CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 14 (AP) — A Vandal is one who willfully destroys. That's just what the University of Idaho Vandals did to Oregon State's basketball championship hopes in last night's decisive 34 to 22 upset here. The night before the Beavers almost tripped the score on the down-trodden Vandals.

Nothing but the wildest of upsets can now keep University of Washington from returning to the coast conference north division pedestal. The Huskies have lost two games and have only four left to play. The second place Beavers have lost five and have four of their toughest games ahead.

Big Howard Grenier led the Vandals in the first half, dropping 10 points. Norman Iverson, cagey four rapid-fire goals at the outset of the second half to put Oregon State in a hopeless maze.

Grenier scored 11 points in the game and Iverson nine. Iverson's floor work was even more prominent than the giant Grenier's work under the baskets. Idaho led 15 to 12 at half-time.

It was Idaho's first victory of a four-game schedule in Oregon the past five days. It dropped the first two games to University of Oregon.

Oregon State, the one conference team which has defeated Washington this season, will meet the Huskies in Seattle Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

The Latter Day Saints church now has 85 members in its school system in five western states.

SCHMELING FAILS TO MAKE GRADE IN COMEBACK TRIAL

By Edward J. Nell

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14 (AP) — The black uhlan of the prize ring, Max Schmeling, was the forgotten man of boxing today. He has forgotten how to fight.

He started last night on his comeback trail, a former heavyweight champion of the world, and he stumbled down to the end of twelve rounds, still trying, still grinning, still brave as any man who ever pulled on leather—but beaten and torn by the gloved fists of Steve Hamas.

Hamas is the 26-year-old youngster from Passaic, N. J., who made his first athletic name half a dozen years ago as a fullback at Penn State. He came out of college, took up boxing. He once knocked out Tommy Loughran in two rounds. He has lost two decisions to the former light heavyweight champion.

Last night Schmeling was cannon fodder for a boy who would have been fortunate to have acted as his sparring partner back in the days when he was tough and hungry.

A crowd of 15,000, the largest to see a fight in Philadelphia since Gene Tunney won the heavyweight title from Jack Dempsey in the Sesqui-centennial stadium in 1926, saw Schmeling hesitate, fumble, try and fall against the rugged, clean cut youngster.

MOUNTAINEERS TO PLAY TWO GAMES IN WEST OREGON

The Eastern Oregon Normal school basketball squad, consisting of some ten men, left here today by motor for Monmouth, Ore., where the Mountaineers will tackle the Wolves of Oregon Normal school in a two-game series beginning tomorrow night.

Chances for a victory on this trip were held very slim, since Monmouth won two games here a few weeks ago, although one was by only a one-point margin.

The Mountaineers, after the Western Oregon trip, will return to play the House of David quintet here Tuesday night, before laying away their shirts and shorts for the season.
