SIMPLICITY RULES LIFE OF RICHEST OF MEN OF WORLD

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Sir Basil Zaharoff and John D. Rockefeller, two of the richest men in the world, both far beyond the traditional three score and ten, have found simplicity the keynote of old age.

Sir Basil, once glamorous "mystery man of Europe," cannon merchant entrusted with half the state secrets of the old world, at 83 could scarcely have competed as an athlete with the American "oil king" at the same age.

For that matter, John D., at 83, could get about in sprir fashion than his 11-year junior.

To play over Rockefeller's nine-hole private golf course, Zaharoff would need his wheel chair as he has been unable to get about much since his eightieth birthday.

He suffers from gout and, while he can walk a bit if he has support, his wheel chair is always at hand.

And yet both men, financial kings who built up tremendous fortunes from nothing over much the same period of history, are passing their old age in much the same fashion.

Both have northern homes which attract them in the summer, Rockefeller at Tarrytown, and Zaharoff at Aronville near Paris. And both go south, as a rule, when winter comes.

Rockefeller to Florida and Zaharoff to Monte Carlo.

Zaharoff's sporting activities have been confined in recent years to rowboat excursions in summer on his private lake. Outside of that diversion he spends most of his time reading.

At Monte Carlo, the regime is much the same. He reads world politics with keen interest, gets all the sunshine that he can and pays not the slightest attention to business.

Although his hotel is a stone's throw from the Casino, which he is reputed to own, he never has entered its doors.

Early to Rise Do I feel healthy, wealthy and wise in my new house dress? Indeed I do—for my gingham dress is smart of line and so comfortable. It was easy to make, too. Pattern 4908 x YOU may choose cotton prints, rayon, pongee, pique, linen, tub silk or light woolen to make the smartly designed house frock illustrated here. It is designed in nine sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 44 requires 3 5/8 yards of 35-inch material plus 2-3 yard contrast. Without collar and with long sleeves, 4 1/8 yards. To secure a pattern and simple sewing chart of this model, tear out this sketch and mail it to Julia Boyd, 103 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., together with 15 cents in coin. Be sure to enclose on a separate sheet of paper, your name, full address, your size, the number of this pattern (No. 4908x), and mention the name of this newspaper.

JANUARY IS A MONTH OF BARGAINS THE MAN (or perhaps it was a woman!) who invented the towel had a great idea! And an equally great benefactor was the man (or more likely a woman) who conceived the scheme of making towels as colorfully attractive as they are bathingly serviceable. Along about this time of the year, towels also have their plan of moving from bargain counters to thrifty closets. Linens, handkerchiefs and blankets also beckon the eye and prices soothe the pocketbook. January is a glorious month for bargains! The advertisements in your newspaper are important news of the shopping world and they tell an interesting story of quality and price—of things that are new. Did you ever pause to consider how much time and expense these advertisements save you? You make your own decisions in your own home. You figure the cost to a penny. Then, with the help of these daily messages of economy in your newspaper, you go forth on an adventure of buying and return with exactly what you intended to get.
