THANKSGIVING AGAIN

Well, it's Thanksgiving again, the day on which we commemorate the Pilgrims and the things for which they stand. Here back the curtain is drawn and we find that the Pilgrims and the twentieth century man do not differ much in the things for which they are thankful.

THANKS

The teachers and pupils of the grade schools wish to thank Mr. Fredericks and the Evening Observer for the large rolls of newspaper to be used in art and general school work.

TIGERS END GRID SEASON

Although losing their last football game of the season to Pendleton 6 to 9, the LIS Tigers wound up with an impressive record and the North-eastern Oregon championship.

TIGERS PREPARE FOR HOOP SEASON

The Tiger cage quintet is setting its eyes on the Eastern Oregon basketball championship which was won last year. They are holding strenuous practices in the LIS gym until the LDS gym is available on the first of December.

Tigers Face Heavy Basketball Schedule; Partial List Given

In athletics this year we pass directly from one major activity to another. Basketball follows close on the heels of football, and already Coach Woodie is sizing up material and preparing for the first game on December 15 which will open one of the heaviest seasons the Tigers have ever experienced.

OLD BOOK USED BY MISS LESLIE

Last week Johanna Leslie began studying from a little book of "Macbeth" by William Shakespeare. The book bound in green leather was printed in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1604. This book which is about two inches square and one-half inch thick is one of a complete set of the Shakespearean plays that were given to Mrs. Leslie in 1904. The type is quite large and extremely clear. Although the books have been in use for thirty years they are in excellent condition.
