Christian Church To Hold Annual Meeting Sunday

Churches Throughout La Grande Are Beginning Their New Year's Program of Activities.

Services in the La Grande churches on Sunday—the first day of worship in the new year—will be unusually interesting.

Programs for Sunday include the following: Central Church of Christ (Pennsylvania Avenue)

The annual church meeting of the Central Church of Christ will be held next Sunday in conjunction with the regular services of the church.

At 11 o'clock the morning worship service will include the observance of the Lord's Supper and a New Year's sermon by the pastor, Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore.

Following the morning service there will be a potluck dinner with all members of the church participating.

At 2 o'clock the business session will be held at which time reports will be heard from all departments of the church and officers for the coming year will be elected.

At 6:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor services will be held. At 7:30 p. m. the orchestra will play a prelude concert to the evening service.

At the 11 o'clock worship service there will be an anthem by the large chorus choir, directed by Paul Knautz, who also has provided for one other special vocal number.

The Epworth League will meet at the regular time and is providing excellent meetings for young people.

Beginning with Sunday evening by action of the official board and at the request of quite a number of folk the evening service will begin at 7:30.

This service is planned to be lively and enjoyable and there will be some special feature at each evening service. Besides the congregational singing of a quite a number of fine familiar hymns there will be two special musical numbers by a double sextet.

The pastor will speak briefly from the subject "Truth Seeking or Getting By."

Island City Community Church Services at this church will begin promptly at 9:45 with the morning worship service in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hertzog.

The Sunday school with Mrs. Bertha Way, superintendent, will follow the morning worship and will begin at 10:45.

Sermonette Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord. Psalm 37-23.

We may hold fast to the providence of the Lord. We may not see the purposes of that providence in our lives at the time, but like the power which holds the silent stars in their courses, the providence of the Lord is unceasing.

"Trust in the Lord and do good, so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed" Ps. 37:3. This verse is the theme for the "free and easy" meeting Saturday at 8 p. m.

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following: "Oh, that I knew where I might find him! That I might come even to his seat!" (Job 23:3).

"That God is a corporeal being, nobody can truly affirm. . . . Not materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind, as Life, Truth, and Love."

Zion English Lutheran Church (Avenue near Fourth) "The Approval of God" will be the subject of the sermon delivered by the pastor Sunday at the 11:00 o'clock worship service.

Helen Hughes will be the leader of the Luther League meeting at 7:00 Sunday evening. The topic for discussion is the first of a series of topics on "Choices."

Sunday school convenes at 9:45 a. m. for worship and study of the Bible lessons. These sessions are interesting and helpful to the boys and girls who attend.

Baptist Church (Spring and Sixth) At the Baptist church Sunday morning, the pastor will use as the subject for his sermon "Jericho Walls."

The subject for the evening sermon will be "Two Ways." Proceeding the sermon, the young people will present their regular program which they are endeavoring to make interesting and helpful.
