Organization of Youth Dissolved By Reichsbishop

BERLIN (AP)—Reichsbishop Ludwig Mueller has ordered the dissolution of the Evangelical organization and turned the membership over to the leadership of Baron von Schirach, leader of the Hitler youth movement.
(Baldner von Schirach is an exponent of the Germanic cult movement which would establish a single church—neither Protestant nor Catholic—in Germany.)
Reichsbishop Mueller's action was a direct answer to an ultimatum by the Evangelical youth leaders who told him he must reform the Protestant church cabinet or lose their confidence.
Von Schirach assumed authority at once, immediately removed Herr Stange, the chief leader of the Protestant youth, from office, and informed him he also had requested the Nazi party to strike his name from the membership roll, asserting he had tried to sabotage the unity of German youth desired by Chancellor Hitler.

FRESH STORM HITS OREGON SHORE TODAY

at Oregon City. The cantian river was falling gradually at Jefferson but smaller streams of the valley have washed out several small bridges and flooded secondary roads.
Everett reported that the "worst flood crest in the history of Snohomish county" was being borne down by the Snohomish river and its tributaries, all of which were near record heights.
From all other western parts of Washington came similar reports, with the Chehalis River valley again in the grip of record flood waters, Skagit County farmers taking to row-boats as a means of travel, South Aberdeen again flooded, and the Cowlitz and Columbia rivers rising.
Tree kills reported.
On Snoqualmie Pass yesterday, a huge tree toppled onto an automobile crushing it and killing C. J. Aschenbrenner, 46, a Portland salesman. Many other trees were down, and the Sunset highway closed indefinitely.
The Puyallup river had risen more than seven feet last night and the Snoqualmie river was up three feet, flooding the Sunset highway and isolating the town of Snoqualmie.
The town of Oakville was again flooded, and thousands of acres of lowland between Elma and the ocean were under water.
To the north, British Columbia was suffering from similar high waters, with heavy snows in the interior.
Highway traffic in the Pacific Northwest was hourly becoming more dangerous and uncertain as the storm and heavy rainfall continue.
Highways in the southern and eastern parts of Oregon, however, are not being endangered.
Additional deaths today brought the total for the new storm to five, as follows:
C. J. Aschenbrenner, 46, Portland, killed when a tree fell on his car in Snoqualmie pass; Hugh Benwick, Victoria, whose car crashed into a truck at a slippery intersection in the British Columbia city; Nicky Fumar, 3-year-old Filipino, drowned at Port Angeles; Richard Hilaire, 50, Lummi Indian, fatally injured near Bellingham; and Sam Brewer, 19, a logger, struck by a falling tree near Snoqualmie.

Fights Return To Chain Gang

Return to a Florida chain gang faces James Larue, 27, above, unless newly found friends in Chicago win a court fight against his return. Extradition has been granted by Governor Horner of Illinois for Larue, who escaped after serving six months of his five-year term for breaking into a deserted hut to sleep. He was arrested in Chicago on a gun theft charge, identified as a fugitive, and claimed by Florida.

TODAY IN BRIEF, IN AND AROUND OREGON

AS CHRONICLED BY THE DAILY LEASED WIRE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BEER HELPS TURK GROWERS
ROSEBURG, Ore., Dec. 21 (AP)—Legalization of beer in the United States promises to be of great benefit to turkey growers of the Pacific coast. Herbert Beyers of Salt Lake City, manager of the Northwestern Turkey Growers' association, central marketing agency for coast cooperatives, stated here today.
Retailers of beer, particularly in the larger cities, he reports, have found turkey sandwiches to be extremely popular as complements to the foamy beverage, and the city markets are disposing of an unusually large number of birds for this purpose.
NO TRACE OF MISSING GIRL
PORTLAND, Dec. 21 (AP)—No trace had been found today of Dorothy Folsom, 21, a student nurse, who disappeared Saturday afternoon.
Detectives working on the case said they have been unable to discover the whereabouts of the girl or of Lawrence Morgan, 25, known also as Jack Peabody, with whom Miss Folsom is thought to have had an appointment Saturday.
Foreign visitors landing in the British Isles for the first nine months of 1933 totalled 159,845, an increase of 3,437 over the corresponding period last year.
