Annual Missionary Luncheon Held Saturday At The Home Of Mrs. F. L. Ralston

The annual missionary luncheon at which the Presbyterian Missionary society entertains was enjoyed by 48 guests Saturday at the home of Mrs. F. L. Ralston. Pussy willows and daffodils decorated the luncheon tables and rooms.

Central P. T. A. Holds Candy Sale

The Central Parent Teacher association held a candy sale in conjunction with the annual Founders' day tea on Friday, and proceeds will be used to procure new covers for the tables in the lunch room at Central school. The committee in charge of the entire event included Mrs. Harry Zurbrugg, chairman, Mrs. A. L. Gralapp, Mrs. J. J. Foley, Mrs. H. W. Fredericks, Mrs. F. L. Ralston and Mrs. F. G. Henning.

Miss Butterfield To Wed R. Austin

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Butterfield, of La Grande, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Robert Austin, of Salem, formerly of this city. Mr. Austin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Austin.

Bridge Party At The Jones Home

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones entertained a group at bridge Saturday evening at their home. Mrs. A. Ballantyne, of Caldwell, their house guest, was an out-of-town guest and received the women's prize for high score. Lot L. Snodgrass was high scorer among the men. Mrs. John R. Garty received the consolation award.

Barbara D. Cochran Is Complimented

Barbara D. Cochran, who is leaving this week for her home in Palo Alto, Cal., was honored Sunday at a breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran, where she has been visiting since the Christmas holidays. Arrangements for the event were made by Mrs. Dwight H. Jesse, Miss Kathryn Sartain and Miss Eloise Wright.

High School P. T. A. To Meet Thursday

Arthur Wight and A. L. Gralapp will speak and the mathematics department of the La Grande High school will present a play Thursday evening at the meeting of the La Grande High school Parent Teacher association, at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium. "The Case of Matthew Matix" is the play. Mr. Wight will discuss a scientific subject, and Mr. Gralapp will speak on visual education.

Mrs. Thompson Is Honored

Mrs. G. W. Thompson was surprised Sunday on the occasion of her birthday anniversary when a group of friends gathered at her home for dinner. Dinner was served at 4 o'clock at a table decorated in red carnations and red tapers.

Rainbow Girls In Short Meeting

Because of the basketball tournament on Saturday evening the Order of Rainbow for Girls held only a brief business meeting at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic hall. No activities have been planned by the group during the basketball season. Mrs. E. A. McEachron, mother advisor, said today.

Eastern Star To Meet Wednesday

The Eastern Star will enjoy a social meeting at the Masonic hall Wednesday evening. A program has been arranged to follow the regular business meeting, at 8 o'clock.

Study Group To Meet Tomorrow

The J. H. Ackerman Parent Teacher study group will meet with Mrs. Glen Wagner, Sixth and Pennsylvania, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Helen Moor, dean of women, will speak on mental hygiene. She talked before a group of women in Pendleton recently on this subject and it is reported to have been very interesting. Attendance has been increasing at the study group meetings. All interested are urged to attend.

Greenwood P.T.A. Provides Lunches For Youngsters

The Greenwood Parent Teacher association sponsored hot lunches at the school during a three-week period when nutritious food and cocoa were served at cost. Donations were received from children in the form of milk and vegetables to pay the cost, while others pay 20 a cup. Needy children were given tickets by their teachers for free lunches and all were given a second helping if desired.

EAST OREGON MAY GET SNOW

Possibility of snow tonight was indicated by the weather forecast for Oregon today, although La Grande residents — with no snow since an inch fell Jan. 31 — were inclined to doubt the probability.

MINOR ACCIDENT HERE SATURDAY

Cars driven by J. C. Lewis, of Summerville, and W. M. Dobbin, of Union, figured in a minor traffic accident at Sixth and M Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. No one was injured, according to reports to the police.

HERMISTON IS DEBATE WINNER

Elmo Stevenson, of the E. O. N. faculty, Misses Nora Meyer and Jean Williams and J. H. Bunt, of the High school faculty, were in Pendleton Saturday judging a high school district debate. The question was: whether the U. S. should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control.

Nineteenth Baby Born to Woman

Some of these days the problem of finding names for babies is going to be serious for Mrs. Rachel Alkire and her husband. For here is their 19th youngster, a daughter, just born to the 39-year-old woman. "We both like children, and both are from large families," says Mrs. Alkire.

C. E. Societies Have Charge Of Church Program

An inspiring program was presented Sunday evening to an appreciative audience at the Presbyterian church when the members of the Christian Endeavor societies took entire charge of the evening service, as is their custom at least once during the year.

The entire program of the evening, the theme of which was "Witnessing for Christ in all our lives," was presided over by Frederick Bingham, president of the Senior-Intermediate society. The entire program was as follows: professional, "Faith of Our Fathers" by the Endeavors, during which they took their places on the platform; call to worship, Frederick Bingham; song "More Love to Thee, O Christ" by the congregation; scripture reading, Romans 12 by Jack Eakin, Joanna Leslie and Verdon Cummins; prayers by Mildred Stoddard, Ruth Geibel and Kathryn

Moran; solo "I Know He Cares For Me" (Howard Brown) by Ruth Geibel, accompanied by Melba Shepherd; talks by Stella Jean Ingle, Mary Pree and Wayne Foster, each of whom told of the theme of the evening's program and reviewed something of the history and other facts concerning the Christian Endeavor movement. A violin solo, "Meditation" (G. S. Morrison), was given by Anita Herrmann, accompanied by Melba Shepherd. Other talks further elaborating on the theme of the evening, the work and ideals of C. E. were given by Clifford Smith, Dorothy Lee Reynolds, Ben Grandy and La Velle Hanna. Following the offering and offertory solo, which was played by Mrs. Harley Richardson, organist, the congregation united in singing "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart", during which time the platform was cleared preparatory to the presentation of the play. At the close the group united in repeating the Mizpa benediction. Bill Eakin had charge of ushering. Mrs. Richardson presided at the Oregon and Carl Douhan assisted with the lighting effects.

IMBLER PERSONALS

Despite repeal of the 18th amendment the use of alcohol in any confection or candy is still termed an adulteration and is barred by the nation's pure food and drug laws.

A sextet from the girls' Glee club under the direction of Miss Callihan, has been organized as follows: Sopranos: Berniece Fowler, Lorena Stewart, Donna Watson; altos: Dorothy Richeson, Ruth Conklin and Ethel Pratt.
