Mrs. Charles Bingaman Hostess To Sorosis Club At Bridge Luncheon on Tuesday

Mrs. Charles Bingaman was hostess at a charming bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon at the La Grande hotel for members of the Sorosis club. Luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock and the table was decorated with a Christmas motif with a miniature tree in the center.

Grandma Connie Bailey was Mary Stebbins, daughter of the farmer and sweetheart of Jake, the hired man, played by Ruth Smalley. After the play the juveniles were presented with presents from a Christmas tree by Santa Claus, portrayed by Mrs. Louise Hilary.

MULLINS LATEST RAMBLER TO JOIN WINNING COACHES

ATCHISON, Kan. (AP)—Larry Mullins, fullback of the late Knute Rockne's last Notre Dame team, has joined the ranks of Ramblers' alumni making good in the coaching profession. Mullins' St. Benedict's college football team won eight straight games after opening the 1932 season with a 25-0 loss to the Haskell Indians. Among the Ravens' victims, all beaten by large scores, was Ottawa university, champion of the Kansas conference, which bowed 19-0. St. Benedict's record for the two seasons Mullins has been in charge shows 14 victories in 17 games. Jim Harris, guard on the 1932 Notre Dame team, assisted him the past season.

HITLER WRITES 'EXCUSE' FOR TARDY PUPILS

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—An entire class presented a school teacher here with an excuse for absence which the pedagogue couldn't ignore because it was signed by Chancellor Adolf Hitler. Waiting to see the nazi chieftain, the pupils overstayed their leave. One ingenious youth tore a sheet from his tablet and wrote on it: "We couldn't return to our class room because we wanted to see our leader. Please give this your valuable signature." The student approached the car and handed the note to Hitler. The chancellor laughed, shook his head a little, then signed the "excuse" for the youngsters.

WRESTLING COACH HAILS BANNING OF 'BODY SLAM'

AMES, Ia. (AP)—Elimination of the "body slam" from collegiate wrestling as embodied in new rules has the approval of Coach Hugo Otopalik, who has turned out outstanding mat squads for Iowa State college and coached the American grapplers in the 1932 Olympic games. "The new rule is similar in effect," he says, "to the football rule preventing the ball-carrier from coming tumbling after any part of his body other than hands or feet touches the ground. It sacrifices a little of the spectacular, but is a good thing from the standpoint of preventing severe injuries." The new regulation provides that an aggressor may not "slam" an opponent unless one of his own knees is in contact with the mat.

OLD FAMILY CUSTOM

NEW YORK (AP)—It was natural for Al Barabas, line smashing half-back, to report to Coach Lou Little at Columbia for his higher football education. His older brother, Frank, was a backfield star at Georgetown university when Little was coaching at that school.

KURDS HONOR MUSTAPHA KEMAL

ELAZIZ, Turkey (AP)—Even the Kurds, most orthodox of Moslems, have erected a statue of Mustapha Kemal despite the Koranic ban against images. The figure was unveiled here in the presence of several thousand tribesmen.

GAME FOR BOYS' BENEFIT

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Each fall after the close of the regular football season, a benefit game between colleges of prominence or all-star teams is staged in St. Louis for the benefit of the Boys' club, an organization devoted to aiding homeless lads.

PITCHER TRAINS DOGS

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Roy Sanders, former Kansas City baseball pitcher, has had success training Irish setters, a breed of dogs many sportsmen regard as inferior for bird hunting purposes.

Christmas Party At N. O. W. Meet

"Christmas At the Stebbins Farm," a two-act play revealing the homely spirit of a country Christmas, was presented Tuesday night by the Neighbors of Woodcraft at a Christmas party at the Odd Fellows hall. The business session preceded a program of musical numbers presented by the juveniles. The cast of characters for the play included Mrs. Pearl Patt and Mrs. Hazel Graham, as Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins; Mrs. Agnes Andrews and Mrs. Leslie Duncan, as Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, who were caught in a storm and stayed at the farm during Christmas; Bert Duncan and Jennie Mae Sullivan, who played Tom and Hettie, the Stebbins children; Joe was portrayed by Miss Arlene Patt; Mrs. Margaret Parker took the role of MISSOURI ATHLETES MAY HAVE FACULTY ADVISERS COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Members of the faculty would act as advisers to University of Missouri athletes, studying individual problems and suggesting possible solutions, under a plan advanced by Albert K. Heckel, dean of men. Announcement of the plan followed protests by prominent alumni that rigid scholastic requirements were driving athletes away from Missouri. U. resulting — among other things — in a losing football team.

Junior Champion How do you like my new red wool dress... especially the round ruche collar, which makes my shoulders look wide and smart. Mother says it was easy to make. Pattern 6708x

WHO wouldn't admire a dress that is as neat and easy to develop? It can be made in crepe or sheer woolen. Designed in four sizes — 8, 10, 12 and 14 — size 12 requires 1 7/8 yards of 54-inch material plus 5-8 yard, contrast, for the yoke, bretelle and cuffs. Made with out contrast, in 35-inch material, size 12 requires 3 yards. With short sleeves and without bertha, it requires 2 1/4 yards. To secure a pattern and simple-sewing chart of this model, tear out this sketch and mail it to Julia Boyd, 103 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., together with 15 cents in coin. Be sure to enclose, on a separate sheet of paper, your name, full address, your size, the number of this pattern (No. 6708x), and mention the name of this newspaper.
