THE NEWFANGLES

On Again, Off Again

BETTING EVEN ON EAST-WEST GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28 (AP)—Even money odds and the prospect of a 50,000-fan crowd today indicated that the East-West All-Star charity football game here New Year's day will be one of the standout attractions in the classic's history.

"No less than 50,000 will be in the stadium," Don Elliott, publicity chairman, said. "Sales are several thousands in advance of the mark set at this time last year."

Today's players in both rival camps—the East at Palo Alto and the West at Berkeley—began to taper off their strenuous training sessions, abandoning the double daily drill. One workout a day will be the order from now until Sunday.

OREGON STATERS TRIM WILLAMETTE

SALEM, Dec. 28 (AP)—The lanky, smooth-passing Oregon State college basketball team defeated Willamette university 41 to 24 in a rough game here last night.

Long shots gave the Bearcats an early lead, but the coast conference champions soon found the hoop for a number of short shots. Coach Stata Gill played his giant guards as forwards on offense, making use of their height at both ends of the floor.

George Hibbard led the Beaver attack with 17 points and was followed closely by Folen, Kidder and O'Connell. Burdett and Manning were chief scorers for Willamette.

AT THE LIBERTY

The tremendous drama behind that airmail letter you received this morning is the theme of the M-G-M picture in which John Barrymore, Helen Hayes, Clark Gable, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy will be seen starting today at the Liberty theatre.

The story is "Night Flight." It was written by a famous air mail pilot, Antoine de Saint-Exupery. While it is laid in South America, over highly dangerous sea and mountain routes, its drama is being repeated daily on a dozen lines within the continental United States.

The tale was directed by Clarence Brown, himself a licensed transport pilot.
