DOROTHY HILL'S POEM ACCEPTED

Miss Dorothy Hill, of Baker, a prominent student at the Eastern Oregon Normal school had one of her poems printed in the Oregon Journal of Portland recently. The poem follows:

Turnoff
 I feel
 As though I were standing
 In the middle of a busy street
 With the noise and security
 Of countless petty trifles
 Pushing me this way and that;
 And around me, on every side,
 Are infinitely towering skyscrapers,
 Leaning over and crushing me
 Beneath their oppressive weight.

How I long for a glimpse
 Of the far away, oft-remembered blue
 Of the sky
 That must be above,
 Somewhere . . .

Inland Empire Educators Meet April 4, 5 and 6

SPOKANE, Wash.—The Inland Empire Educational association which for some time has been busy lining up speakers for annual meeting of the organization to be held in Spokane, April 4, 5, & 6, announces at this early date, three outstanding figures for the program.

Dr. Frank H. Hart, of the University of California is one, also Jessie Gray, president of the National Education association, and Alice Sowers, associate director of the National Council of Parents and Teachers. Each of these three will appear several times on the general program during the sessions which will be held in the spacious auditorium of the Fox theatre. Sectional meetings will be held in the Lewis and Clark High school. It is planned that there will be 32 of these sections, each touching some important phase of public education.

Quarrel Ends In Slaying of Two

TOLEDO, Wash., Jan. 31 (AP)—The body of Roy Lewis, 40, Toledo rancher who Tuesday morning shot and killed a ranch hand, Norman Bennett, 20, during a quarrel and then fled, was found along the Cowlitz river below here later in the day. Members of a posse who had sought Lewis all morning believing he had apparently shot himself with the same rifle with which he killed Bennett.
