Hog-Corn Plan Is Discussed at Meeting

up will be much the same as that utilized in the wheat control movement with separate organizations for the two programs.

The Blue Mountain Livestock association which markets about 40 per cent of the hogs and 90 per cent of the sheep produced here will hold an annual meeting Saturday, Jan. 6 at the city hall at 1:30 o'clock at which time it is hoped that a speaker will be in attendance to outline the detailed program.

Lyle Clark, of the Bodine and Clark Commission Co., of North Portland, already has accepted an invitation to speak on marketing at the annual meeting which will be attended by livestock growers from the Blue Mountain district.

The purpose of the adjustment plans under the Roosevelt administration is to raise prices by controlling production of corn, hogs, wheat and other commodities. Farmers of Union county rallied to the wheat adjustment plan with enthusiasm and the first installment of money is expected to arrive in the county within the next few days, Mr. Avery reports.

SCHOOLS TO BEGIN WORK ON TUESDAY

The normal school will begin its winter quarter Tuesday, with registration, etc. the first day. Classes will begin operating within a day or two. Reports indicate the enrollment will be comparable with the fall term, possibly better.

At the La Grande High school the next few weeks will be required to complete the first half-year semester with the mid-year exams due in the near future.

With the re-opening of school, basketball activities will begin in full blast, and hardly a week will pass without from two to five games played in La Grande.

Several educators of this city attended the convention of the Oregon State Teachers association in Portland during the holiday season, some of them taking important parts in discussions.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

Jake Linker, of Portland returned on Tuesday after spending Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Linker of Wallowa.

Joint installation of the Eastern Star and Masonic orders was held Wednesday evening in the Masonic hall. Mrs. J. C. Baird acted as installing officer for Jessica chapter and Edwin Marvin installed the Masonic officers. About fifty people attended the meeting. Following the installation ceremonies lovely refreshments were served by members of Stanley lodge.

Mrs. F. H. Brownlee, who underwent a serious operation at Hot Lake recently and has been critically ill was reported to be slightly better on Wednesday.

Miss Agatha Marvin, first grade teacher of Wallowa, is a patient at Hot Lake Sanatorium this week. Miss Marvin had a sinus operation Tuesday.

Miss Elaine Williams, of Corvallis, who has been visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Williams during the holidays left on Wednesday by state for her home.

Mrs. J. B. Gregory and daughter, Kathryn, were passengers on Monday night's train for Portland.

Word has been received in Wallowa of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bale, of San Francisco. Mrs. Bale will be remembered here as Miss Edith Snell. The baby has received the name of Ann Elizabeth. Mrs. T. T. Shell, of Wallowa, is visiting at the Bale home in San Francisco.

Levinsky Defeats Don McCorkindale

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 (AP)—Don Dinnie McCorkindale, who came all the way from South Africa to pursue his boxing career, brought plenty of courage with him, but apparently little else with which to cope with such American heavyweights as King Levinsky, Chicago's celebrated ex-fish peddler.

McCorkindale gave a convincing demonstration of his ability to sop up punishment last night against Levinsky in the Chicago stadium. He got plenty of beating from the King who won the unanimous decision of referee and judges.

Impellittere Is Beaten by Neusel

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 (AP)—They say Harry Lenny spent something like $40,000 in five years on the flaccid education of Ray Impellittere, so-called "American Carnera," but the big fellow still has much to learn.

Tossed into the ring at Madison Square Garden last night against the blond Teuton, Walter Neusel, Impellittere was decisively beaten in ten rounds witnessed by a small crowd of 4,000.

Charles Nantz, who is in a C.C.C. camp near Roseburg, is here for a week's vacation with his family.

Grande holding conferences with city, chamber of commerce and other officials.

He explained while here that airports may be improved and put into first class condition under C. W. A. funds provided said airports are owned by state, county or city, or are held by the state or its subdivisions under a five-year lease with option to buy.

At present the airport is held under a lease with option to buy by the La Grande chamber of commerce, and the lease has approximately a year and a half to run.

Improvement, if attempted, would include leveling, draining, building of two runways, etc., designed to make the airport an all-year, night and day landing point.

