referred to as "Bran." It was not easy for the purchaser to distinguish between a cereal that was entirely bran, or all bran with flavoring, and another that was mostly wheat.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is labeled "ALL-BRAN Deliciously Flavored with Malt, Sugar and Salt," a state- ment which describes the product fairly and honestly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has won mil- lions of friends because it corrects most types of common constipation safely and pleasantly. It furnishes generous "bulk" needed to pro- mote normal elimination.

However, ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all." Certain types of intes- tinal disorders should be treated only on a physician's advice.

When you buy a bran cereal, for the relief of constipation, read the wording on the package. The facts are there! Make sure by asking for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. It fur- nishes "bulk" in concentrated form for satisfactory results.
