TRADE IRREGULAR IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP) - The stock market muddled in moderately irregular areas today as the trading enthusiasm of yesterday cooled considerably. Firmness of the rails and some specialties was an argument against any extensive liquidation or short-selling, however, and most of the leaders held around their previous levels. Mixed prices ruled at the close. Transfers approximated 1,350,000 shares.

EGG PRICES WILL BE A CENT LOWER

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 6 (AP) - Effective Thursday morning there will be a cut of one cent a dozen in the price of eggs. Weakness in the eastern market was given as the cause by Manager Keeney of the Pacific Co-ops. Keeney said storage holdings were being rapidly reduced and the movement of eggs in Portland was satisfactory.

Further cut in the price of cube butter during the late extra session of the Portland produce exchange, was expected by everyone in the trade, therefore the 1/4 slash in values was in line with conditions.

Butterfat values continue mixed but were generally lower along with butter.
