Many Bridge Parties And Valentine Socials Keep Week Full of Charming Events

Several small affairs have filled the week socially and practically every afternoon and evening finds a group of women gathered for contract or auction bridge. Valentine day furnished the inspiration for a number of charming events, while many are utilizing the George Washington theme for party decoration.

One of the delightful social events of the week was the Valentine party at which Mrs. W. S. Harer was hostess. Wednesday evening at her home. Members of her club were invited for two tables of contract bridge. Dessert was served at 7 o'clock at tables decorated with red hearts and tall red tapers, carrying out a Valentine theme.

Mrs. B. B. Johnson was high scorer at bridge. Mrs. William Barclay received the second prize and Mrs. J. F. Cunniff, consolation.

Dessert Bridge Thursday Event

A dessert bridge was arranged by Mrs. M. B. Donohue Thursday afternoon for members of the Thursday Bridge club at her home. Dessert was served at 1:15 o'clock after which three tables were arranged for bridge with Mrs. Andrew Lee, Mrs. G. R. Kerr and Mrs. H. M. Young as guests. Mrs. Kerr received the prize for high score among the guests and Mrs. G. J. Edenhelm, among the members.

Mrs. Edenhelm will entertain in two weeks.

16 Tables at Play At Card Party

Sixteen tables were arranged for bridge and pinocle Wednesday night when the Pythian Sisters entertained at a card party at the hall. Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Claude Berry and Alvah Crowley, first, and Mrs. Charles Karther, consolation, and at pinocle to Mrs. P. A. Ingram and Frank Cleavinger, high. Paul Brace, consolation.

Members of the committee in charge were Mrs. Crowley, chairman, Mrs. H. W. Riley, Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. A. E. Chandler.

A quilt made by the Pythian Sisters will be displayed at the card party and later at Fitzgerald Furniture company.

Pinocle Enjoyed By So-Ne-He Club

Pinocle was the diversion of the afternoon Wednesday when Mrs. Erna Fitzgerald entertained the So-Ne-He club at her home. Valentine day furnished the motif for the decorations.

Prizes at cards were awarded Mrs. Teresa Patten, first, and Mrs. Sally Floberg, consolation.

Mrs. Velma Vedder will entertain at the next regular meeting in two weeks, while Mrs. Fitzgerald will entertain the members and their husbands next Wednesday at her home.

Mrs. McLaughlin Hostess to Group

Mrs. J. B. McLaughlin entertained St. Mary's Altar society of the Catholic church Wednesday at her home with Mrs. J. B. Corbett, as assistant hostess. The afternoon was spent informally in conversation and sewing and at the close refreshments were served by the hostesses.

No activities are being planned during Lent. The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. I. M. Doisan on the Island City road.

Valentine Party Enjoyed by Club

One of the most delightful Valentine parties of the season was given Wednesday afternoon for members of the Parkdale club at the home of Mrs. John Dahlstrom. Mrs. C. M. Riddle was assistant hostess. Twenty members and several visitors, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Ray Greiner, Mrs. Onstrom and Mrs. B. F. Dahlstrom, of North Powder, were present.

The house was decorated with cut flowers, wild flowers and Valentine suggestions. Each guest was given a festive cap and a Valentine.

Mrs. Isaac Shafer arranged the program. Mrs. Emma Blakland furnished a history of St. Valentine's day.
