Washington Will Be Honored In Local Churches

Presbyterians Plan Special Program Sunday—Other Church Services Are Announced.

Church programs in La Grande for the coming Sunday include the following:

Presbyterian Church (Sixth and Washington)
 "Washington—The birthday of the 'Father of His Country'." It is ever so freshly remembered by American hearts! May it ever reawaken in them a filial veneration for his memory; ever rekindle the fires of patriotic regard for the country which he loved so well, to which he gave his youthful vigor and his youthful energy, during the perilous period; and for which the last prayer of his supplication was offered up, when it came the moment for him so well, and so grandly, and so calmly to die. May his name ever be a spell of power and of might in this great country of ours." In memory of "The Father of His Country," the minister, Rev. J. George Wark, will speak Sunday morning, 11:00 o'clock, on "A Greatness Greater than Mightness." The choir which inspiringly rendered "The Lord Chord," as an anthem last Sunday, will sing again this Sunday morning. Members, friends and strangers in the city will receive much to their benefit for the week by attending this service of the church, the pastor says.

All who desire and enjoy class discussion of vital subjects and problems of life and the age, will find classes suited to their age in the Bible school which meets at 9:45 in the morning.

The Young Peoples G. E. Forum meets at 8:00 o'clock in the rooms of the old manse, and the high school group of Christian Endeavors meets at 6:30 in the parlor of the church.

First Methodist Episcopal Church (Fourth and Spring)
 "Come To Church" Sunday at the First Methodist church expects to see the largest attendance at all its services this year. The Sunday school will be prepared with a fine corps of teachers and interesting worshipal programs, followed by the instruction period. M. L. Whitney is superintendent in charge of the church school.

At the morning worship 11 o'clock service the pastor will speak on the subject "Crisis in Human Life." The chorus choir will sing an anthem and there will be a special offertory number.

The Epworth League will meet at 6:30 in two divisions. H. E. Dixon will speak to the High school division, and all young folk of the High school, not in other services, are invited to come.

"The Issues of Life" is the subject from which the pastor will speak at the 7:30 evening service. There also will be a special musical feature that all will want to hear.

Island City Community Church
 Morning worship at 9:45, Rev. W. H. Hertzog, preacher. Sunday school at 10:45, Mrs. Bertha Way, superintendent.

Central Church of Christ (Pennsylvania Avenue)
 Another "red-letter day" in the history of the Central Church of Christ Bible school occurred last Sunday when the attendance set the high record of 334. An attempt will now be made to reach an attendance of 400 during this month and a goal of 500 by Easter. Many new members are being received each week.

The school issues a hearty invitation to those who are interested, to join its classes. This school meets at 9:45 a. m. under the direction of Miss Dorothy Smuts.

At 11 o'clock the church congregation assembles for morning worship and communion. The pastor, Rev. Paul De P. McIntire, will preach Sunday morning on "The Stability of the Gospel." The choir will sing an appropriate anthem. The Junior service, conducted by Miss Gertrude Wagener, in the primary building, is increasing in interest. Children from ten years of age upward are included.

Baptist Church (Sixth and Spring)
 At the Baptist church Sunday, Rev. J. L. Wherry, of McMinnville, will preach both morning and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wherry will be here for at least a week assisting in the special meetings beginning Tuesday evening. Rev. Wm. Fairweather, of Pendleton, will arrive Tuesday and do the preaching. These visitors make a fine evangelistic team and the church is hoping for much good from their services. Rev. B. M. Godwin reports.

M. E. Church South (Corner Fir and U.)
 Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. each Sunday. All boys and girls are welcome, and parents are urged to send their children to this school, if they do not attend elsewhere.

Charles Ward will lead the Luther League meeting at 7:00 p. m. Discussing the topic "Whither Bound?" This is the third in a series of topics dealing with the subject "The Bible Answers Questions." The sessions

Sermonette

Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life. Rev. 2-10.

We admire men who are heroic, and who are willing to give their lives rather than desert the cause they have espoused. Fidelity is a virtue that arouses our admiration and evokes our praise.

