TALK GIVEN BY DR. AGER

On March 22 Dr. Ager gave the vocational guidance class a very interesting talk on the possibilities of women doctors. She said they had to work hard to keep up with the men doctors who were rather inclined to look down on the women. She said that the people did not put very much faith in women surgeons because they did not think them very capable of quick decisions which are needed for such things. She said she did not know if it was worth the effort and sacrifice required to make good. She said maybe men expect women to be dumb because they wear skirts. She told many interesting things about her class. She said sometimes when going to school you don't get out doors only once or twice a month when she went to school and it was hard on your health, but now many places require you to get out some. You become so interested you hate to leave your studies.

There are many different fields for women doctors. Women like children and maternity cases best. They do not like general practice very well. When she went to school she got scarlet fever and one girl died of blood poison. She said when you study medicine you are afraid of almost everything, because you learn the danger of disease from many things. Stella Warner is the only woman holding the position of assistant surgeon general. San Francisco offers the most encouragement for women but it already has many doctors. A doctor must be willing to go into the rural communities and small towns because although it is more interesting in large towns, it takes lots of money to keep going. Mildred Heberer.

Library Averages Nearly Hundred Magazines Daily

Through investigation in the study hall library, it was found that an average of 99 magazines and encyclopedias are taken out for reading or reference each day. It is also interesting to note that more magazines are taken out on Friday than any other day. It is rumored that the circulation of the "Field and Stream" is about to increase as several students who have perfect attendance so far are getting "spring fever" and have decided to restrain their desires to nature on paper.

Through The Keyhole

How do folks! How do you do! Seeing that graduation is nearly here, we'd like to dedicate this little ditty to Seniors. You've probably heard it before, but nevertheless, you're going to hear it again.

Rock-a-bye Seniors on the tree top, As long as you study, your grades will not drop; But if you stop digging, your standing will fall, And down will come Senior, diploma and all.

Neva Stein, we'll get even with you for blaming "Through The Keyhole" on Mr. Huffman. What was the name of that paper-backed magazine that you were reading during the sub-district tournament?

Bob Brack gave much thanks to the Birthday Greeting column last Wednesday. He nearly forgot little Iris Matetti's birthday and wouldn't that have been too bad.

Dorothy Wall likes gum so well that one of her teachers donated her a private waste basket.

Gigolo Truman Irwin spent a blissful hour with Winifred Scott just outside the door of the D. A. building, fourth period, Thursday.

The time was late and Miss Palmer was hungry—What to do — "Mr. Huffman, will you loan me a nickel?" "I'm nearly starved. I'll pay you back, honess."

Denouement—Prof. Huffman treats committee of teachers gathered to discuss play.

Watch that stuff, Matlock! Teachers don't like guys who don't make up their time when they skip school.

How come all the ex-L.H. Seniors are hanging around Blanche McPierston's locker at late? A frequent visitor is one Art Steffen.

Why is it that the cornets always "St" means to stay a short time and "set" means to stay a long time.

"Johnny" asked his teacher, "can you tell me what the word 'budget' means?" "Sure, teacher," replied Johnny readily, proud of his knowledge, "it means a family fight."

School Campus Being Beautified By Student Improvement Association

The first week of the work of the Student Improvement Association has shown what a wonderful opportunity is being afforded. They cleaned up the campus until it looks beautiful. The walls of the hallways have been made clean and neat and are being kept so. Many of the rooms and equipment, including the lockers have been given over and present a splendid appearance. A spirit of co-operation is being shown by practically everyone, including faculty and student body. School spirit and loyalty are being developed and each one realizes that he will be greatly benefited by this movement. A fine group of boys came on Saturday and spent many hours going over the campus and building, with Mr. Blunt in charge and working as hard as anyone. The manager and leaders all put in many hours of hard work and are being rewarded by seeing practically everyone loyally behind the plan. Each day the building and grounds are carefully inspected and where anything is found that needs to be done, someone takes the task in hand, with the result that everywhere one goes he sees a change for the better. We are sure that in the near future we will see a completely new spirit in our high school. Mr. Blunt and the association are to be complimented for this wonderful program that will mean so much to us.

