Initial Plans Are Made For a P. T. A. Assn., At Union

UNION (Special)—A meeting at the Union hotel Wednesday considered the organizing of a Parent-Teacher association here. Mrs. N. W. Fries, state vice president and president of the P. T. A. council in La Grande, gave a talk on the purposes and work of the organization and Mrs. Isaac Shafer, of Island City, county president, spoke briefly on the organizations in other towns and communities. Another meeting will be called some time this week to complete the organization.

WALLOWA SHIPPERS GET SMALL PRICES

WALLOWA (Special)—Much livestock is still going to market from this county. Most of the cattle shipments have been disappointing to shippers. One farmer from Lostine sent out four early spring calves and received a check for $147 per head for the calves. Another received less than $8 per head for medium grade cows. Hog shipments from this county are likely to be somewhat lighter than during past years.

So. Fork Grange Has Social Meet

WALLOWA (Special)—South Fork grange held a social meeting Saturday evening, with a large crowd present. A program, in charge of Mrs. Joe Fisher, consisted of: singing by the audience; two solos by Mr. Melvin Crow, talks by James H. Leonard, master of the South Fork grange, Joe Fisher, persona master and Stuyt Robinson of the Lostine schools, on matters pertaining to grange activities and community benefit and social features in which the grange is an important factor. Games provided entertainment for the balance of the evening. A supper was served by the grange women.

Fun And Joy Club Is Entertained

COVE (Special)—Mrs. Bernice Miller entertained the members of the Fun and Joy Bridge club at her home Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Howard Chaffee was the only guest. Three tables of cards were at play and in place of the usual high and low score prizes a prize was given for the high score at each table, the fortunate ones being Mrs. W. J. Hallmark, Miss Besse Kelley and Miss Vina Conley. Delicious refreshments were served by the host.

Cove Ladies Aid Names Date For The Annual Bazar

COVE (Special)—The Ladies Aid society has set the first Wednesday in December as the date for their annual bazaar and dinner. The women have been busy on their preliminaries for this event, which is looked forward to by the entire community as well as valley people. This and other matters were discussed at an all day meeting of the aid held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Minnie McDaniel.

Dicky Conklin Is Two Years Old Now

COVE (Special)—Dicky Conklin arrived at the age of two years Thursday and in accordance with a custom here, his mother, Mrs. T. B. Conklin, gave him a party. At the party were Peggy La Violette, Keith Hallmark, Clifford and Anita Towle, Paul Edward and Ordeh Gorham, Jimmy Chaffee, Gay and Dicky Conklin. Roderick French was ill and Donald Hasty was just recovering from the chicken-pox so was not eligible. The party was in the nature of a circus, with a big tent and a parade of animals made from such familiar things as prunes, raisins, marshmallows, etc., while in the tent was the birthday cake all decorated and bearing proudly aloft its two candles. The refreshment plate was adorned with a team and wagon made from gum drops, animal crackers, and graham crackers, and carrying a cup of ice cream. It was voted to be "Some Party."

The Tillamook fire of August 1933 burned over more acreage than has been covered by fires on private lands in Oregon during the last 20 years, according to the Pacific northwest forest experiment station.

IMBLER PERSONALS

The Imbler girls volleyball team lost a close and exciting contest with the girls from Cove High school here Wednesday. The teams were very evenly matched and the contest was in doubt until the final whistle of the fifth and deciding game. Friday afternoon, however, the girls came back strong and decisively defeated the Union girls. This game, also on the Imbler court, gave Imbler the series with Union two games to one. These games completed the volleyball season for the Imbler girls and they are now anxious to start basketball. The annual Father-Son banquet is to be held Nov. 22 in the ag. room.

POPCORN BALLS
3 qts. popped corn
1 cup sugar
1-3 cup white corn syrup
1 cup water
1-4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. lemon or vanilla.
Discard all imperfect kernels and put the popped corn into a large pan. Cook sugar, syrup and water to the medium-crack stage (280 degrees F.). Add flavoring and salt. Pour over the corn, stirring with a spoon, so that all kernels will be evenly coated. Shape the corn into balls, and wrap in waxed paper. Wrapped in yellow cellophane and decorated with black paper cutouts, these enter into the spirit of the autumn season.
