"The Postman," a play, was presented by the second grade, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Bennett. A group of songs was presented by the same grade. "The Wind," "Spring Song" and "Adventure," under the direction of Mrs. Nell Thacker.

The organization and work of the "Room of Opportunity" was presented by Mrs. Sadie Lambert, the pupils explained making various objects, and an exhibit of the work done was on display including baskets, doll furniture, mail and letter boxes, step-ladders, airplanes, toys, etc.

Miss Myrtle Hoyt's room received the attendance prize with 19 parents present.

A nominating committee was named which includes R. A. Wilkerson, Miss Myrtle Hoyt, Mrs. Nell Thacker, Mrs.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET TUESDAY

An interesting program has been announced for presentation at the meeting of the Union County Historical society Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn.

The program will be opened by community singing led by Miss Lydia Hug with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Nell Thacker. A group of musical readings will be given by Beatrice Young, accompanied by Miss Beatrice Miller. They are "The House With Nobody In It" and "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer, and "Radiance."

A group of vocal solos, of which one is "Mate O' Mine," by Elliott, will be presented by Mrs. Ray Fuller, accompanied by Mrs. W. E. Adler.

A recollection of Terry Tuttle, Union county's first county school superintendent will be furnished by his daughter, Mrs. Joe Ruckman.

A recollection of the early '60s, written by Mrs. Lydia Grandy, will be read by Mrs. Sherwood Williams, her daughter.

Annual election of officers will be held.

Everyone who is interested in Union county history, and not just pioneers of pioneer descendants, is invited to the meeting.

U. P. TRAVELOGUE IS PRESENTED AT LIONS LUNCHEON

Miss Avis Lobdell, special representative of the Union Pacific system, presented a U. P. travelogue at the Lions luncheon today at noon at the Sacajawea Inn, showing the slides of the national parks, the new U. P. streamline train and Boulder dam, J. I. Purdy, traveling traffic agent of the U. P., with headquarters in Pendleton, also was a guest, with Lowell Williamson and Francis Greulich, of La Grande.

These basketballers can't "save" selves for prom. BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Knut Rockne once "saved" a cocky halfback "for the junior prom," but Coach Art Powell of the University of Buffalo basketball team worked at the other way around.

With games booked for Thursday and Saturday, and the prom sandwiched in Friday night, Powell ultimatum: "Nobody goes to the prom unless we win Thursday night."

It was announced that the second open forum to which the public is invited, would be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Sacajawea Inn with Rep. Bill Allen and Leroy Grettum, manager of the E. O. L. & P. Co., of Baker, as the speakers.

The Lions and auxiliary will hold a hard-time dance Thursday evening, Mar. 15 at 8 o'clock at the Sacajawea and all members are expected to come appropriately dressed.

A large audience viewed the illustrated travelogue sponsored by the Union Pacific Saturday evening at the Sacajawea Inn. Miss Lobdell, special representative, was in charge of the presentation which included beautiful color slides of Zion, Bryce, Grand Canyon, national parks, Boulder Dam and Union Pacific's new streamlined train which will be in La Grande on April 2. The Old Timers' club sponsored the meeting Saturday evening at Sacajawea Inn. The slides were shown yesterday at the L. D. S. Recreational hall and today at the Lions club luncheon.
