Mrs. William Arrivey Is Complimented

Mrs. Lot Snodgrass and Mrs. Leona Scott entertained Thursday evening to honor Mrs. William Arrivey, the former's daughter-in-law, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Burbridge on Cedar street. The party was in the form of a show and the evening was spent sewing. Refreshments were served.

Guests were Miss Edna Jones, Mrs. Claude Sanford, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Naomi Scott, Mrs. Helma Pratt of Juneau, Alaska, Mrs. Frank Tuckey, Mrs. Ed Mayberry, Mrs. Clyde Leighton, Jessie Burbridge, Mrs. Dal Hudspeth, Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. John Daniels, Mrs. A. K. Parker, Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman, Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Reed, Mrs. J. J. Burbridge, Mrs. William Snodgrass, Mrs. John Garly, Mrs. Buck Davis, the guest of honor and the hostesses.

Games were played also and the prizes were presented to Mrs. Sanford, first, and Mrs. Daniels, second.

Lucky Dozen Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Lee Hanford entertained the Lucky Dozen club at luncheon Friday at her home. Valentine place cards and red carnations were used to decorate the table in an attractive manner.

All members were present excepting Mrs. J. C. Camp. Mrs. Braeger, Mrs. Camp's mother, was a guest.

Mrs. Camp will entertain the club on Feb. 2.

Large Attendance At Silver Tea

A large group attended the silver tea which the women of the Christian Missionary society entertained Friday afternoon at the church parlors. Mrs. Oma Lapham, Miss Florence Nelson and Mrs. Clem Wallace were hostesses.

A program was presented which included a reading by Mrs. Fred Roberts; vocal solo, Miss Frances Haskell; piano solo, David Mortimore, and a skit, "A Husband's Experiences at House Keeping," by Mrs. Fay Yeake. Mrs. Fred Roberts, Mrs. Vernon DeLong, Mrs. Raymond DeLong and Mrs. Heivy.

Mrs. Williamson Speaker at P. T. A.

Mrs. Lowell Williamson was the principal speaker of the afternoon Friday when she gave an excellent talk on the subject, "Are We Teaching Pats and Prills in Our Schools Today?" before the Riveria Parent Teacher association at the school. Mrs. Williamson discussed the theme from the standpoint of the parent, the teacher and the taxpayer.

Mrs. N. W. Fries, president of the La Grande City council, and Herbert

Evans, superintendent of city schools spoke briefly on the sales tax, after which a first aid demonstration was given by Miss Norma Mayger's fifth grade room. Formal exercises and a demonstration by the children of Miss Eileen Morelock's sixth grade room followed, the children directing the work themselves.

Miss Nina Kame's third grade and the eighth grade, John Bennett's room, will share the attendance prize for the month.

Mrs. John Lane and her committee on finance are planning for a benefit card party, the proceeds to be used for the purchase of records to be used in teaching music appreciation.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 16 at Lane chapel, celebrating Founders' day. The program will be presented by Robert Wakefield. Mrs. O. B. Maxam is chairman of the silver tea, assisted by Mrs. John Bennett and Mrs. Gene Walker.

Founders' Day Is Observed

Founders' day was observed by Chapter I, P. E. O., Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Blokland and Island City, Mrs. F. C. Smith and Mrs. E. L. Ober Wakefield. Mrs. O. B. Maxam is chairman of the silver tea, assisted by Mrs. John Bennett and Mrs. Gene Walker.

Missionary Group Holds Meeting

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. W. H. Hertzog Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. R. W. Leighton led the devotions and Mrs. Russell Clark was in charge of the lesson, using the subject, "Making the Best Use of the Balm of Gilead," closing with a demonstration on child labor by Paul Hyde, Mrs. C. Kelly and Mrs. Clark. Mrs. Tyler presided over the short business session and a play, "The Magazine Recovery Act," by Mrs. W. M. Pierson, Mrs. L. S. Hanford, Mrs. A. W. Burnett, Mrs. T. E. Pierson and Mrs. E. M. Hickox was given after which an appeal was made for subscribers to the society magazine.

Refreshments were served after which the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. R. W. Leighton.

Dessert Bridge At Jesse Home

A small group of friends were entertained at bridge Friday night by Mrs. D. B. Jesse at her home. Prizes at contract went to Mrs. E. L. Knight, forst, and Miss Eloise Wright, consolation.

Dessert was served by the hostess at the opening of the evening.

350 ATTEND GOLD, GREEN BALL HERE

green and gold streamers with six half open fans rising from the floor. The fans were closed, leaving an entry way through which the candidates and their attendants entered. Other candidates for the throne and their attendants were Angela Smurthwaite, attended by Tom Smurthwaite, of Baker; Doris Kirk, attended by Will Facer, of Union; Nella Anderson, attended by Carlisle Nibley, La Grande; First ward; Marjorie Perry and Gene Perry, of Imbler; Cleo Jacobs and Ernest Adams.

John McManus, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. McManus, dressed in a green costume heralded the entry of each candidate with his trumpet, and during the queen's march around the ballroom the Posten-Hendrickson orchestra, which furnished music for dancing, played "Betty Co-Ed."

