RELIEF, INFLATION OR NO

There is precious little sense in worrying about the demand for inflation unless we also are willing to worry about the things that caused the demand. That we are going to have something like a final, definite showdown in inflation this winter is becoming obvious. The pressure for inflation that has been put on the White House in the last month or so is only the first breath of a gale that will break loose when congress convenes.

Pessimism may be entirely justified. That, at the moment, is hardly the point. The important thing is to realize that the clamor for inflation does not arise from sheer human perversity and wrongheadedness, but that it proceeds from the contemplation of wrongs which a great many people have decided they are not going to endure any longer. If you borrow a dollar which is worth one bushel of wheat and find, when you come to pay it back, that it is worth and must be paid in three bushels, you have been "gypped," and no fine talk about the sanctity of sound money is going to make you feel any better about it.

It is precisely that which has happened to millions of Americans in the last few years. Debt has turned into a self-increasing snowball, and it has become a load which is just about too heavy to be carried any farther. Paying for a dead horse is never much fun; when the corpse goes on rising in value before you can get all your payments in, you hardly can be blamed if you decide that the rules of the game ought to be changed a little.

Inflation may be the height of folly. But an even loftier peak would be to fight against inflation without offering any remedy for the wrongs which have made inflation look desirable. If we are not going to have inflation we must have something that will whittle our debts down to the size they were when we contracted them. And it must be something that will work.

Over The Valley Personals

Given Birthday Surprise—
Miss Josephine Fisher, a freshman at the La Grande High school, was given a birthday surprise dinner by her mother, Mrs. Harry Fisher, at their home in Lower Cove Wednesday. That day was Josephine's 14th birthday. A buffet dinner was served to 20 people, including besides the members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, Jay Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bell and daughters, Roberta and Gertrude, Arlette Seaburg, Jean Koger, Phyllis Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Becker, Mary Swella, Mrs. Margaret Becker. The menu included of two lovely birthday cakes. The evening was spent with games and visiting.

Has Another Fall—
Mrs. C. D. Huffman, valley pioneer, living on Cove avenue, who has been confined to her room for many months following a fall in which she tore the ligaments in her hip loose, had the misfortune to fall again the last of the week and is suffering much from that experience. Mrs. Huffman had been able to get around quite a little with the assistance of her stool which she pushed before her. At this time she started to walk, we are told, and either the stool had been moved, or she miscalculated the distance, for she failed to locate the support and fell, painfully injuring her other side. The accident is greatly deplored by Mrs. Huffman's many friends.

To Portland—
Mrs. Everett Wallinger, of the Valley district, went to Portland Thursday day last week to visit her sister, Miss Anna DeLong. She accompanied her brother, E. H. DeLong, of Orange Hall, who went to see the football game.

Entertain—
The T. and C. club was entertained Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Loren Tucker at their home in the Iowa district. There were three tables arranged for pinch, the results of the evening's playing showing R. H. Smith had made high score for the men and Mrs. George K. McDonald for the women. Mrs. Smith is the president of this club this year. The host and hostess served at the con-

The birthday cake, which was the "fortune" variety and was the source of much merriment when cut was made by Miss Rappin's mother, Mrs. Victor Rappin. It made a very pretty centerpiece for the table. ## MANY HERE FOR ELDER ESTAB'S S. D. A. SPEECH

A large crowd was present to hear the lecture given by Elder Lemuel E. Estab at the Seventh-Day Adventist church in La Grande Sunday evening. Elder Estab's subject was "Armageddon"—the final clash of earthly empires—or the way to war.

He opened his subject by quoting Isa. 2:3-4:
"In the last days many people shall go and say:
"They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."
"That is what many people were to be saying but the real conditions in the last days are represented as exactly the opposite. Joel described the real spirit of the world in these times thus:
"Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles: Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up; beat your plow shares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Joel 3: 9, 10. The context shows that the prophet is speaking of the last times, when the day of the Lord is near."
Elder Estab said in part: "During the recent war of 1914-1918 the world witnessed what we may well believe, a foretaste of what the real Armageddon will be when it does come, as come it will when the restraining hand of God is withdrawn and the warring elements of earth are again released and set forth on their mission of destruction and death."
"According to Spenser in quoting an article in the London Fortnightly Review—Turkey has been identified with the Buphrates through all modern times. The region of Syria and Asia Minor, long held by Turkey, has been the historic meeting place of the East and West. When with the fall of Ottoman sovereignty at Constantinople, the Turk is driven out of Europe, there will arise once more the eternal question of the power of Asia Minor. That land is the corridor between Europe and Asia, along which have passed the most of the European conquerors—the Swedes alone excepted—who have invaded Asia, and most of the Asiatic conquerors who have invaded Europe."
"Now listen to what Spenser takes from the London Contemporary Review. The whole of Asia is in the throes of rebirth. At last we may see these three—the yellow race, the Indian race, and the Arab-Persian Mohammedan race. And all that is making for the Armageddon."
"Now to quote the London Nineteenth Century and After: A new spirit is abroad in the East. It arose on the shores of the Pacific when Japan proved that the great powers of Europe are not invulnerable. North and south and west it has spread, raising China out of centuries of slumber, stirring India into ominous questioning, reviewing memories of past glory in Persia, breeding discontent in Egypt, and luring Turkey on to the rocks."
"The speaker explained that Armageddon means the conquest or fall of Megiddo which overlooks the plain of Esdraelon, the historic battleground of northern Palestine, and that it was in this important region the prophet saw in a vision, nearly two thousand years ago, the gathering of the forces of the last war to be. He said that war is inevitable. It is sure to come. It is talked of in all the papers and magazines. He referred to Sir Philip Gibbs, a war correspondent and writer of note on the war subject. He listed other writers and their works along the same line.
Elder Estab, who was in the World War, gave a description of many scenes in the trenches and he told of his conversion to the Christian faith while the shots and shells were screaming upon the battlefield. His talk was 45 minutes long and he made full vital interest to his listeners. He concluded his discourse by citing the 91 Psalm as security of the godly during these troublesome times.
Two cars and a truck full of people came over from Cove to hear the lecture. Several people from Richland and Baker were present as well as from the Sandridge, Grange Hall and Mt. Carmel. Of double interest to many of the attendants was the fact that Elder Estab is the son of a lawyer Estab, a well known attorney of Eastern Oregon who resided at Union for many years in the pioneer days. Elder Estab is a graduate of one of the leading law schools of the United States but after his conversion, he has made the ministry his vocation, specializing in Evangelistic work. He is a member of the Seventh Day Adventist church, is president of the Union conference with headquarters in Walla Walla. His territory includes Alaska, Oregon, Idaho, Washington and Montana. He was accompanied to La Grande Sunday by his wife and little son, also by Mr. and Mrs. John Baker and Mrs. Aire, all of Walla Walla. Adlai Estab, another son of Lawyer Estab and brother of Elder Estab, is a missionary in China.

A resolution was adopted unanimously calling upon the Legislature to pass over the governor's veto, Senate Bill 124 which was approved at the last session, providing that counties should not be required to pay for the care of the non-violent insane in the state hospitals. Counties now must pay $30 a month for each non-violent case in the state institutions.
Delegations in taxes occupied much attention. A resolution was submitted recommending that the Legislature increase the present rate of interest on delinquent taxes, or impose a penalty for non-payment of taxes when due. Installment payment was not approved.
