Seek Recall Of Gillenwaters As K. F. Prosecutor

SALEM, Feb. 15 (AP) — A preliminary recall petition for the removal of T. R. Gillenwaters as district attorney of Klamath county has been filed with the secretary of state. The move was declared sponsored by ten citizens who have named John Irwin as their fiscal agent in the recall proceedings.

The petition charged Gillenwaters with extravagance in administration of his office, employment of a surplus of clerks, absence from his office much of the time, that he diverted money from one fund to another, and that he used his office to further his own political ambitions.

In order to call a special election for the recall, the petitions must be signed by 2,391 registered voters of Klamath county, or 25 per cent of the vote cast for supreme court justice.

The preliminary petition for the recall of County Judge George L. Grizzle was also received, but was returned. This document must be filed with the county clerk and not with the secretary of state, as it is not a state office, it was explained.
