Theta Rho Girls Club, I. O. O. F., Organized Here at Special Meeting; Local Group Sixth in Oregon

For the purpose of instituting a Theta Rho Girls club, I. O. O. F., a special meeting was called at Crystal Rebekah Lodge No. 50 at the Odd Fellows hall. The club is the sixth in Oregon and the first in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Maude Rodgers, of Enterprise, junior past president of the Enterprise assembly of Oregon, presided at instituting officer and six Rebekahs received the Theta Rho degree. Nineteen young girls were introduced and given the degree. Mrs. Rodgers was assisted in this ceremony by 14 past noble grandes and one member. Those assisting were Emma Harding, past grand treasurer of the assembly, Minnie Bragg, conductor, Olive Chadwick, warden; Sarah McClure, chaplain; Florence Engel, R. S. to the P.; Ida Berry, L. S.; Lettie McGoldrick, R. S. V. P.; Mary Simmons, L. S. V. P.; Mabel Anson, vice president; Mollie Buck, I. G.; Martha Moss, O. G.; Faye Yonke, marshal; Mrs. Monroe, secretary-treasurer; Lou Robertson, musician.

After the initiation of the club, Zeta Theta Rho Girls club, No. 6, was instituted. Emily Beery was elected president; Ruth McClure, vice president; Margaret Young, secretary; Mildred Young, treasurer. Mrs. Minnie Bragg is advisory officer.

The installation was open to the public. Mrs. Nora Noah was instituting officer and Mrs. Faye Yonke, marshal. The following girls, all charter members, were installed, including the aforementioned officers: Lilly Bleck, warden; Ella Engel, conductor; Louise Hug, marshal; Sylvia Turu, chaplain; Aretha Gibson, R. S. president; Maxine Noah, I. G. president; Verna Borine, I. G.; Sigrid Borine, O. G. Annette Turu, Mary Jane Chadwick and Estella Kube were also charter members.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by a committee of Rebekah members. Mrs. Sarah Young, Mrs. Edna Borine and Mrs. Alice Turu.

Art Research Club To Meet Monday

The Art Research will meet Monday afternoon, April 2, at 2:09 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George K. McDonald in the valley.

W.B.A. Attendance Is Increasing

Attendance at the meetings of the Women's Benefit association has increased greatly since the attendance contest started several weeks ago. Tuesday night the group met at the Eagle hall and a skit was presented by one group of the contestants.

Pythian Sisters To Convene Here

The Eastern Oregon convention of the Pythian Sisters will be held in La Grande April 5 and plans for the event were discussed Tuesday when the Pythian Social club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Jones. Plans will be completed in the near future.

White Elephant Exchange Enjoyed

A white elephant exchange was an entertaining feature of the meeting of the K. D. club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Burt. The following girls, all charter members, were installed, including the aforementioned officers: Lilly Bleck, warden; Ella Engel, conductor; Louise Hug, marshal; Sylvia Turu, chaplain; Aretha Gibson, R. S. president; Maxine Noah, I. G. president; Verna Borine, I. G.; Sigrid Borine, O. G. Annette Turu, Mary Jane Chadwick and Estella Kube were also charter members.

D. A. R. Honors Pendleton Woman

An Eastern Oregon woman, Mrs. G. R. Holt, of Pendleton, was elected second vice regent of the Oregon society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the convention held earlier this week in Portland. Mrs. Holt is regent of the Umatilla chapter, D. A. R., and has long been prominent in that organization. In addition she is a member of the Thursday Afternoon club and the Pendleton Woman's club.

LEGION PLANS BENEFIT DANCE FOR APRIL 7

Seventeen years ago on April 6 war was declared with Germany, but that legionnaires believe, "is no reason why one should not make peace with his wife or sweetheart and come to Zuber hall on Saturday evening, April 7, and celebrate with the La Grande post of the American Legion in a patriotic dance in an especially decorated hall with good music and special features." The dance will be one of the unusual social events of the season and the proceeds will be used as an advertising fund for securing the state legion convention for 1935 for La Grande.

HEAVY RAIN FALLS HERE AND IN HILLS

Establishing a new March record here for one hour's precipitation, rains eased off over the Pacific Northwest during the night, the weather man announced today. Since the rain started Monday night Portland received 2.96 inches, the heaviest in any similar period in three months. The Willamette river was up 1 1/2 feet at Portland, to a stage of 7 feet, having risen 3 feet since last Saturday. Benefits from the rain have been widespread. Early forest fires in the Cascades were checked, particularly in Washington, and great relief was brought so Central Oregon stock farmers whose ranges were badly in need of moisture. New impetus was given crops in Eastern Oregon and in the Willamette valley.

I. C. CEMETERY GROUP TO MEET

A meeting of the members of the Island City Cemetery association and all those who are interested in this project will be held Tuesday evening, April 3 at the church at 7:30 o'clock. An enthusiastic meeting was held last Tuesday evening when a number of very important matters in connection with the upkeep of the cemetery were discussed. These and others will be presented at the next meeting. Merton Kiddie states in his announcement and it is hoped that the attendance may be quite representative.

Wirt Investigation Wins Committee Vote

Trustee who told School Superintendent A. Wirt that his group planned a communistic revolution in the United States were called today by

Wirt "the usual move to distract attention from the real issue." With respect to the congressional investigation, Wirt said: "When in my estimation the welfare of the country demands that the names be made public, I shall disclose them."

THREE-SPORT SCOTCH GIRL FULFILLS TENNIS ROMANCE

GLASGOW (AP)—Miss Marjorie Langmuir, only woman in Scotland to represent the country in three sports—lawn tennis, hockey and badminton—will sail from Greenock for Canada in April to marry James Barr, former Scottish international badminton player. Their marriage is a romance of the tennis and badminton courts. In 1931 they held the mixed doubles championship of East Scotland.

Q. Why are most canal boats still drawn by mules rather than propelled by machinery?
Ans.: The disturbance of the water caused by a propeller causes the banks gradually to fill in the bottom of the channel.

39 C. C. Camps For State
PORTLAND, Mar. 29 (AP)—Oregon will have 39 C. C. camps in operation this summer, giving employment to about 8,000 young men who will be engaged in improvement of the forest reserves and in fire prevention. Twenty-three winter camps will be abandoned in Oregon for the summer and the men will be sent to the mountains where summer work will be required. The summer term begins April 1.
