Mrs. Cusick Gets C. P. Recognition

WOLF CREEK—Mrs. E. G. Cusick of Clover Creek today received a certificate of merit from the Century of Progress, Chicago, for an exhibit of a jar of preserved pork. The entry was made at the fair last summer through the Ball Institute of Home Canning and the North Powder woman's exhibit was in competition with others from all over the world. Mrs. Cusick has won many prizes at local fairs with home canning exhibits and her reputation is further enhanced by the big fair's certificate.

Grandma Miles' Birthday Kept

UNION—A shower of postcards and other gifts was given to "Grandma" Miles on her eighty-fifth birthday last Saturday. A family birthday dinner was enjoyed at the Ed Miles home up on Catherine creek Sunday. A large cake, decorated and covered with 85 candles, was made by Mrs. Willard Miles.

Elgin Women In Fine Travelogue

ELGIN—The Elgin Women's Improvement club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Clara Auclair. After business was disposed of, Mrs. E. N. Jacobs gave an excellent travelogue on New Zealand, following which Miss Auclair, assisted by Mrs. C. I. Hagen and Miss Rose Marie Hubert and Miss Wilma Harman gave a musical program. Mrs. P. W. Keller presented an excellent review of the late John Galisworthy's last book, "One More River."

Jean Ann Richards Is Party Hostess

UNION—Miss Jean Ann Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Richards, of the Eastern Oregon experiment station, invited in a group of girl friends to help her celebrate her eleventh birthday at her home Saturday afternoon. Games were played in the afternoon with a birthday dinner at 6 o'clock. Those present were Wilma Hutchinson, Dora Ackley, Betty Jo Bell, Maxine Walters, Jane Shaw, Edith McClellan, Mary Hutchinson, Ada Edverson, Audrey Anderson, Thelma McMaster, Eleanor and Jean Ann Richards.

Mrs. Brownell Is Hot Lake Patient

ELGIN—Mrs. S. E. Brownell, who has been ill for some weeks, was taken to the Hot Lake sanitarium Thursday afternoon by ambulance. No change in her condition called for the move but it was thought that the treatments there would be beneficial.

Haines Couple Wed in December

HAINES—A surprise to their friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alice Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shaw and Floyd A. Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Long. The ceremony took place in Weiser, Idaho, December 1. The young couple are both graduates of the Haines high school. The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon, having finished with the class of 1930. Her first year was in Redlands university, Redlands, Cal. For the past two years she has taught in the Muddy Creek high school. Mr. Long is a graduate of the Moler Barber college, Portland, and for several years has been employed in the Haines barber shop. They will make their home in Haines for the present. He will still work in the shop and she will continue with her teaching.

Over The Valley Personals

Fruitdale P. T. A.—There were 60 patrons of the Fruitdale school present for the meeting of the Parent Teacher association held Friday evening at the home of one of the teachers, Miss Ruth Smalley. After a business meeting, a short program was given. There were two songs from the primary room, "Rainy Day Song" and "A B C Song." The upper grade room gave a book club meeting, paying particular attention to parliamentary practice. The games which followed centered about the valentine idea as did the refreshments, which concluded the evening. The next meeting will be Friday evening, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Dan Carbine.

Home For Vacation—Miss Lorene Spencer, who is a student at Washington State college, Pullman, spent her recent vacation of a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spencer, in the Dry Creek vicinity.

J. Newton Fisher, young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Fisher, of the Frosty district, was ill the first of the week and obliged to stay home from school. And that wasn't much fun, for J. up to that time had had a perfect attendance record at the Frosty school to say nothing of having been on the honor roll.

Get Freak Eggs—Mrs. Renwick Clark, of the Moss Chapel neighborhood, reports two freak eggs which she recently gathered from her flock of fine Rhode Island Red hens. The eggs were enormous in size and when broken, were found to be an egg within an egg.

the inner egg having been enclosed in a hard shell as any ordinary egg would be.
