Mrs. L. H. Norton and J. L. Hedden Both Complimented at Affairs On Birthday Anniversaries

While President Roosevelt was celebrating his birthday, two La Granders also were honored yesterday on the occasion of their natal days. Mrs. L. H. Norton was complimented at an affair preceding the Birthday ball at the Sacajawea Inn, and J. L. Hedden was also complimented at a dinner party arranged by his daughter, Miss Grace Hedden.

Mrs. L. H. Norton was the guest of honor at an event for which her husband was host at their apartment at the Sacajawea Inn last night. Dessert was served with a pink and white color scheme carried out in the table decorations and in the birthday cake. A centerpiece of pink sweet peas was attractively arranged on the dessert table.

Later in the evening the guests attended the President's Birthday ball at the Sacajawea Inn. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Corbett, Miss Kate Houx, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Neal, Mrs. C. M. Moore, Guy Burkitt, Mrs. Emma Skelton, the guest of honor and the host.

The home of J. L. Hedden was the scene of an enjoyable event last night when his daughter, Miss Grace Hedden, invited guests for dinner at 8:30 o'clock and for the evening. Mr. Hedden celebrated his birthday anniversary yesterday.

Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. William Shade, Donald Shade, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dierks, Mrs. Christina Nelson, Miss Jennie Nelson, Ben Noyes, Arlo Noyes, Mrs. Noyes, Miss Evie Parks, Ivan Parks, Miss Ola Mae Wright, Ray and Lewis Hedden, Miss Mary Nowland, the guest of honor and the hostess.

Mrs. Clausen At Birthday Party

When Mrs. Anna Stadman, a well known pioneer resident of Baker, observed her 84th birthday anniversary Sunday, Jan. 28, Mrs. Julius Clausen, of La Grande, her daughter, was among the guests. A large birthday dinner was arranged in her honor and "open house" was held in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Burt, in Baker.

Many of her friends and relatives called during the afternoon to congratulate her.

Mrs. Stadman was born in Germany in 1850, came to Portland in 1896, and then to Baker in 1873.

Parish Dinner To Be Held Feb. 2

Members of St. Peter's parish will hold a parish dinner Friday evening, February 2, in Honan hall. The hour of the event is set as 6:15 o'clock. Composing the committee who have

Wakelita Club Is Entertained

The home of Mrs. August Erickson was the scene of an interesting meeting of the Wakelita club Monday afternoon. Three tables were made up for bridge and the high scores were made by Mrs. W. C. Hoppel, first, and Mrs. A. E. Hug, second. Mrs. Erickson served luncheon following the cards.

Miss Ray Hostess To Bridge Club

Miss Constance Ray entertained her club at her home Monday night. Two

Tires of Flight; Back to Prison

"The most-hunted woman in the country," Mrs. Irene McCann, weary of dodging the law, is pictured after she walked into a Chicago police station and gave up, asking to be sent back to Missouri state prison, from where she escaped the second time in Dec., 1932. Mrs. McCann was given 10 years in 1931 for aiding her husband's murder of a Joplin, Mo., jattler.

tables were arranged for contract bridge and the prizes awarded to Miss Othella Gray, first, and Mrs. Clyde Bloom, second. Mrs. George Walker will entertain next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Camp Fire Girls Elect Officers

Miss Kathleen Williamson was elected president of the Gatal Camp Fire Girls Tuesday afternoon when they met with their guardian, Mrs. Raymond O. Williams, at 5:30 o'clock. Other officers elected were: Miss Jean Hyde, vice president; Miss Gloria Walker, secretary; Miss Jean Davies, treasurer; Miss Adelaide Zweifel, scribe; Betty Jane Grice, song leader; Verna Hanford, pianist. Miss Stella Jean Ingie played a piano solo.

Mrs. Helvey To Entertain

Mrs. Robert Helvey will entertain the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Church South at her home at the monthly business meeting Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She lives on U avenue.

Ackerman P. T. A. Meets Tomorrow

The J. H. Ackerman P. T. A. will meet tomorrow evening at the Normal school. All parents and friends are invited to attend.

