HUTCHINSON WILL FIGHT CHANDLER HERE ON DEC. 13

The date of the event was changed from Dec. 12 to Dec. 13 as a token of co-operation with the management of the Liberty theater which has a road show booked on the former date. At a meeting of the Eagles last night it was decided to send the winners of the forthcoming classic to the inter-state meet in Boise in January, and it was announced the one-night affair is the last amateur boxing show for La Grande.

Local boxing fans were assured a sensational and colorful amateur ring bout when Dan "Pa" Chandler agreed to permit Jimmy Chandler to fight Lowell Hutchinson, brilliant amateur middleweight of Union, in one of the bouts of the Eagles relief fund benefit one-night championship amateur boxing tourney at Sacajawea arena night of Dec. 13.

Lewiston Champs to Fight
 Headed by Bernie Sinclair, lightweight champion, several winners in the amateur ring meet recently held in Lewiston, Idaho, have mailed in their entries for the Eagles great one-night relief fund tourney of champions and near champions at Sacajawea hotel arena night of Dec. 13, it became known today. "Give me Gerald Butcher, lightweight champ of the La Grande tourney and I'll take all the fight out of him," Sinclair wrote.

Some 14 to 16 thrilling three-round fights featuring all of the title winners of last week's tourney against champions and near champions of the local and other big meets will be dished up to the spectators on the one-night affair Dec. 13.

Among the champions of the tourney here last week who will defend their newly won titles in the one-night event are Big Stanley Bessy, heavyweight; Jimmy Chandler, middleweight; Johnny Zigler, welterweight; Gerald Butcher, lightweight; Orville Bowers, featherweight; Dave Larson, flyweight; Frankie McClure, Jack Matot, junior flyweight; and a number of promising amateurs who did not win titles.

The local amateurs will report to fight hall at 7:30 Friday night, where those who are to be permitted to compete Dec. 13 are to train and after which all of them will be treated to a banquet.

FOUR GRID GAMES IN COAST STATES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29 (AP) — A football campaign on unprecedented thrills and upsets draws toward its close along the far western front this weekend, with the possibility strong that a few more surprises may be written into the nearly-filled 1933 record books.

Four outstanding clashes are scheduled, one an anti-climactic Pacific coast conference contest between Washington State college and the University of California at Los Angeles tomorrow and another an inter-sectional battle pitting University of Georgia against University of Southern California at Los Angeles Saturday.

University of Oregon's Webfoot, having completed their conference schedule with four wins, one loss, and a tie for the conference title, will

NORTHWEST FALL GRAIN DOES WELL

SPOKANE, Wash. — With wheat fields in fine shape throughout the northwest, it is predicted that there will be bumper yields of winter wheat as a result of the mild weather prevailing so far this fall.

The wheat is reported to have a good start, is showing a heavy stand and grain men agree, should be in condition to withstand winter frosts.

It is said that yields in the Palouse country, especially, promise to be heavy enough to almost offset the 15 per cent acreage reduction required under the domestic allotment plan.

Quake-Shattered Town Rebuilds
 PESCARA, Italy (AP) — A village of 86 concrete houses, each for a family of seven, was erected near here in 18 days to take care of the population of Salle, a village destroyed by earthquake on September 26. The 600 workmen worked day and night and also completed an aqueduct.

"The great thing Radio can do is to bring Inspired Music into the home"

"It is not necessary to know about music— one can simply feel it, and love it."

"Listening to a cathedral organ or to any great orchestra— who of us has not felt uplifted and refreshed, as by the cool clean air of the mountains?"
