Founders' Day Observed At Meeting of La Grande City Council Of P. T. A. Yesterday Afternoon

Founders' day was observed by the La Grande City Council of Parent Teacher Associations yesterday afternoon at the Sacajawea Inn. Each school presented a part of the program after which tea was served with Mrs. Herbert Evans and Mrs. Stella Ingle presiding at the tea table, which was decorated with a centerpiece of daffodils and yellow candles in green holders. A birthday cake was decorated with 37 candles representing the 37th birthday of the association.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. H. W. Fredericks, Mrs. P. L. Ralston, Mrs. H. J. Leonard, Mrs. Pete Troutman, Mrs. Guy Miller, Mrs. Lewis Wetzel, Mrs. Gene Walker and Mrs. Fred Reed.

The program included:

"Spring Song" and "P. T. A. Song," by a girls sextet from Central school.

"Old Black Joe," "Old Folks at Home" and a specialty number by the harmonica band from Greenwood.

"Juanita" and "Believe Me. If All Those Entering Young Chameas," songs popular in the '90s, High school mixed quartet.

"Of Interest in February," a play by Willow school.

"Holy, Holy, Holy" and an old English folk song, by the second violin class taught by Mrs. Leo Miller at Ackerman.

"Jack and the Bean Stalk," a musical skit, by Riveria.

Local Musicians Are Given Praise

The program given by a group of La Grande women in Baker recently was given praise in the Baker Democrat Herald as follows:

The MacDowell club audience at Nevus hall last night was pleasantly entertained by Miss Florence Day's interpretation of Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple," and the Symphony singers of La Grande, who gave Mrs. H. H. A. Beach's song cycle of "Peter Pan," directed by Mrs. Jessie Hookins and accompanied by Mrs. Merlin Batley.

"The Devil's Disciple" provided ample opportunity for Miss Day to demonstrate her wide range of dramatic ability, giving capable and vivid interpretation to widely different characters. The power and richness of her voice, beautiful in quality, combined with a personality of charm made the three-act play especially enjoyable.

Although the Symphony singers were handicapped by the absence of three sopranos, their lovely singing of the Peter Pan cycle hardly lasted long enough for those who had come to hear. None of the musical value was overlooked in the shading of the composition and the blending of some beautiful and outstanding voices of the ensemble. Special care was given phrasing and rhythm.

The personnel included, Mesdames T. R. Maxwell, H. N. Ashby, Harvey St. John, Floyd Sherwood, A. L. Gralapp, C. S. Moore, Edna Hawley Stanbaker, Myrtle Russell, Edward Fitzgerald, Lynn Wright and E. Rauwolf.

An informal reception arranged by the president, Mrs. Viola Parker, was given the visitors following the program.

Alfred Myers, of La Grande, a baritone whose artistic abilities are held in high esteem here, will give a March program assisted by Baker talent.

District Officer Coming Friday

Mrs. Rollo Albright, district officer of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Church South, will be a visitor in La Grande Friday. At a called meeting of the local society Monday at the church, plans were made for her visit.

An all-day meeting will be held in the basement of the church with a potluck luncheon served at noon.

Arrangements also were made to participate in the week of prayer to open Feb. 10 and which will be observed by all missionary societies of the city at the Presbyterian church.

J. H. Gaiser To Speak at Y. W. E. A.

Joseph H. Gaiser, of the Normal school faculty, will address the Young Women's Educational auxiliary tonight on "Investments." Mr. Gaiser is well versed in national and international affairs and is a pleasing speaker.

In keeping with the theme of Mr. Gaiser's talk, a group of women will present a play, "A Wise Investment."

The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church basement.

Camp Fire Group Is Entertained

The Wetomachich Camp Fire group met at the home of Miss Jean Buchanan recently with 14 members present. Plans were made for a candy sale Feb. 10.

After the business session, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be a hike and picnic at Riverdale park.

Mrs. J. C. Camp Hostess to Club

Mrs. J. C. Camp was a recent hostess entertaining the Lucky Dozen club at her home for luncheon and an informal afternoon. A two-course luncheon was served to the members and one guest at a prettily appointed table.

Mrs. Camp's mother, Mrs. Braeger, of Wasau, Wis., was a guest.

Mrs. W. W. Kinzie will entertain on Feb. 10.

Ladies Aid To Meet Wednesday

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. W. Erwin. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. H. E. Richey, Mrs. R. W. Leighton, Mrs. Maude Pines, Mrs. B. W. Pritts and Mrs. R. F. Tyler.

Literature Group Meets Tomorrow

The Literature group of the American Association of University Women will be entertained tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Misses Thelma Whaley and Florence Day. Miss Bess Duke will discuss the poetry of Stephen Crane.

Lions, Auxiliary To Be Entertained

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Gilstrap will entertain the Lions and auxiliary at an evening of bridge tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at their home, 602 N. avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wight will serve as hosts and hostesses with Dr. and Mrs. Gilstrap.