Miss Thelma Whaley, art instructor at the E. O. N., who recently was made state chairman of art in the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, will present the program. Her subject is announced as "Creative Release in Art For Children and Adults," and she will discuss teaching art to children and adults and show correlation with college students and grade school children.

The meeting will be held in the art room where a display of art work by students will be a feature.

Child Study Group Holds Meeting

The child study group of the J. H. Ackerman P. T. A. held an interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glenn Wagner, with Mrs. Lloyd Pierce leading the discussion of the topic. It was announced that her next subject would be "Forming of Habits." The group meets every two weeks and the next meeting is scheduled for Feb. 13.

Girls Vanish

Police of Oregon and California are searching for Audren Mardelle, above, and Doris Sparks, who dropped from sight at Klamath Falls Ore., while en route by auto from Spokane to Hollywood. Authorities fear the girls were murdered or killed in an accident.

No Meeting Of Society Tuesday

Since the 30th was the fifth Tuesday in January, the second Ward Relief society of the L. D. S. church did not hold a formal meeting but spent the afternoon visiting the sick and home-bound. Several visits were made during the afternoon.

La Grande High P. T. A. to Meet

The La Grande High School Parent Teacher association will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the music room and the program will include musical numbers as well as a one-act play, "The Maker of Dreams." All those interested in the association are urged to attend.

Willow P. T. A. Plans Program

J. W. Leonhardt, principal of Central school; Mrs. N. W. Prees, president of the La Grande City Council of P. T. A.; and Mrs. Dee Davis, will be the principal speakers on the program to be presented at the meeting of the Willow Parent Teacher association Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Founders' day also will be observed at a silver tea.

To Entertain At Card Party

Crystal Bebekah lodge will entertain at a card party Saturday evening at the Odd Fellows hall at 8 o'clock. Tables will be arranged for bridge, pinochle and cribbage and the men are invited to attend.

Mrs. Reynolds To Entertain Club

Mrs. J. E. Reynolds has been named hostess to the L. D. club on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bridge will be the entertainment for the afternoon.

Benefit Party Date is Changed

For the benefit of the Second Ward L. D. S. basketball team, a benefit dance will be sponsored Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the chapel by the M. I. A. The basketball five will be one of the participating teams in the stake tournament at the Recreational hall on Feb. 13, 14 and 15. The dance will be held at the Second Ward church.

Entertaining Tomorrow Night

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lewis are entertaining at their apartment at The Jeffery in Portland for a number of their friends tomorrow evening for coffee and dessert followed by contract bridge. Mrs. Lewis was formerly Miss Lola Ayres.

Resents Question at Senate Inquiry

"I don't think you're fair" ... W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, told what he thought of his interrogators at the Senate air and ocean mail contracts hearing, where he's strikingly pictured here. Testimony at the hearing disclosed that Senator David A. Reed conducted a filibuster to allow time for the awarding of a contract to a steamship line in which the Pennsylvania Railroad was interested.

Benefit Dance Friday Evening

Since the Old Timers club will entertain on Feb. 12, St. Mary's Altar society will not hold its benefit card party that evening. The date has been set for Feb. 8.

FRASER BUYS GROCERY STORE

Ed Fraser, who formerly worked for the Grande Ronde Co-operative creamery, left yesterday for Chehalis, Wash., where he has bought a grocery store. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fraser and they will make their home there.

Lucky Strike brings you

The Metropolitan Opera

EVERY SATURDAY AFTERNOON ON THE AIR

Through these Saturday afternoon broadcasts, direct from the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City, we endeavor to pay our respects to the inherent good taste of America... the good taste that has brought such overwhelming patronage to Lucky Strike... We feel Luckies are among the finer things of life because in making this fine cigarette we use always the finest tobaccos and only the center leaves... May we express the hope that while you are enjoying the Metropolitan broadcasts you add to that enjoyment by lighting a Lucky?

From the Diamond Horse-Shoe of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York

This Saturday at 1:40 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over the Red and Blue Networks of NBC, LUCKY STRIKE will broadcast the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in the complete Opera, "Die Walkure"

NOT the top leaves —they're under-developed

NOT the bottom leaves —they're inferior in quality
