Mrs. Myron Chandler Elected President of Baptist Women's Society For The Coming Year

Mrs. Myron Chandler was elected president of the Baptist Women's society at the annual meeting held yesterday at the church. Mrs. I. E. Chenuit was chosen as vice president; Mrs. Sidney Happer, secretary; Mrs. J. K. Campbell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Courens, treasurer; Miss Merle Whitmer, missionary vice president.

A program was presented, "A Day on Board Our Home-coming Ship," being the theme. The different ships that had part were worship, "ships that did not come back," secretary-ship, treasure-ship, fellow-ship, hospital-ship, work-ship, offering, W. W. G. library-ship, and messenger-ship.

Mrs. H. M. Ziegler presented a report of the year's relief activities in a unique manner.

A delightful lunch was served by last year's standing committee.

Entertains Goodwill Club

Mrs. Margaret Herrmann entertained the Goodwill club of the Women's Relief Corps Tuesday afternoon at her home. The hostess also presided over the business meeting during which plans were made to piece another of the series of quilts which are being made for the members. When the series is completed each of the members will have received a quilt top. Mrs. Anna Hoesch was presented with the last one.

The afternoon was spent visiting, after which Mrs. Herrmann and Mrs. Mary Day served refreshments.

Mrs. Celia Gates will entertain the club on April 3.

Bible Literature Is Discussed

Literature of the Bible, the Psalms and books of wisdom, were discussed Tuesday afternoon when the Second

Easter Program Enjoyed by Lodge

Mrs. A. T. Hill arranged an Easter program for presentation Tuesday night at the meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at the Odd Fellows hall. Thirty-eight were present.

Miss Ruth Geibel sang two solos, "The Palms" and "The Garden of Love," accompanied by Miss Melba Shepherd. Mrs. R. L. Eken presented a comic reading and Mrs. Hill read an appropriate poem from Longfellow.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held March 31, the proceeds to go to the lodge work, and also for the social club to piece a "star bouquet" quilt.

Mrs. Gertrude Sullivan received the lodge gift.

April 3 is the date of the next regular meeting to be held at the Odd Fellows hall at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Wright Heads Bible Searchers

Mrs. J. K. Wright was installed as president of the Bible Searchers class of the Presbyterian church at impressive services conducted by Rev. J. George Wals Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cummins. Mrs. W. M. Coudit took over the vice presidency; Mrs. T. H. Gaither, treasurer; Mrs. Mamie Lewis, secretary; Mrs. Anna Oliver, teacher; Mrs. Netta Eakin, assistant teacher; and Mrs. Jennie Thompson, chairman of sewing.

Mrs. Charles Wicklander and Mrs. L. A. Kennedy were assistant hostesses and with Mrs. Cummins were in charge of the social hour and refreshments enjoyed later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Jasper led the devotional program on the 41st Psalm and the poem, "Mothers of Men," which she gave.

Thirty were present.

Westway Club Meets Tomorrow

The Westway club of the Women's Benefit association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Garfield Simmons, with Mrs. C. L. Mackey as chairman of the Leaders of Auto Unions In Meeting

Strikes increased in Northern Ohio. In Cleveland makers of business machines and paint, furniture, millinery and laundry workers are on strike. There is a strike of match workers in Barberton and rubber workers in Ashtabula.

Scattered CWA strikes continued in Pennsylvania and New York state. Some have been settled by wage increases.

An A. F. of L. union will decide tonight whether to call a strike on the E. G. Budd Manufacturing company in Philadelphia. The company makes automobile bodies.

At Pittsburg, Cal., employees of the Columbia Steel company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation, voted for a company union.

NEW YORK, Mar. 22 (AP)—Violence of major proportions broke out among striking taxicab drivers today, a crowd of about 200 men moving in disjointed groups through the streets in the midtown section leaving behind them a trail of wrecked and disabled taxicabs and bruised and beaten drivers.

Q. Do trees die of old age?
Ans.: A tree never dies of old age, the oldest living things in the world are trees.

John, Dear!

Don't forget to bring home a package of Snow Flakes!

Those crisp, flaky soda wafers taste so good with cheese. They have a true wheat flavor that's simply delicious—and they're salted just the way you like them.

Do you know, Snow Flakes are the most popular soda wafers in the West? Yes! They're always so good—so oven-fresh. Because... Uneda Bakers ovens are within a short distance of your grocery store! The double wax wrapping helps, too.
