

HUSKIES DEFEAT IDAHO IN THIRD GAME OF SEASON

Table with 2 columns: Team, Points. Washington 30, Oregon State 11, Oregon 11, Washington State 22, Idaho 0.

MOSCOW, Ida., Jan. 13 (AP)—Unde- feated and with three of the season's four games with the University of Idaho safely in the bag, the University of Washington Huskies were out to battle for another win tonight and add to their league lead. The score last night was 30 to 29.

Meanwhile in Oregon, the two northern division Pacific Coast conference rivals there also wing into action against each other for the first time, with Oregon State to meet Oregon at Eugene. Each won one and lost one game against Washington State last week.

Bob Galer, flashy Washington forward, who shines also in a guard berth and who was the big scorer in last week's series at Seattle, sparked the Huskies to win here last night. After the Vandals led at the half, 19 to 18, Galer went on a scoring rampage to lead his mates to victory.

BEARS, INDIANS SCORE WINS SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13 (AP)—Pit- t battles in the southern division, Pacific Coast conference, basketball race put the University of California Bears and Stanford Indians out in front today.

The Bears stepped out to beat the University of Southern California 36 to 30 in the season's opener at Berkeley last night and will meet the Trojans in a second contest tonight. Stanford invaded the south and romped over the University of California at Los Angeles Bruins 45 to 36. The two teams will meet again in Los Angeles tonight.

Ski Tournament Sunday Postponed PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 13 (AP)—The annual tournament of the Cascade ski club will not be held tomorrow at Government Camp on Mt. Hood as planned, President Fred McNeil announced here last night.

He said there was "not enough snow."

Cleto Locatelli Beats Kid Berg NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—Cleto Locatelli, who was supposed to meet Tony Cannoneri in a return bout last night, today had established himself as a favorite to beat the former light-weight champion when they finally do get together two weeks from now. Cannoneri, injured in training, was unable to fill the engagement so Cleto filled in the time by administering a thorough beating to Jackie Kid Berg before a scanty crowd of 6000 at Madison Square Garden.

16 Golfers Remain In San Francisco's Open Tournament SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13 (AP)—On the trail of $40,000 in prize money, 16 surviving golfers tee off today in the third round of the annual San Francisco national match play open championship.

Many of the notables of professional ranks were swept out of competition as a result of a list of upsets yesterday, and the last of the amateur entrants was eliminated, but the field still contains an impressive quota of par chasers from all sections of the country.

The tournament medalist, Johnny Rogers of Denver, continues to pace the field, with two former winners of this title still in the running.

TILLAMOOK HIGH WINS TILLAMOOK, Ore., Jan. 13 (AP)— Coach Russel Rarey's Tillamook high basketball team won a checking duel from the Willamette university freshman 17 to 15 here last night.

THEY SEE ACTION TONIGHT

Two of Hill Reinhart's University of Oregon basketball stars who will meet Oregon State at Eugene tonight. The Webfoots opened their conference season by splitting a two-game series with Washington State. Left is Captain Gilbert Olinger, guard. On the right is Willard Jones, six-foot four-inch sophomore center.

CARNERA AND MAX MAY BATTLE SOON

NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—One snappy interview between Jack Dempsey and Col. John Reed Kilpatrick seemed to have changed the entire heavyweight situation today, and left a strong probability of a title meeting between Primo Carnera and Max Baer in June.

After Col. Kilpatrick, president of Madison Square Garden, had chatted with Dempsey and Ancil Hoffman, Baer's manager, it was indicated that the prospects of a Baer-Carnera bout were not so dismal after all.

Ira Dern Defeats Strangler Lewis SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 13 (AP)— Ira Dern, 210, Salt Lake City, wrestler, defeated Ed (Strangler) Lewis, 200, California, in a match here last night. Dern won the first fall in 11 minutes with a figure-four head scissors and was awarded the second fall at the end of 15 minutes, after he had thrown Lewis out of the ring. Lewis was counted out.

Oregon Normal Is Winner In Rough Go SALEM, Jan. 13 (AP)—Oregon Normal school defeated Willamette university 32 to 24 here last night in a basketball game featured more by rough play than by smart basketball.

Glumbe Java—With Cream! NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Coffee with cream is a better "bracer" than black coffee. Lettie M. H. Russell and Helen B. Burton of the University of Oklahoma announced after extensive experimentation with co-eds as subjects.

Air Ambulance In Arctic STOCKHOLM (AP)—Flights of 300 miles to aid the sick in the far north, with frequent forced landings because of frozen fuel lines, are normal routine for the air ambulance corps at Boden, near the Arctic circle. Each year the station's plane covers about 12,500 miles in flights of 60 to 70 miles each over snow, ice and forests.

French Find Stone Age Haven PERIGUEUX, France (AP)—A vast cavern dating from the Stone Age has been discovered by archeologists near the top of a hill at Villainville. The place appeared to have been hewn out of the rock. Quantities of flint axes, spear heads and other implements were found.

Paraguay Encases Bolivian Flags ASUNCION (AP)—Paraguay has placed in its national war museum 19 Bolivian battle flags captured in the Chaco war and the white banner of truce raised over Fort Boqueron when that stronghold fell to Paraguayan besiegers in October, 1932, after a struggle of more than a month.

WOMAN'S HAT PROBLEM IN VICTORIAN HOUSE MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—The first woman elected to the Victorian legislative assembly, Lady Peacock, will have to remove her hat when attending sessions under the present rules.

There is talk, however, of passing a special rule to permit her to keep her hat on. As in America, where in recent years widows have succeeded their husbands as members of congress, Lady Peacock was elected to the seat left vacant by the death of Sir Alexander Peacock.