Lt. Smith, accompanied by Harold C. Boone, chamber of commerce secretary, is in Enterprise today discussing airports with Wallowa officials.

BAD MAN OF SOUTHWEST NEAR DEATH

The man, identified by police as Raymond Roe, was wounded slightly in the right shoulder.

A second woman captured was identified by officers as Hazel Hudson, Underhill's bride.

Underhill, known as the "Lone Wolf" and the "City-State Terror," was serving a life sentence for the murder of Merle Colver, Wichita, Kansas, policeman, when he escaped last May 30.

He was reported to have been one of two leaders of the break, the other being Harvey Bailey, captured in Texas and now in the Leavenworth federal penitentiary serving a life sentence on conviction of participation in the $200,000 ransom abduction of Charles P. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire.

Underhill also is wanted for the murder of a boy at Picher, Okla., and escaped from the Oklahoma state penitentiary at McAlester in August, 1931 while serving for the murder of a Muskogee, Okla., soda fountain attendant.

Underhill also was wanted for the slaying of convict Frank Nash and four officers on the Kansas City Union station plaza last June 17, in a plot to liberate Nash. A government agent, Raymond Caffrey, was one of those slain.

Numerous bank robberies and lesser crimes are charged up to Underhill who operated mostly in the southwest.

GUARD ENJOYS DRILL HOLIDAY

Company E, 186th Infantry, Oregon national guard, also is enjoying a holiday period. The quarterly allotment of drills was completed some time ago and the first drill in 1934 will not be held until Monday, Jan. 8, according to Capt. Walter A. Beau.

OREGON STATERS SWAMP SONS OF ASHLAND 71-29

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 30 (AP)—Scoring almost at will, the speedy Oregon State college Orangers defeated the Teachers of Southern Oregon Normal school, 71 to 29, in their basketball game here last night.

The Staters, led by Kidder and Folen, a couple of lanky sophomores, were particularly deadly when it came to work under the basket. Kidder looped in 9 field goals and a free throw to lead the individual scorers with 19 points, gaining them all in the first half.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 30 (AP)—Their offensive clicking smoothly, the University of Oregon Webfoots had little difficulty in disposing of the Columbia University Irish, 35 to 19, in their basketball game here last night.

The Webfoot attack was led by W. Jones, center, who snared four field goals and converted two free throws to account for a total of 10 points.

mation and to see if they wished to take any further action regarding the cut in the appropriation. No decision was reached at last night's meeting.

Attempts to learn anything additional from Engineer Hookley met with no result. Mr. Hookley told the Associated Press in Portland he "sincerely wishes" he could give more information on the project, but that the local board was prevented from giving this data by restrictions which forbids any discussion of what recommendations might be made on state projects.

MRS. HIGH IS LAID TO REST

UNION (Special)—Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Cook undertaking parlors for Mrs. Mary High who died at Bendition Tuesday. Rev. R. C. Lee conducted the services. She was born in Kentucky and came to Oregon in the early nineties. The body was cremated and will be interred beside her husband at Richland. She is survived by one son John, and two daughters, Mrs. Frankie Holmes, of Portland, and Mrs. Norman Haekel, of Union.

EAST-WEST GAME BEGINS AT 2 P. M.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30 (AP)—Over the peak of their heavy training routine and with a week's intensive practice behind them, football stars of the east and west tapered off today in final preparations for the annual charity game here New Year's day.

The two teams will line up on even terms, so far as those who back their opinions with money are concerned. Each side has 22 players and every one will be seen in action sometime during the game. Fifty thousand fans are expected to see the contest which will open at 2 p. m. (P. S. T.) proceeds will go to the shriners' crippled children's hospital.

Stanford Plans Full Strength In Jan. 1 Game

PASADENA, Dec. 30 (AP)—Despite the epidemic of coughs, colds, sore throats and injuries which has beset the Stanford football squad during the past few days, Coach Claude (Tiny) Thornhill bobbed up again today with the prediction that he would have the Indians at full strength New Year's day when they meet the Columbia Lions in the Rose bowl.

The Stanford mentor was optimistic despite the fact that two of his first string players were still confined to their beds with colds today. Bobby Grayson, hard-hitting fullback, and Claude Callaway, a tackle, were the pair on the sick list.
