Mrs. Fred E. Kiedle and Miss Helen S. Moor were recent visitors in Pendleton, attending a party at which Mrs. Harold J. Warner was feted. Mrs. John Dickson, Mrs. Phil Weik, Mrs. Daphna Gibbs and Mrs. Donald Robinson were hostesses for the event at the Dickson home.

Children Enjoy Weekend Hikes

The groups of younger children of St. Peter's Episcopal church have started their picnicking and hiking season by two recent events. On Thursday the members of the boys' choir hiked into the hills and enjoyed out-of-door refreshments while on Friday the little girls of St. Hilda's club went on a similar expedition.

Palm Sunday Breakfast Served

The members of the boys' choir of St. Peter's (Episcopal) were guests of honor at a Palm Sunday breakfast served yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at Human hall. Mrs. Clarence Kopp, who directs the choir, was assisted in arranging and serving the waffle and egg menu, by Mrs. Wydie, Mrs. Crowley and Mrs. Puckett. The boys were seated at one table, the decorations being the lovely yellow forsythia, following a color arrangement appropriate to the season.

CHURCHES OF CITY OBSERVE HOLY WEEK

senior choir, under the direction of Mrs. H. N. Ashby, will present the cantata "The Seven Last Words" on Saturday, Easter Even, evening prayer and baptism will be at 4:00 o'clock. Special services throughout the day on Easter will be given detailed announcement later.

The Zion English Lutheran church has announced a Good Friday special service at the church at 7:30 p. m., with all members urged to attend this special service to commemorate the crucifixion of the Savior.

Services will be held every night except Saturday at the Central Church of Christ, where Rev. Paul De P. Merrimore is conducting a special revival campaign.

Rev. W. H. Herzog, pastor of the First M. E. church, also announces services every night of Holy week except Saturday, each service beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Thomas J. P. Brady, A. M. Ph. D., pastor of the Catholic church of Our Lady of the Valley, will conduct in the church special religious services on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 there will be rosary, sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by confessions.

Thursday, known in the liturgy of the Catholic church as Holy Thursday, commemorates the institution of the Blessed Sacrament and at 2:15 in the morning there will be mass, followed by procession of the Blessed Sacrament to a side altar where it will be exposed all day until 7:30 in a solo. Other music will feature these hours. The invitation is most cordial and pressing to attend all, at least a part of these services. On Friday, anyone wishing to come, if for only a short time, will be at liberty to come at any time and stay as long as convenient for them, then leave. Those who can stay through the three hour period, will find it a time for true devotion and meditation. Unavoidable circumstances has made it necessary for the choir to postpone its cantata one week. Further announcement later.
