Salvation Army Old-Fashioned Meetings Begin

Practically all the churches in La Grande are uniting with the Salvation Army at present for an old-fashioned mid-winter camp meeting. The Army hall at 211 Fir street has taken on the effect of an outdoor garden scene, due to floral decorations, and encouraging attendance marked the opening sessions. Rev. J. George Wals, of the Presbyterian church, delivered the message Sunday evening to an audience which filled the hall to capacity. Tonight Rev. B. M. Godwin, of the Baptist church, will be the guest speaker. The junior songsters also will be a special feature this evening. Meetings are held nightly at 7:30 o'clock until Jan. 25, and the public is invited.

Name Boyer, Peavy Heads of O. S. C., U. O.

In the resignation of the Portland man. Willard Marks, of Albany, was elected chairman of the board of higher education, and C. A. Brand, of Roseburg, was elected vice chairman. Marks declared frankly he did not want the job of chairman, but he stated positively that there had been developments on the board in the interests of harmony, and that "sincere and high-minded efforts" had been made to achieve a harmonious and permanent settlement of administrative differences. In abandoning the Morse investigation the board warned by resolution that this was being done "with the definite understanding that should the same or like occurrences appear at any of the institutions hereafter, the board will take such action as the facts warrant." In Portland on Monday, Jan. 22, the board will hold a special meeting to revise current schedules to take care of the additional cost. The board denied the application of the Eastern Oregon Broadcasting company of La Grande to buy the radio station, KOAC, at Corvallis, operated by the State college.

Returns to Kansas

have from 50 to 35 per cent of the old gold dollar content, were paralleled today by the disclosure that the federal reserve board had recommended that the government take over all monetary gold. Senate Republicans at a caucus demanded "adequate" hearings on the monetary legislation asked by the president yesterday, but they deferred taking any position. Democrats of both branches spoke confidently of early enactment. Support for the Roosevelt monetary program was voiced by the house coinage committee by Frank A. Vandierip, New York banker, House Secretary Morgenthau prepared to appear later in the day before the senate banking committee to testify on the administration proposal. President Roosevelt called a meeting of his executive council—which advises him on governmental plans—for this afternoon. Whether monetary policies would come under discussion was not disclosed. The reconstruction corporation announced it ceased gold purchases abroad at noon yesterday. Its gold will be turned over to the treasury. Morgenthau gave gold holders until midnight tomorrow to turn in their metal under penalty of heavy fines. He said $6,788,820 had been received since his December 28 order.

So important is the handling of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfield cigarettes that Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., maintains this specially equipped plant right in the heart of the famous Smyrna tobacco section. It is the largest and most modern tobacco factory in the Near East.

Turkish tobacco, you know, is the best "seasoning" there is for cigarettes. At all times Chesterfield has in storage—at this plant and in America—about 350,000 bales of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco.

Yes, love is a wonderful thing. At least, I've heard it highly praised.
