Mrs. Joe Williamson Installed As President of Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society

Mrs. Joe Williamson was installed as president of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid at a meeting yesterday at the church. Mrs. S. B. Morgan is the outgoing president and presided. Mrs. J. K. Wright was installing officer. Other new officers are Mrs. L. J. Lindsay, vice president; Mrs. M. G. Murray, secretary; and Mrs. J. J. Broughton, treasurer. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Morgan. Mrs. Nellie Robertson, outgoing vice president; Mrs. Broughton and Mrs. Murray, the latter two having accepted their offices for another term. Mrs. H. C. McClay pleased the society with two musical readings, "Katy Did" and "Why", accompanied by Mrs. A. L. Graiapp. Mrs. Wright and her committee served refreshments from a table attractively arranged with spring flowers. Mrs. J. George Wals presided at the tea table.

Ladies of 433 To Entertain

Wives, mothers, daughters and also sons of Elks are invited to a desert bridge at which the Ladies of 433 are entertaining tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 at the temple. Mrs. C. W. Chandler is chairman of the event assisted by Mesdames A. F. Ingram, Harley Smith, John Garity, Clyde Bunting, Lynn Larson, E. D. Davis and August Erickson. Dessert will be served at 1:30 followed by cards.

Senator Kiddle To Be Speaker

Fred E. Kiddle, president of the Le senate, will be the principal speaker, explaining the sales tax passed by the state legislature, at the meeting of the Greenwood Parent her association Friday afternoon at 8:45 o'clock. A program has been arranged by Mrs. Evelyn Bennett and Mrs. Sadie Lambert which includes the following numbers: "The Wind," "Spring Song," "Adventure," songs by the second grade. An explanation of the activities of the opportunity room by Mrs. Lambert. A demonstration of work done in the opportunity room by children. "The Postman," a playlet, directed by Mrs. Bennett.

Primary Group Holds Meeting

The primary group of the Central Parent Teacher association study club met recently at the room of Mrs. Stella Ingle in the school building. A round table discussion on the recreational life of the child was led by Mrs. H. J. Melancon who stressed the need of supervised play, the best kind of games and the reasons for playing them. On Friday, March 9, at 2:30 o'clock in Harvey Carter's class room the adolescent group will meet, with Mrs. Norman W. Frees discuss the book, "Our Movie Made Children."

Missionary Society At Anderson Home

The home of Mrs. G. I. Anderson was the scene of an inspiring meeting of the Christian Missionary society Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. L. R. Purdy presided during the business session while Mrs. J. A. Williams was program leader and also presented the devotion on the theme "Christ in the Island World." The devotional program closed with the group singing "I Gave My Life For Thee." Mrs. Ruth Helvey discussed "When East and West Meet"; Mrs. Rose Edson spoke on "Following the Flag in the Philippine Islands"; Mrs. W. L. Hoyt, "What Has God Wrought?"; Mrs. R. J. Kitchen, Mrs. Oma Lapham and Mrs. L. R. Parlett presented a play, "Letters From Japan." Musical numbers, a vocal and an instrumental duet, were furnished by Avery and Estelle Milbrink. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Sandoe and Mrs. W. S. Price. Mrs. L. R. Parlett will entertain at the next meeting on April 4, a self denial meeting.

Goodwill Club Honors Widows

Widows of G. A. R. veterans were special guests of the Goodwill club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lillian Shewmaker. Mrs. Susan Burnett, one of the visitors, told of one of Morgan's raids on her home and also of other events of the war. Mrs. Susan Paulk and Mrs. Martha Williamson were other G. A. R. widows present. Mrs. Dora Divens, of Pendleton, a special guest, spoke on patriotic work in her home city. Mrs. Roy Burnett, of Union, was present also. Mrs. Margaret Harmon presided.

N. O. W. Members Hold Meeting

Thirty-six members of the Neighborhood Woodcraft met Tuesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Beulah Blacker, of Union, was a visiting member. Mrs. Hazel Graham 1301 Seventh street, was named to be hostess of the Social club March 15, at 2 o'clock. Miss Lulu McNeese was presented with an award. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edwards and her committee. The next regular meeting is on March 20 at 7:30 o'clock.

Neighborhood Club Discusses Art

The art of yesterday and today was discussed ably by Mrs. L. L. Douglass Tuesday afternoon before the meeting of the Neighborhood club at the La Grande hotel. The development of modern art was unfolded in an interesting manner, and both schools were illustrated by pictures shown by the speaker. Mrs. Leo Miller sang two numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Merin Batley. The next meeting of the Neighborhood club will be dedicated to the pioneers, and pioneers of the county will be invited to attend. Mrs. Kate Hanley is chairman of the meeting.

Mrs. C. E. Wale Entertains Club

Mrs. C. E. Wale entertained the L. A. L. club Wednesday afternoon at a desert bridge at which Mrs. H. G. Dow and Mrs. George J. Tass were guests. Dessert was served at 1:30 and the table was decorated to carry out a St. Patrick's motif, with spring flowers. Mrs. M. A. Harrison received the prize for high score and Mrs. Charles Karther, second. Mrs. Walter Lane will entertain the club March 21, at 2 o'clock.

Rhea P. Vest And Ralph Looker Wed

Ralph E. Looker and Rhea P. Vest, both of La Grande, were married Wednesday morning by Justice C. M. Wilbur in Walla Walla.

Plans Made For Minstrel Show

Plans for a minstrel show to be presented in the future were made recently when the Past Noble Grandes club of Crystal Rebekeh lodge, No. 50, met with Mrs. Mollie Buck, with 14 members and five visitors present.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in quilting. Mrs. Buck served refreshments assisted by Mrs. Payne Brown and Mrs. Bernice Bramwell.
