Church Services For Next Sunday Are Announced

Many Interesting Programs Are to Be Held in La Grande Houses of Worship.

Church services in the La Grande community for Sunday include the following:

Presbyterian Church

(Sixth and Washington)

In a certain state prison, men are reading the popular little monthly Today published by the Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian church. The chaplain purchases two hundred copies each month for distribution, and those who read the little magazine are enthusiastic about its practical use in daily devotions. This the Lord sends out his message to human hearts. At the service Sunday morning, 11:00 o'clock, the pastor will bring a message on the theme "The Price of Salvation." Mrs. A. K. Parker, soprano, will sing a solo number, and the choir will sing the other music of the service. A cordial invitation to strangers in the city, and all others who would attend, Mrs. Harley Richardson, organist, will play the service.

Sunday Bible school at 9:45 a. m. This hour is always well spent by those who attend. While the school has a large attendance, there is room for others interested. All ages welcome.

Young People's Christian Endeavor

Formed in the old manse at 5 p. m., each Sunday, while the high school group of Christian Endeavorers meet in the church at 6:30 p. m.

St. Peter's Church (Episcopal)

(Fourth street at O)

Holy communion at 8 a. m. begins the Sunday services, followed by church school at 9 a. m. At 10 o'clock, sermon and communion will be held, with members of the confirmation class to have their first communion. They are especially requested to attend.

Evening prayer and meditation will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Thursday morning communion will be held at 8 a. m. and also at 10 o'clock, with an address on "Symbolism" also at the later hour.

The class in personal religion will meet at the chapel Monday at 3 p. m.

The Gospel Mission

(2201 North Fir)

Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m., followed by morning worship at 11 o'clock. The young people meet at 6:45 p. m. and the evening service of evangelism begins at 7:30 o'clock. In this service Mrs. Lillian Holm, the evangelist who is conducting a revival meeting here, will speak on the subject "The Book of Life."

Week-night services are held every Wednesday at 8:00 o'clock. Meetings this last week have been marked with real interest. It is reported. Next Friday night will be prayer for the sick and the evangelist will speak on "Is Divine Healing Found in the Word of God?"

Central Church of Christ

(Pennsylvania Avenue)

In spite of a good deal of sickness the attendance at all services at the Church of Christ have continued to maintain a high average. March is being observed as "evangelistic month," the culmination of which will be a two weeks evangelistic campaign beginning March 18 and continuing until Easter. The Bible school is still attempting to reach a goal of 400. Graded instruction is offered to all. The church meets at 9:45.

A special service will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday in honor of the Boy Scout groups that will attend the service. The pastor, Rev. Paul DeL. Mortenson, will speak on the subject "Be a Scout." One of the scout troops of the city will attend in a body and parents and friends are invited to attend with them. The communion will be served at this service as usual and the choir will sing an anthem. The Junior Service will be held at the same hour in the primary building.

Christian Endeavorers meet at 6:15 for interesting sessions. Young People of the city are cordially invited.
