

Over The Valley Personals

Have Dancing Party—
Members of Mt. Fannie Grange gave a St. Patrick's party Saturday evening at their hall near the Cove. There was a splendid crowd present, an exceptionally good time is reported and the grange profited financially. The committee in charge of the arrangements was H. E. Miller, Mrs. Helen Becker, John Miller and John Richards.

Returns—
Mrs. Mary Combes, who has been visiting her sister at Oakland, Cal., since before Christmas has returned to her home at Sunnyside. Her sister, Mrs. Minnie Shoberg, who has visited the valley on several occasions and has many friends here, returned with her for a visit.

Improve—
Mrs. Ray German, who lives north of Pleasant Grove, has been a patient at Hot Lake for the last ten days, is reported to be improving. Her sister, Miss Clara Pries, who is a graduate nurse, is caring for her.

Attend Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawson, of near Union, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodruff, went to Portland last week to attend the funeral of a relative. From Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson were planning to go up into Washington to visit their daughter, Miss Lois.

Frauen Verein—
Mrs. Lydia Lantz is entertaining the members of Frauen Verein—home ec group of Mt. Fanny grange—today at her home above the Cove. Plans were being completed for the spring meeting of the Pomona grange.

Sunday School Party—
There were about 100 people present at the party given Friday evening by the Methodist Sunday school of Imbler, at Ruckman's hall. Those who arranged the affair planned interesting things for the entire evening, games to begin with, a nice program and refreshments. The Imbler Sunday school is in a very thriving condition and is growing. Charles Cleaver is the superintendent, but during his present indisposition, Joe Lloyd is in charge. The regular attendance runs from 70 to 80.

Birthday Dinner Club—
The Birthday Dinner club was entertained last Tuesday by Mrs. C. H. Hibbert at her home in La Grande. All the members, besides three guests, Mrs. A. L. Huff of La Grande, Mrs. Loren Turner of Union and Miss Edith Rogan of Grange Hall, were in attendance for the potluck dinner the hostess served shortly after the noon hour. The time following dinner was spent in sewing and conversation. Mrs. Dora Smutz will entertain the club at her home Apr. 26.

Library Benefit—
The Egin Women's Improvement club is sponsoring a silver tea as a benefit for the Egin Library, on Wednesday, March 22. A wedding dress style show will be a feature of the afternoon. The ladies are requested to wear their wedding dresses or to bring them for someone else to model. It is expected that all of the wedding styles from 1894 to 1934 will be represented.

Blue Mt. Grange—
Saturday was initiation day at Blue Mt. Grange. Miss Wilma Smith, Miss Edith Rogan and Beryl Taylor were given the first two degrees of the initiatory work during the business session in the forenoon. At the second meeting in April the third and fourth degrees will be given to these three candidates and also to some others who have previously taken the first and second degrees. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter were elected alternate delegates to the state grange which is to be held at Roseburg in June. Frank Jasper, master of Blue Mountain, was chosen to represent the local order on the fair board.

Mrs. Tom Bates led in the singing of a group of Irish songs with Mrs. Ed Jasper playing the accompaniment on the violin and Mrs. Victor Rogan on the piano. Harry Avery, county agriculturist, gave a talk, his subject being the different codes in effect along the agricultural line, especially the creamery or butter code and the proposed new butter code. The grange discussed the egg situation at some length.
The St. Patrick idea was carried out in the dessert when Section One served dinner at 12:30 o'clock.
