LUMBER MAY GET MORE PROTECTION

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15 (AP)—Representative Wallgren (D. Wash.), predicts additional protection for Pacific northwest lumber and shingles under the proposed bill giving the president power to raise or lower the tariffs by 50 per cent and place restrictions against importations endangering American industries.

Saying that lumber at present is protected by a $1 a thousand feet tariff and an excise tax of $3 a thousand, "which for all intents and purposes is a tariff," Wallgren said under the bill the president could raise the total to "what would amount to a $6 a thousand duty."

NEW YORK, Mar. 15 (AP)—The machinery trade is optimistic, says "American Machinist." February gross sales apparently ahead of January. "A shorter work week, if it comes," asserts the publication, "would work hardships in machinery production, but these would be more than offset by the stimulation of markets that would be sure to result."