In the Bible are three memorable instances of men who forsake their posts. In the 78th Psalm we read, "The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle."

In the gospels we read how the disciples forsake the Savior in His hour of need. "Then all the disciples forsook him and fled."

The third instance is in the Epistle of Paul to Timothy, in which Paul writes in sorrowful strain, "Demas has abandoned me." Demas was companion to Paul and Luke.

We do not know of the battle on which the 45,000 archers of Ephraim turned their backs. We do know that the disciples of the Lord recovered their courage and came back to their allegiance, most of them to die martyrs' deaths. And Demas has become the synonym of cowardice and love of worldly safety and comfort.

There is greater virtue in fighting for a good cause that looks weak and is not greatly popular than in forming one of a cheering crowd in a cause already triumphant. The Savior, the greatest of all heroes, wants His followers to be heroic. Here is His promise, "Be thou faithful even unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life."

The church also announces the coming of Evangelist Mrs. Lillian Holm, of Tacoma, Wash., who will bring a series of revival meetings March 4. She has been holding large meetings in most of the larger cities in Washington.

First Church of Christ Scientist (First and Washington)
 Services are held at 11 a. m. Sunday, and at 8 p. m. Wednesday evenings, with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The reading room in the West-Jacobsen building is open from 1:30 to 5 p. m. daily.

The subject of Sunday's service will be "Gospel."

The golden text is, "Rejoice the soul of thy servant; for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul" (Ps. 86:4).

The lesson-sermon consists of citations from the authorized version of the Bible, and correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

"Take diligent heed . . . to love the Lord your God . . . and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul" (Lev. 19:18).

"Question—What are the demands of the Science of Soul?
 Answer—The first demand of this Science is, 'Thou shalt have no other gods before me.' This is Spirit. Therefore the command means this: Thou shalt have no intelligence, no life, no substance, no truth, no love, but that which is spiritual" (S. & H., p. 467).

Salvation Army (221 Fir Street)
 The Salvation Army hall has been a scene of activity of late. The young people's work is progressing well, the revival is continuing and there are many converts, it is reported.

A free and easy service will be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday. Holiness meeting is at 11 a. m. Sunday and Sunday school at 2:30 o'clock. A new class room has been provided for the young people's class for next Sunday because of the large attendance.

Young People's League meets at 6:30 p. m. Sunday, the topic to be "The Servant." A Salvation rally will be held at 7:30 with special instrumental and vocal music.

Bible study and prayer meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday at 7:30, a praise service Thursday, and Adjutant and Mrs. Collier, of Portland, will be special visitors and will have full charge of a service Friday at 7:30. All are welcome to attend.

Baptist Church (Sixth and Spring)
 At the Baptist church Sunday, Rev. J. L. Wherry, of McMinnville, will preach both morning and evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wherry will be here for at least a week assisting in the special meetings beginning Tuesday evening.

Over The Valley Personals

Frank Wright Surprised—And was he surprised right, too! Friday was his birthday and he had planned to go to La Grande for the OWA school which he is attending.

Mrs. Emma Kiddle returned the first of the week to her home in the Grande Ronde apartments after an absence from the city of seven weeks.

Mrs. Kiddle has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Earle in Portland and also Mrs. Albert Hunter and Mrs. Andrew Moffitt in Salem.

On Visit—Mrs. D. J. Charbonneau has gone to Everett, Wash., where she will visit for a week at the home of her niece, Mrs. Will Decker.

From Elgin—J. E. Eysdam, of Elgin, was transacting business here today.

From Salem—James M. Burgess, of Salem, state employe, was in La Grande yesterday transacting business.

To Walla Walla—Mrs. W. H. Ehnkamp Sr., and granddaughter, Miss Peggy, have gone to Walla Walla, Wash., for a short stay.

From Enterprise—Mr. and Mrs. Al Nuregard, of Enterprise, were among the visitors transacting business in La Grande this week.