Mrs. Moe Will Arrange Program

Mrs. L. B. Moe will arrange a program for presentation tomorrow afternoon when the Presbyterian Ladies Aid meets at the church at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. H. N. Ashby and Mrs. Lynn Wright will assist her.

Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard will lead the devotions. Mrs. Moe also will head the hostess committee.

Women's Society To Hold Meeting

The Baptist Women's society will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Gralapp. The afternoon will be spent studying home missionary with Mrs. H. A. Fox as leader.

Over The Valley Personals

County agent and Mrs. Wray Lawrence of The Dalles visited among their friends and transacted business in the valley over the weekend, guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blockland in Island City and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Avery in La Grande. Mr. Lawrence, who served Union county as agricultural agent four years ago when Mr. Avery was having his sabbatical leave, had for his special business errand here the purchase of 21 head of the purebred Hampshire sheep from Hugh Huron's farm band.

Alleged Aid—The regular monthly meeting of the Alleged Ladies Aid society will be held Thursday afternoon, Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. R. F. Tyler corner First and K avenue, in La Grande. The meeting is called for 2:00 o'clock.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Speckhart and daughter, Helen Jean, returned to their home in the Iowa district Friday evening from an extended stay in the middlewest — headquarters at Quincy, Ill., with numerous trips out from there.

Ill—Mrs. Carl Robinson, of Phys Point, has been quite poorly for some time. It is reported.

Clarence Hays, Mildred and Marjorie Fleahman were on the honor roll again for not missing a word in spelling in the past six weeks. Mildred hasn't missed a word since the beginning of school this fall. Darrell and Donald Lindsey and Glen Mullenburg averaged 100 per cent in the six weeks test in spelling.

At Liberty School—Friday week was a red letter day at Liberty school. The girls surprised the boys by serving a lunch at noon and then following the afternoon intermission, they presented a program. The girls had lots of fun guarding their secret until the proper time for release and the boys enjoyed the surprise just as much. The numbers of the program follow:

Poem—"My Mother's Pie", Mary Lindsey.

Dialogue—"Our Health Song" Mary Lindsey, Mildred Fleahman, Marjorie Fleahman, and Margaret Dodson.

Song—"Scotland's Burning", Marjorie and Mildred Fleahman, Margaret Dodson and Mary Lindsey.

Games—"The Preacher's Cat" "My Lord's Toilet" "Over Head Race."

Returns Tuesday—Mrs. Frank McKennon, of near Imber, returned home today from Condon where she spent the past week at the home of her son, Russell McKennon and family. Mrs. McKennon went to Condon on receiving word that her daughter-in-law was ill and after she improved, the young son in the McKennon family was ill for a few days.

Purchases Sheep—L. J. Chadwick, of Lower Cove, has had such marvelous luck with lambs this season that he has purchased a flock of sheep from T. B. Johnson, about 125 head. The Chadwick had only a few sheep but when they commenced to lamb the first three ewes produced eight lambs. The rest of the ewes did not do so well but at that there are more than 100 per cent lambs.

In Idaho—Mrs. Josie Blockland Bach who spent several days at Gooding, Ida., when her husband, Rev. Walter Bach was ill, has returned to her parsonage at North Powder. Mr. Bach is pasteur at North Powder. Mr. Bach has been pastor at North Powder in having this year free to complete his collegiate work at Gooding college.

EX-LA GRANDE MAN PASSES AT RICHLAND

BAKER, Ore. (Special) — Charles Richard Coger, resident of Richland for 22 years, died Monday from the effects of paralytic strokes.

Mr. Coger was born in Okaloosa, Kansas, November 10, 1866, and moved to La Grande in 1889. Mr. Coger, who was a shoemaker, went to Richland in July, 1911. He was married to Jennie H. Holmes in Weiser, September 26, 1922. Mr. Coger was a member of the L. O. O. F. and Knights of Pythias lodges in Richland.

GOOD TASTE—YOU CAN'T MISS IT

Lucky's finer, smoother taste comes from the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. We use only the center leaves for they are the mildest, most tender leaves. And every Lucky is so round, so firm, so fully packed.

NOT the top leaves—they're under-developed—they are harsh!

The Cream of the Crop
"The tendriest, mildest, smoothest tobacco"

NOT the bottom leaves—they're inferior in quality—course and always sandy!

Wine Retailers Warned to Get State Licenses

Retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers of wines and beers are urged to secure at once proper license for their respective activities, according to a warning just issued by the Oregon liquor control commission at Salem. Enforcement of statutes requiring the licensing and bonding of dealers, jobbers and distributors will be started within a few days, it was pointed out.

Applications are to be made directly to the headquarters office of the Oregon liquor control commission at Salem, it was said. Manufacturers and sellers, both wholesale and retail, of beer containing not over five per cent alcohol by volume, are affected by the licensing provisions.

Proper blanks and bond forms are available at the commission's office in Salem.

The various classifications of dealers, jobbers, manufacturers and resellers, including the fee and bond requirements for each classification are as follows:

License	Fee	Bond
Brewery	$500	$1,000
