Lions Club And Auxiliary Enjoy Hard Time Party Thursday Night At The Sacajawea

Dressed in their official evening attire, the Lions club and auxiliary enjoyed a hard time party last night at the Sacajawea small ballroom. Mrs. George Ties, Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. Willard Tubbs formed the committee in charge.

Balloons decorated the ballroom. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and from among the waiters, Raymond O. Williams and Mrs. H. M. Howard were chosen as the stellar terpsichoreans. Dave Steward's orchestra furnished the music.

Miss Margaret Painter, tap dancer, furnished a group of dances, accompanied on the piano by Jack Ooolidge.

For the "hardest time" costumes Mrs. Fred Henning and Mrs. Edward Davis received the prizes for the women, Frank Tuckey and Mr. Davis for the men, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Finlay, for the couple.

Missionary Group Honors Founder

The Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church observed Founder's day at a program given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Leighton. Mrs. Leighton also led the devotions following the short business meeting.

An inspiring program of responsive reading and singing commemorated the event after which the history of the society was outlined from its beginning to the present by Mrs. T. E. Pierson, Mrs. Lee Hanford, Mrs. R. F. Tyler, Mrs. W. H. Herzing, Mrs. J. C. Headley and Mrs. S. E. Smutz.

"The Song They Sang," a playlet, was presented by Miss Alice Klippel's Sunday school class, the cast including Jean Davies, Martha Jane Clark, Fern Duncan, Mary Jane Heasler, Alladeen Ayars, Lois Broomfield and Frances Clark.

Fern Duncan and Mary Jane Heasler furnished music, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Leighton, Mrs. L. V. Duncan, Mrs. E. E. Hughes, Mrs. C. M. Telfson.

Thirty-six were present at the meeting.

The thank offering service will be held at the church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and all members are urged to attend.

Daughter Of Dr. Penrose to Wed

An announcement of widespread interest is that of the engagement of Frances Shipman Penrose, daughter of Dr. S. B. L. Penrose, of Whitman college, and Mrs. Penrose, to Henry Owen, of Seattle. The wedding will be an event of the near future.

Miss Penrose, a graduate of Whitman college, had a year's post-graduate study at Bryn Mawr college before returning to Whitman where she taught French and Greek for a year. She later was graduated from the Prince School of Improved Store Service in Boston, receiving at the same time from Harvard university, the degree of M. Ed. After three years in business in Minneapolis, she moved to Seattle where she has been active in the field of vocational training.

Mr. Owen, a member of a prominent Richmond, Va., family has been a resident of Seattle for the past 10 years where he is well known in business circles.

Annual Banquet This Evening

The annual banquet of the Gleaners and M Men of the L. D. S. church will be held tonight at 7 o'clock at the Recreational hall, and attended by members of the two groups from each of the wards in the stake. The banquet will be served by the First Ward Relief society.

Stake officers in charge are Nephty Combs and Mrs. William Pacer.

Auxiliary Will Aid Playgrounds

The American Legion auxiliary will give financial support to the community playground project this summer, it was decided Wednesday night at the monthly meeting at the Sacajawea Inn.

Visitors from Baker were Mrs. Carl Castle, district president; Mrs. Jess Brown, Mrs. H. G. Southard and Mrs. George W. Hicks.

Mrs. Fred E. Jones transferred her membership from Wallowa last night, and Mrs. Mary Yeske was taken in as a new member.

Mrs. Ella Baker Entertains Club

When Mrs. Ella Baker entertained the members of the K. D. club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Jackson avenue, 11 members were present for an afternoon of games and informal sociability. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jeanne Ball, Mrs. Ulla Webb and Mrs. Etta Pool. Mrs. Sarah Young received the club gift.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, March 28 with Mrs. Ball.

Loyal Sisters Aid in Meeting

A novel feature of the program Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of Division A and B of the Loyal Sisters Aid of the Christian church at the home of Mrs. A. L. Voels was patching a man's shirt. Each woman sewed on a patch under which was placed a coin, and proceeds from the feature will be used by the society.

Plans were made for the annual birthday party, April 11, at the church. It also was planned to serve a dinner in the near future.

Mrs. Russell Parlett conducted a guessing contest after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Voels, Mrs. Parlett, Mrs. Joe Williams, Mrs. Arch Conley and Mrs. Earl Hough.

Alladeen Ayars Heads Group

Alladeen Ayars was elected president of the Naahinit Camp Fire group at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Williamson. Marjorie Williamson was elected secretary; Martha Jane Clark, treasurer; and Fern Duncan, scribe.

First aid demonstrations were presented by the girls as a feature of the meeting, at which Dorothy Waldron and Bernita Pierson were guests.

March 26 is the date of the next meeting.

Eagles Auxiliary Entertains

The Eagles auxiliary arranged a special evening and invited the members of the lodge Thursday night. The evening was spent playing cards, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Steve Hiatt was chairman of the committee in charge.

The Eagles held a short business session preceding the party.

Mrs. Clyde Sullivan Hostess to Club

Mrs. Clyde Sullivan entertained the members of the So-Ne-He club Wednesday afternoon at her home. Shamrocks with white marisais used for decorations gave the home the air of St. Patrick's day as did other features of the afternoon. The afternoon was spent at pinocle. Mrs. Gladys Huff winning the first prize and Miss Blanche Prouty, second.

Doctors Give Creosote For Chest Colds

For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds and bronchitis knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosolium with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolium is powerful in the treatment of colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolium by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolium as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolium on hand for instant use.

SOME PLAN TO CONTINUE IN C. C. C. CAMPS

CAMP POINT ORFORD, Ore. (Special)—The 964th Co. C. C. C. is staging a program and dance March 17 in honor of St. Patrick's day. The music will be furnished by the camp band. Henry Yohn, of La Grande, plays the banjo in the band.

The second enrollment period of the three Co is drawing to a close. There are several La Grande boys planning to re-enlist for the third period, although a few are leaving.

Antone McEwen, special orderly for the captain, has received a ten-day leave and will visit in Medford. His home is in La Grande.

Sixty of the boys from the 964th visited the Oregon Caves last Saturday. Among the La Granders who made the trip were Merle Carbine, Clifford Briggs and Antone McEwen.

Some of the boys were seen at church at Port Orford last Sunday night, including Byron DeJean and Roy Lovell, of Wallowa, and Antone McEwen and Glade O'Neil, of La Grande.