After supper the evening was devoted to pinocle. Mrs. Bob Smith and Everett Wallinger making high scores and Mrs. Ray Fuller and Tommie Wallinger, low. As stated above, Mr. Wright was given a handkerchief shower. The hankies were all placed in a big red bandana and carried to Mr. Wright on the end of a stick.

The happy party closed with some community singing. In addition to the neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Wright's two daughters and their families were present, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Greiner and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Helvey and two children, all of La Grande.

Making More Changes—The men of the Odd Fellows' lodge at Sumnerville are continuing the repairs on their new hall, which is the first floor of their building at Summerville but which, up to within the last few months, has been used otherwise. The flue which went up thru the center is being taken out and put up at the side of the room. Then a stage will be constructed across the hall to be used when plays, programs, etc., are given.

While the men are working on this, the women come at noon and serve their famous dinners and everyone has a good time. The new stage promises to be used in the near future, too, for the Rebekahs have already commenced rehearsals for the home-talent play "A Wild Flower of the Hills," the exact date being March 30. Mrs. Wayne Park is coaching the production and the list of characters includes some people who have been cast in former Summerville plays and indications are for a successful entertainment.

Dinner Friday—Mrs. Ray Fuller, Mrs. Martha Jane Moss, Mrs. Ritha Wallinger and Mrs. Ruth Hughes are giving a chicken dinner Friday evening at the Fuller home in the Valeria district, the first of a series of dinners for the Ladies Aid of the First Methodist church in La Grande.

Allens Welcomed—The neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Allen, near the Cove, Friday night to give them a house-warming and welcome to that vicinity.

The Allen family has recently moved from El Monte, Cal., and are living on the ranch occupied by the late John Allen. The party was a great success for Mr. and Mrs. Allen and, likewise, it was a decided success. There were about 40 guests who came laden with baskets of food and the ardent desire to make the newcomers feel the warmth of the welcome on the part of their new neighbors.

Have Nice Party—The clam feed and card party given by the Jewel Rebekah lodge at Summerville last week was a real success with a large crowd and a fine supper. These affairs which have come quite regularly the last few weeks have proved to be very popular and that community is quite enthused over them. The next one is announced for Friday evening, Feb. 23. The public is invited.

reduction is expected a week from Monday. It was announced that in demobilization regulations, all persons living in households where another member is working, whether on public or private employment, will be dropped first; also, all persons who have other resources will be the first taken from the rolls.

When the civil works ends, Hopkins said, all needy persons will be given emergency relief. Rural areas, particularly those in southern states where spring work is well under way, were selected for the first demobilization. Workers in the northern areas, where spring is later, will be demobilized last, it is said.

CLOUDS HOVER OVER VALLEY

Cloudy skies this morning broke into a full week of clear, bright days, although the weather prediction for tonight and tomorrow indicates a return of fair weather to Eastern Oregon, accompanied by slightly colder temperature.

The minimum last night was 28 above but the mercury was up to 39 above at 7 a. m. Thursday's maximum was 59 above.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Eberhards in Pendleton—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Eberhard were in Pendleton Tuesday evening and attended a meeting of the Eastern Star to honor W. Percy Folsom, grand sentinel of the grand chapter of Oregon.

Returns—Mrs. Emma Kiddle returned the first of the week to her home in the Grande Ronde apartments after an absence from the city of seven weeks.

Mrs. Kiddle has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Earle in Portland and also Mrs. Albert Hunter and Mrs. Andrew Moffitt in Salem.

FORD OWNERS PRAISE "V-8"

A car recommended by hundreds of thousands of satisfied owners and millions of miles of service, is the way the Ford V-8 is described by W. C. Perkins, Ford dealer of La Grande and the valley. "The many improvements on the new model are tried and proved refinements, they are not experimental fantasies," says Perkins. "Most important is the increased power and reduced operating cost. These improvements have been brought about not by any change in the design of the motor which already had been proved so satisfactory during 1933 but by the development of a new dual carburetor, new dual intake manifold, and other refinements."

Cars driven by A. F. Suydam and Blanche Snook figured in a minor collision on Adams near Depot Thursday. No one was hurt.
