Bishop to Visit Church Sunday On Annual Trip

Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington to Preach Sermon at St. Peter's—Other Church Programs Announced.

Programs at the churches of La Grande for the first Sunday in March include the following:

St. Peter's Church (Episcopal) (Fourth street at O)
Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, bishop of the Eastern Oregon diocese, of Pendleton, will make his annual official visitation to the church Sunday.

The services follow:
8:00 a. m.—Holy communion.
9:00 a. m.—Church school.

11:00 a. m.—Morning prayer with confirmation and sermon by Bishop Remington. The music: prelude "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" by Vodouznik; offertory, anthem "Send Out Thy Light," by the choir; postlude "March Pontificale" by Lemmens.

The Young People's Fellowship will be held at 6:30 p. m.

The usual 7:30 service during Lent is to be omitted this Sunday.

The class in personal religion will meet Monday at 3 p. m.

Services Thursday include holy communion at 8 a. m. and again at 10 a. m. in connection with a sermon on "Symbolism."

First Methodist Episcopal Church (Fourth St. at Spring)

The services at the Methodist church will begin at 9:45 with the church Sunday school in charge of Supt. M. L. Whitney. There has been a splendid response on the part of the children and their parents to the program of the school, and the interest and attendance are gratifying. There are classes for all aged groups that are in charge of well-prepared teachers.

At the morning worship service, besides the anthem by the chorus choir and a special solo for the offertory, the folk of La Grande will be privileged to have as the morning preacher, Rev. H. G. McCallister, of Caldwell, Idaho. Mr. McCallister is the district superintendent of this district and is known by many here as an interesting speaker.

The Epworth League will have its regular meeting at 6:30.

At the 7:30 evening preaching service the pastor will have returned and will be in charge of the service, preaching the sermon on the subject "Shall the People Perish?"

All are welcome to these services.

Church of Our Lady of the Valley (Fourth street at L)

Holy mass on Sundays at 8 and 10 o'clock in the morning with the Rev. Father Thomas J. P. Brady officiating at both. He will preach the sermon at both masses.

There will be holy mass on week days at 8 o'clock with holy communion and confessions before.

On Wednesdays throughout the season Lent there will be rosary, litany, prayers and benediction of the blessed sacrament. Service will be at 7:30 in the evening.

On Friday at 7:30, there will be the way of the cross, veneration of a relic of the True Cross, and benediction of the blessed sacrament.

On Saturday morning at 10 o'clock there will be special instructions for the children of the parish in the rectory.

Choir rehearsals will be held every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings.

Church of the Nazarene

Sunday services will be held as usual. The subject for the evening service will be "The Second Coming of Christ." Announcements will be made regarding the revival. Rev. Josiah Tucker, evangelist, is in charge.

Island City Community Church

At the 9:45 morning worship hour, the district superintendent, Rev. H. G. McCallister, will be the preacher, and have charge of the service in the absence of the pastor who will be in Enterprise for the mid-winter Epworth League institute in session there.

Sunday school session will follow the preaching service at 10:45. There are five interesting classes here for all in the community. All are urged to come and hear. Dr. McCallister and stay for the Sunday school.

Gospel Mission (2201 North Fir)

Revival meetings are under way here, each night at 7:30 p. m. except Saturday, with Evangelist Lillian E. Holm in charge.

Sunday school will be at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all. Morning worship is at 11 o'clock, the young people and intermediates meet at 6:45 p. m. and the evening service at 7:30 p. m.

Presbyterian Church (Sixth and Washington)

"In the final analysis, it is the business of social and economic engineer experts, inspired by the high spiritual aims, human and divine, as inspired and generated by Christ and fostered by a living church, to do the actual work of setting right the institutional relationships of men," said the minister, Rev. J. George Walz, in announcing the Sunday morning service, to be held at 11:00 o'clock, when the Rev. Frank Jasper, will bring the sermon message. The offertory will be sung by Mrs. Henry Heyden, using Victoria Demant's "Hymn of the Last Supper." The choir will sing an anthem, E. E. Hurley, directing in the absence of Mr. Loney who has been ill, but is now recovering.

Mr. Jasper is occupying the pulpit in the absence of the pastor who will speak in Central Presbyterian church, Portland, on Sunday, and convene the Synod's committee on national missions, of which committee he is

Jesus' Testimony Concerning Himself. Mat. 11:2 - 13:30
The Baptist in his prison cell of Jesus fame was told. Was He indeed Emmanuel? By prophets long foretold?

John sent disciples to inquire. That he might surely know: And Christ, to answer their desire, Began His works to show.

To many blind He gave their sight. Healed many sick that hour. Expelled foul demons by His might. And thus revealed His pow'r.

"Tell John what you have seen and heard." The Savior then replied. No doubt when John received this word His heart was satisfied.

Christ said, "All things to me are given By my great Father's hand: All pow'r on earth and up in Heav'n Is now at my command."

"Come unto me, ye burdened one. By Satan's yoke oppressed, Believe and learn of me, God's Son. And I will give you rest."

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls. — Rev. 21:21.

We read of a city that had twelve gates that were always open. They were never closed at night because in that city night was never known. It was the Holy City, New Jerusalem, which the apostle John in a vision saw coming down to earth from the Lord. I like to think of it as the city of the ever-open door.

Yet though its gates are always open, there are some people who cannot enter it. The proud, deceitful, cruel, impure and untruthful cannot enter. It may seem strange to you that if the gates are open, everyone cannot enter. The evil are always shut out. But it can be explained.

If there is nothing heavenly in your heart and mind, you cannot see the gates of heaven, and you cannot go through the gates into the city. The gates were made of pearl. Pearl stands for purity and truthfulness. Pure thoughts, pure speech, pure motives, pure conduct. These are the gates that lead us to the Lord. If you have these things in heart and mind, the gates of the Holy City are always open to you.

Everyone who strives to keep the Ten Commandments will find the gates wide open, waiting for him to enter. By trusting in the Lord and obeying Him we find our way to the over-open door. If we tread the paths of purity and truth they will lead us through the gates into the city of God. The Lord has assured us that He is "the way, the truth and the life." Put your trust in Him, keep His commandments, and He will help and strengthen you to walk in the way everlasting. — A. W.

The golden text is, "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ" (I Cor. 3:11).

The lesson-sermon consists of citations from the authorized version of the Bible, and correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

"The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined" (Isa. 9:2).

"When a new spiritual idea is borne to earth, the prophetic Scripture of Isaiah is renewedly fulfilled: 'Unto us a child is born, . . . and his name shall be called Wonderful'" (S. & H., p. 109).

Zion Lutheran Church (First and Washington)

Following Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. morning services are at 11 o'clock with Wednesday evening services at 8 p. m. The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open from 1:30 to 5 p. m. daily.

The subject of the Sunday service will be "Christ Jesus."