Contest Numbers Are Announced

A tentative list of those members who are eligible to attend the state band contest is given below: Clarinets: Roswell Weeks, Wilma French, Thomas Cook, Bob Long, Emily Beery, Adelaide Zweifel, Bob Dow, Muriel Lund, John McManus. Cornets: Bob McMillan, George Denny, Ralph Florberg, Jack Brandt, Bill Gunn. Bassoon: Howard Webb. Drums: Charles Skinner. Flute and piccolo: Everett Reynolds, Hart Rechlin. Saxophones: Harold Weeks, John Blanchard, Eugene Cummins. Bartones: Don Higgins, Floyd Bryant. Horns: Deloris Powell, Neva Stein, Edgar Draper, Dorothy Lee Reynolds, Trombones: Jack McClay, Jim Bruce, Don Jasper, Fred Herzog. Basses: Myron Wheeler, George Wilson, Eugene Schultz. Trumpets: Lawrence Philmore, Walter Dahl, Robert Butler.

The contest, which will be held at Corvallis, April 20-21, is a goal toward which the band has been working since early last fall. The operetta defrays the expenses of the trip but since some new uniforms have been ordered, it is probable that a concert will be given some time in April, for which a nominal fee will be charged in order to clear all expenses.

The contest piece this year is a difficult composition, "Building March" by Greig, and the overture which is also judged is Peter Schmitt by Weber. The "warming up" march selected is "El Capitan" March by Sousa.

ANNOUNCEMENTS NOW READY

The seniors are able to order their commencement announcements from the senior advisor, Miss Lillie. All the seniors should bring their money to her as soon as possible.

Teacher (reading "To a Skylark"): What is the mean of "Love's sad society?" Bright Boy: Marriage.

STEN. CLASSES TAKE UP FILING

Mrs. Hays' advanced shorthand classes have taken up a brief study of filing, in addition to their regular work. Each student is required to type names and addresses on 50 cards to use in learning the fundamentals of filing.

INQUIRING REPORTER

What is your idea of school spirit? Ellen Torrence—Soph.: I think one should have a school spirit like a spirit for one's mother.

Roy Pleshman—Junior: I believe that the one who has the most school spirit is not the one who yells the loudest, it is the one who helps the school make the most progress.

Eugene Rochester—Fresh.: I think that the class who has the school spirit is sure to win because they try to boost the school teams and their own in all the games.

Jack McClay—Junior: I think that a person with the proper school spirit should cooperate with his class officers as well as the student body officers in all things.

Jim Bruce—Junior: I think that school spirit means putting everything one has into the progress of his class and school.

Bob Arnoldus—Junior: I think school spirit is what we need to put this S. I. A. over and have our school look like a college.

Homer Seider—Senior: I think school spirit is the idea to be bigger and better school.

Elizabeth Milne—Senior: Something to be looked up to by Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen.

ISSUE CALL FOR TRACKMEN

Although the track will not be available for two weeks, Coach Woodie has issued the call for trackmen. The east straight away of the field is in condition for running and the weight men are beginning to limber up.

Juniors Defeat Second Team For Championship

The Junior All-Star team made it two straight over the tading Varsity 2nd team hoopers by defeating them 15 to 12 in a fast, interesting game. The Junior quintet was the first team to break the splendid record of the Varsity 2nd team, which later fell victim to the Seniors and again by the Juniors, making a total of three defeats for the season. It was the third defeat in 23 games for the second stringers.

PRACTICE ON BASEBALL BEGINS

Mr. Dixon is getting an early start in baseball this year, rounding up material for a successful baseball season. Many boys are turning out for the sport and practice is being held regularly on the Central field.

The lettermen returning from last year's lineup are Louie Walden, catcher; Arlyn Beck, 2nd base; Sheldon Hyde, shortstop; Fred Leonard, fielder, and Charlie Young, pitcher. The team will have much improved help coming from Koyle, Blackman, Leonard and a few other prospective pitchers trying for the position. Others who will give the regulars from last year's nine a fight for a position are Morris Robertson, Howard Beck, John Biggs, Chester Davis, Philip Leonard, Robert Arnoldus and Herbert Voruz. There are many other boys who may out from a position with their improved playing before the season is under way. The close of the state tournament will see still others out.

It is expected that the latest turn out for baseball in La Grande Hi will take place after the basketball season is ended. There are about 20 boys out for regular practice each day.

Slides Shown To French And English Classes

Miss Kirby's classes in French saw some slides on French customs, especially in Brittany and on Paris. Miss Palmer's junior English classes also saw some slides on China, the art and primitive ways of factories in comparison with the modern way we do things. This is in connection with the essay written by Pearl S. Buck, "China the Eternal."

Mr. Wight (demonstrating an experiment) "If the contents of this glass would explode, I should be blown through the roof." Then, to give the students a better view of the experiment, he said, "Come closer so you can follow."

Bob Helm took one of his girls, a movie fan, to see an important football game.

As the teams came out for the second half, she nudged Bob and said, "Come, let's go now, this is where we came in."