Six tiny girls, in green and yellow ballet frocks, attended the queen, Patty Adams, Nancy Combs, Betty Bean, Nona Larson, Mae Nelson and Mary Ellen Golden.

A delightful feature of the evening also was the scarf dance presented by little Miss Van Cleve Bruce.

Grant Bean announced the program.

The hall was decorated with green and gold colors with large festoons of crepe paper adorning the lights and hanging low over the dance floor.

Punch was served from a green and gold booth by Mrs. Jack Hiatt Sr., Mrs. Roy Facer and Omand Orton.

Mrs. Kalo Metcalf and Parley Thomas headed the committee in charge and the other members were Clark Webb, Mrs. Otis Veal, Marion Stoddard, Miss Beatrice Wardell, Frankie Baum and Mrs. Jack Hiatt Sr.

BROWN STRETCHES JACKIE BRIGHTON IN SECOND ROUND

Portland Boy Chalks Up 26th Ring Victory; 4-Round Prelim Pleases Fans Here

Elmer "Buz" Brown, of Portland, made a brief appearance in La Grande last night, something like four minutes. At the end of that time he had his 26th win to his credit, a clean-cut knockout of Jackie Brighton, featherweight fighter of Seattle.

Elmer, fighting in a scheduled ten-round main event of a boxing card staged at the Sacajawea Inn by promoters Leo McCarthy and Martin Fitzgerald, landed a right hand smash to the jaw early in the second round and Jackie hit the canvas but came up again at the count of nine. But Elmer "buzzed" in and Jackie faded out before the two-minute onslaught.

The first round of the scrap was about even, with both boys showing plenty of stuff, but also somewhat feeling each other out. It was a nice scrap while it lasted.

Crowd Liked Prelim

Next in importance on the bout from a point of interest was the second preliminary of the evening, with Young Firpo Ford and Ted Bowers, local featherweights, engaging in a slugfest match that had the fans on their toes for four full rounds. Bowers went down for a count of nine in the third round, but came back strongly in the last round to even the fight.

Dynamite Murphy, of Baker, won a decision over Jim Museler, of La Grande, in a slow six round semi-final. The crowd booed frequently, and Referee M. D. Oeller was busy most of the time urging the boys to fight. In the fifth round, it was 28 seconds after the bell before either attempted to strike a blow. Museler was reported to have broken his hand but Dr. F. L. Ralston, boxing commission member, examined the swollen member and found no fractures, he said.

A four-round bout that was popular with the fans saw Don Stevens, of Twin Falls, Idaho, scoring a decision over Joe Palooka, of La Grande. In spite of the weight advantage the local boy had, the Gem Stater clearly had the edge.

Don McHugh and Billy Young, 115-pounders, met in the curtain raiser, and McHugh got a decision. The fight was not so hot, but the fans found a good many laughs in the melee.

Schmeling Back In America For Go With Hamas

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 (AP)—A refreshing young man from Germany, Max Schmeling, rolled into New York today and picked up the heavyweight business just where he left off last June.

Just turned 28 years old, a former heavyweight champion, knocked out by Max Baer in one of the greatest fistic upsets of 1933, Schmeling returned to the ring was seeking but one thing—a chance to get another shot at Baer.

"I'd like to fight Primo Carnera and win back the heavyweight title — yes—I'd like that," he said. "But more I want to fight Baer. Then to fight Carnera—and beat him, too."

Instead of a match with Baer, the song and dance man of pugilism, Schmeling has been signed to fight Steve Hamas, former Penn State football star, in Philadelphia, Feb. 13.

ST. PAUL MAN SLAIN BY ONE OF KIDNAPERS

$200,000 ransom.

"Bring me back my boy—please—the money is waiting for you—but hurry—we want him back," pleaded Adolph Bremer, personal friend of President Roosevelt as he paced the floor in the office of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing company, of which he is principal owner.

No contact has been made by the abductors, though the family was hopeful some sign would be made today telling them how and when to deliver the ransom in $5, $10 and $20 bills.

Far from the brewery property, eight-year-old Betty Bremer, daughter of the missing Commercial State bank president and owner, yesterday returned to the exclusive Summit Girls school for the first time since her father was abducted about 9:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Reliable sources close to the family said she had not been told her father had been kidnaped and threatened with death; nor that he might be seriously injured, or worse, following the finding of Bremer's automobile, the interior profusely blood spotted a few hours after he had left his daughter at the school Wednesday morning.

ZIVKOVICH WINS IN JUNIOR HEAVY CLASS AT BOISE

Home from the interstate boxing tournament in Boise, Bill Zivkovich, of La Grande, brought with him the junior flyweight amateur championship. He knocked out Roy Oliver, of Boise, in the most spectacular bout on the final program, winning in the third after both had been stretched on the canvas several times.

Zivkovich was the only Union county fighter to win a championship.

Dave Tripp, of Union, lost to Frankie Arago, of Boise, on a decision in the finals. Vic Tarter, of Union, won a decision over Herb McDowell, of Warren, in the semi-finals but did not fight in the finals.

David Larson, of La Grande, won by a technical knockout over Bert Brimhall, of Nampa, in a flyweight match, but not for the title.
