Ill—
Miss Eileen Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bull, of the Lone Star neighborhood, is ill of pneumonia, and her father, Mr. Bull and her aunt, Mrs. Wayne Prizzell, of Pleasant Grove, drove to Duncan in Wallowa county to see her Saturday. Their reports are that she was some improved over the weekend. Eileen is teaching the Duncan school.

Brothers' Day—
The men of the Blue Mt. grange are getting very busy this week with their plans for the annual Brothers' day which comes Saturday. Festivities will take place at the Blue Mt. Hall on Gekeler Lane and will consist, in addition to the big dinner at noon, which they prepare and serve, of an exchange program to be presented by the members of Mt. Fannie. Events of the day are scheduled to start at 11 o'clock in the morning and continue through the day.

Priscilla Club—
Members of the Priscilla club were guests last Thursday at an all-day party at the home of Mrs. Ray Hayes near Imbler. A lovely dinner was served by Mrs. Hayes at noon and then the rest of the time was spent quilting on her "dahlia" quilt. The guests were Misses Jim McKinnis, Harold Bingham, Sam Knight, J. A. Gaskill, W. E. Ruckman, Harvey Ruckman, Claude Woodell, Carl Puller, Sam Ruckman, Roy Redmond, E. Johnson, Andrew Paroz and Claude Woodell.

To Select Scholarships—
E. R. Cooley makes the announcement that the P. F. A. chapters that are eligible to have members compete for the Union Pacific scholarship should make a selection within their own Smith-Hughes agricultural department by March 1. In case there are more than one agricultural departments in a county, the winner and alternate should be selected from all the agricultural departments in that county. The schools eligible to compete are Freshman, Dufur, Redmond, Pendleton, Imbler, Wallowa, Enterprise, Union, Highway and Oatridge. The winner in each county is given a $100 scholarship to Oregon Agricultural college by the Union Pacific Railroad.

Honor Birthday—
Mr. and Mrs. Pat Powers, of Medical Springs, recently gave a party surprising Mrs. Tom Powers on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. There were seven tables for bridge and late in the evening lunch was served.

Move—
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frisvold, who have been living near Alcei, have moved to Mrs. J. L. McKinnis' place near Alcei which they will operate the coming season.

Monahan Named—
His numerous business associates and many friends in this valley have received word that D. D. Monahan, Milton fruit man, has received notification of his election as vice president of the Northwest Fruit Industries and Northwest Tree Fruit Industries to fill the vacancy left by the death of Frank Lamb in an automobile accident some months ago. Monahan will be in charge of a large section of fruit producing country, including Walla Walla, Dayton, Wataburg, Milton-Freewater and La Grande. He is president of D. D. Monahan, Inc. and sales manager of a number of fruit co-operatives, including the Fruit Growers' Co-operative of Milton-Freewater, Lewiston Orchard Cherry Growers' association of Lewiston, Cove Co-operative association of Cove, Ore., Fruit Growers union of Union, Ore., and the La Grande Co-operative Growers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlan Koger and family of the Frosty district, had as their guests Sunday at their home, the Misses Amanda Zabel and Mabel Morton, of La Grande.

Moving—
Ray Hayes, of near Imbler, has been moving his farm equipment to the Henry Hill ranch in the Wolf Creek neighborhood near North Powder. His family plans to join him there around the first of March.
